TfT! News – has now been in circulation for over 21 years

Intro...

What a year we've all come through, 'good' and 'bad' in many areas. We are certainly living in the most bizarre of times, and uncertainty seems to be the 'norm'... what will happen next, no one knows. It's wonderful being a Christian knowing that the Lord Jesus Christ could return anytime now, it's a great hope and keeps us going and motivated. We've witnessed the HOAX and SCAM of Covid and now there is a so-called war with Russia. What next?

Christian Soldier's Battle Notes...

Hi John, Thought I'd give you an update. The Christian Soldier's Battle Notes has been of fantastic value. Had some time off to study, and it's such a great resource, especially if you follow along with the noted scriptures you leave with the writing. Really helping me understand what I need to be doing and how I work in God's will to help others. Thought the review would be useful. Thanks again, In Christ, Matthew. Have you ordered your copy yet? I'm still working on volume two, very slowly.

Isa 13v11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. (Isa 2v17, 26v21)

Isa 17v7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. (Isa 10v20; Mic 7v7) When do you think this will take place?

Responses to tracts...

We receive responses to our tracts most weeks which is also encouraging even though 90% are negative. It still means they get read and have done their job. I also get some terrible emails from atheists who are so angry you wouldn't believe it. Our tracts sure do challenge people to 'think'. With our name out everywhere, we also receive a lot of emails from Christians, 50% of which are also negative, I guess. It's amazing how many Christians get stirred up by our material and the stand we take. Again, the Lord uses our material to get Christians 'thinking' too. I find 'pride' much worse in Christians than I do among the unsaved. Some Christians are so proud they are unteachable, which is always very revealing. Every month we see Christians wanting to be removed from our mailing list, and Christians wanting to be added, it's very interesting. No matter what, if you come across Time for Truth! you will be challenged in some way over the truth we put out; what you do with that truth is up to you, but we've done our part. I'm very thankful for all the blessings I see here at TfT! and for all those who stand with us and support us in this ministry.

Are you on our FREE sermon CD mailing list?

We are sending out thousands of our sermons everywhere. If you are not on our free mailing list and would like to be, just let us have your full name and address.

Are you on our weekly email update list?

If you're not, you've missed over 790 email updates since the Covid HOAX, which includes loads of information and Bible studies etc. If you're not on it and want to be added, just let me know by sending me your email address. We put out, sometimes daily, information that is helpful and challenging. The weekly updates have become a large part of our ministry now, and we're touching thousands of lives through it, as you use and forward on this information.

Being thankful...

I'm very thankful to the Lord Jesus for all that He has done in my life. I cannot even begin to explain how many times I have seen His hand help me in every situation I find myself in. Whether it's our ministry, the church, or our business, the Lord guides us and helps us. Col 3v15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. I'm very thankful to the Lord how He has used us to impact many other lives through the ministry He has given us. It is wonderful and so encouraging seeing others get fired up to study their Bibles, reach lost souls and seek a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. May the Lord continue to minister to all of us as we see the day approaching (Heb 10v25).

Time for Truth! NEWS...

We've been putting these newsletters out now for 21 years can you believe it. I can't believe it. I don't know what I expected from that first one to be honest. It just grew and grew. Through it, we've picked up a lot of Christians along the way, and we've also lost a lot too, due to our stand and the 'way I speak' (!!!) We've poured our lives into serving the Lord and love it. We stand upon the truth of God's word, the King James Bible, and we haven't flinched or questioned it from day one, it's God's word, and we believe it. Through the years we've given out and 'shipped out' hundreds of thousands of Gospel tracts, and these little missionaries have entered places that we personally could never get in to. It's been an incredible journey so far, and we look forward to the next step as the Lord leads us. Our team has also grown, and so has the church.

What happens when you become a Christian? Here are a few notable things...

In relation to God the Father...

We have access to God's grace – Eph 2v8+18

We are adopted into the family of God as His son – Gal 4v5, Eph 1v5

We have an inheritance – Acts 26v18

We are elected – 1 Pet 1v2, Eph 1v4 (No one is chosen IN Christ 'before' the foundation of the world outside of Christ and time. In this dispensation, God doesn't choose anyone unless they are IN Christ. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were never IN Christ and never will be IN Christ, because they are not part of the 'Body of Christ'. In this dispensation, you are not elected until you are saved. Of course, the Calvinist doesn't understand this.)

