Does anyone really care?

Have you ever felt unloved, lonely, as if no one cares or understands? Haven't we all at times?

Recently I walked past a homeless man begging on the streets; he was only in his twenties. He looked sad and despondent, as if he'd given up on life. Maybe no one cared for him; perhaps he himself didn't care anymore? But there he was, all alone, his only hope... that passers by would give him some money – what a life for a young man!

Why are there so many people in this world who feel alone, rejected and abandoned? Is it their fault entirely? Who is to blame for all the broken homes, families and lives? Is there a general answer, or is each situation different?

Life can be really tough at times. People are losing their jobs and homes, and many are losing their self-esteem. People just don't know where to turn for help, therefore many turn to drugs and alcohol to try to ease their pain... which in turn, only leads to increased problems. Without doubt, this country we are living in is in a mess, and no politician or leader has the answers to the real problems.

These days, people don't seem to care much for one another; there really isn't much love in the world, especially when you've hit 'rock bottom'.

If this was all there was to life, with no hope of life after death, it would be a most miserable existence. Some people never break out of the rut they are in, they have very little to hope or look forward to.

1989 was a significant year for me. I found the answer to one of the deepest questions we can ever ask... 'What is the meaning and purpose of life?' I found out there was more to life than just 'existing'; I also found out there is life after death.

I can't physically prove my findings to you, but I would like to challenge you to look into what I am about to tell you with an open mind and without any preconceived ideas.

Over 2000 years ago a man named Jesus Christ walked this earth, history actually proves it as there is documented evidence to this fact.

He claimed to be God in the flesh!

Why did He come to earth and walk among us?

Because as a human race we had sinned and cut ourselves off from God and were walking the pathway to Hell. Jesus came to save us from our sins and from the punishment we deserved. Mankind had decided to live without God, and look at the mess we have made of things.

The Lord Jesus, saw us in our need and knew we needed a Saviour. Someone who would take our place, die and go to Hell for us, but because He was perfect, death and Hell could not hold Him and three days later He arose from the dead, conquering sin and death, and is able to give us everlasting life in Heaven... if we believe and trust what He did, and receive Him as our personal Saviour. Have you?

I put my faith and trust in Jesus Christ in 1989, and from that day forth, I know that my sins have been forgiven. I'm washed in His precious blood, and have a home awaiting me in Heaven when I die, or if He comes first at the Rapture. I have found out the meaning of life and have a peace that is unobtainable anywhere else. I've been a Christian now for over 30 years, and it was the best decision I ever made.

This world is falling apart and the only hope there is, is turning to the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation, help and guidance. Without the Lord, you are walking in darkness without a light, you have no way of knowing where you are going. Jesus Christ is the light of the world. Why not become a Christian right