We become a child of God – John 1v12, 1 John 3v1

We get a heavenly citizenship – Phil 3v20, Eph 2v6

We become an heir of God and join-heir with Christ – Gal 3v29, Rom 8v17

We become a new creature NOT a new 'creation' (check your modern 'bible' – 2 Cor 5v17 cf. Rom 8v20). We have God's nature, and this 'creature' has that by being born again (John 3v3+7, 1 Pet 1v23)

We become a servant of God, what a privilege! – Rom 6v22

We become a priest of God – 1 Pet 2v5+9

We are reconciled to God – Eph 2v12, Rom 5v10

We are sanctified – 1 Cor 6v11, Acts 26v18

In relation to God the Son...

We are accepted in the beloved – Eph 1v6

We are baptised into Christ's body by the Holy Spirit – 1 Cor 12v13, Gal 3v27 (which has nothing to do with Acts 2)

We are buried with Christ by spiritual baptism- Col 3v3, Gal 3v27, Rom 6v4 (which has nothing to do with Acts 2v38). Gentiles don't get saved by being baptised in the name of Jesus, they get saved by receiving the Holy Spirit by faith, not water. Everyone in Acts 2 is a Sabbath-observing, temple-worshipping, bearded, pork-abstaining JEW... NO Gentiles are in Acts 2 unless they are proselytes to Judaism (Acts 2v10). There is NO WATER in Galatians and there is NO WATER in Romans!

We are a love gift to the Son from the Father – John 17v9

We are indwelt by Christ and saved by Jesus Christ – Acts 16v31, Acts 4v12, John 14v23

We possess eternal life – John 10v28, 1 John 5v13

We have peace with God through Jesus Christ – Phil 4v7

We become a friend of God – John 15v15

We have our name recorded in Heaven – Luke 10v20

We become a fellow labourer whose name is written in the Book of Life – Phil 4v3

We are seated with Christ in Heaven – Eph 2v6 – our spirit has been born again and regenerated by the Holy Spirit and joined with Christ's Spirit – 1 Cor 6v17

We receive the Blessed Hope when it comes – Titus 2v13

We have fellowship with the Godhead (aka Trinity) through the Son – 1 John 1v3

The Lord has prepared us a mansion in Glory – John 14v1+2

In relation to God the Holy Spirit...

We are born again through the Spirit and baptised (spiritually) by Him – John 3v3-7, 1 Cor 12v13 (water has no part of your salvation)

We are anointed by the Spirit – 1 John 2v27

We are sealed by the Holy Spirit – Eph 1v13

Our body becomes the temple of the Holy Ghost – 1 Cor 6v19

We are given gifts (not to be confused with 'sign' gifts (1 Cor 14v22 cf. 1 Cor 1v22) given to Israel) – 1 Cor 12. When God quit dealing with Israel directly at the end of Acts 28, the apostolic 'sign' gifts ceased. They are counterfeited by Satan today (2 Thes 2v9) and those who think and believe they have them are LIARS (Rev 2v2, 2 Cor 11v3+4)

The Holy Spirit guides us through life – Acts 8v29, Acts 11v28, Acts 16v7, Acts 18v5, Acts 19v21, Rom 8v14

We have freedom / liberty IN the Spirit – Rom 8v2, 2 Cor 3v17

The Spirit helps us to be 'spiritually' minded – Rom 8v4+5

The Spirit will raise us up – Rom 8v11

The Spirit of God takes away our fears – Rom 8v15

The Holy Spirit helps us to pray and helps us with our infirmities – Rom 8v26

The Spirit reveals things to us, and helps us search the 'deep things' of God - 1 Cor 2v10+12-14

We are washed, sanctified, and justified by the Holy Spirit - 1 Cor 6v11

We are given knowledge and wisdom by the Holy Spirit – 1 Cor 12v8

We receive 'fruit' through the Spirit of God - Gal 5v22+23

In relation to our sins...

We are saved and forgiven – Luke 7v48

We are justified – Rom 5v1, 4v5
We are redeemed – Rev 5v9, 1 Pet 1v18+19
We have an advocate – 1 John 2v1
We gain victory over sin – Rom 6v21

Plus loads more happens when we get saved...!

NEW Booklet...

Well, this booklet is very hard hitting, straight down the line and our fourth in the series fighting against all the covid nonsense and tyranny. I hope it's the last we have to produce in order to help blow wide open the lies from every angle. These booklets should be distributed everywhere you go. Tens of thousands of our 'Covid Hoax' booklets have been distributed all over the UK as well as overseas. We've had some great responses from them also. When you go shopping, always drop one in the trolley afterwards. Post them everywhere, especially through shops in the evening when they are closed. Two daily newspapers have also picked up on our booklets can you believe. These booklets fight LIES, and there are LIES everywhere today so spread them far and wide.

I'm entitled to my opinion...

I think this guy (with over 490 MILLION views) is the biggest HYPOCRITE on YouTube, just my opinion of course. He's interested in 'fame' and making a 'little money' on the side (YouTube) and will jump from PRO-vaccine to natural health and 'back and forth' to 'get' anyone and everyone into thinking he knows what he is talking about, to 'support' and 'subscribe'. People treat him as a 'doctor'...! He's a retired 'nurse' he says. It would be good to see his credentials and qualifications, wouldn't it? Those that watch him are the biggest suckers in the world. I could read from the same 'script' he reads from on each video, and with my 'great looks' build a money-making racket like he is doing. Morals and scruples seem to have vanished these days. Get what you can and schmooze the suckers and fulfil your own self-gratification while making a few quid on the side. To be brutally honest, I can't stand people like these leeches, yet one day, they will stand before the God of ALL TRUTH... and at that second, they too will need 'cleaning up'... vaccines and 'boosters' won't help them then. Many of the comments on his videos actually expose him for the idiot he is. He's NOT a GP doctor.

Triggerhappy Ranch 4 days ago

He's not a doctor and if he ever realizes what bad advice he has dispensed, the guilt will be soul crushing.

There isn't much encouragement among Christians is there?

A lot of pastors and leaders get very discouraged by the lack of encouragement they receive. Have you ever thought about that? Don't get me wrong, a lot are fat lazy loafers who do very little WORK. Most missionaries I know, especially over here from the USA, are overweight parasites who seem to be on a permanent holiday financed by their 'sending church' who seem happy with their one-page newsletter each month. To be honest, they are all a sad joke and spongers who don't know what a days work is really like. But... there are those Christian leaders who are very active doing the Lord's work (Luke 19v13) and have a passion and desire to see souls saved, those I appreciate and respect. It's those that need our prayers, help, encouragement and support. So, with that in mind, what are YOU doing to help in the Lord's work? If you live on YouTube you're a loser and a complete waste of time. God has no time for those who sit in front of their iPhones, iPads and laptops 'watching' rather than DOING. James 1v25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. What do you DO? What work are YOU involved in? How active are YOU in your local church? Sitting at home 'writing books' because you love the praise and adoration of what people will say about YOU is NOT pleasing to the Lord, that's NOT 'working' and 'doing' FOR THE LORD, that is self-gratification, seeking praise and in fact, narcissistic to be honest. If your ministry, what you do, becomes more of a focus, a 'love', more important to you than the Lord and worshipping Him and seeking His glory, rather than praise of men, you are MISSING EVERYTHING - John 12v43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. John 5v44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? Be careful what you worship, and what really becomes important to you in life. If the attention is taken away from Jesus Christ you are astray in your work and ministry. Time for Truth! will never become our focus, the Lord Jesus Christ IS. We all need encouragement in what we do, and some Christians are great at giving it, whereas others are totally selfish and useless, which one are you? 3 John 1v9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Most pastors and leaders are just like Diotrephes, are you? If something good happens and the Lord has allowed you to be involved in it, give ALL the praise and glory to Him.

I didn't know DUNG-slinger had a brother... and guess what, he's normal...!

Tom Denlinger is DUNG-slinger's brother, how about that. Tom is a lovely Christian who has a great ministry for the Lord compared to his possessed idiot brother who is doing nothing for the Lord only living in his house staying away from every human being he can because of fear. Tom loves the Lord Jesus Christ and the Body of Christ, DUNG-slinger hates both, that's why he is jealous of his brother and what he has achieved. Whatever happens, DON'T waste any of your hard-earned money on DUNGslinger, send it to his brother instead. Look at his brother's website and see how they are helping so many people. DUNG-slinger is sponging off everyone because he won't work and support his concubine and kid. I think DUNG-slinger is the most bitter and twisted vitriolic mad-man I've come across. He has four people in his cult and hasn't a clue who the Lord Jesus Christ is, neither how to live and serve Him. John chapter 8 blows DUNGslinger's interpretation of 'Jesus is the Father' heresy clean out of the lake in Maine. Prov 10v18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool. DUNG-slinger actually said that he is scared of going into a city (where there is a lot of people) and that anyone who attends a church building is NOT saved... can you believe this snowflake...! Take away DUNGslinger's YouTube channel and he has NOTHING...! He doesn't DO anything to reach the lost souls of this world. He can't teach or preach the Bible, he just moans, complains and criticises all those who DO have a ministry... all because of jealousy. He promotes his heresy of Jesus is God the Father (the idiot can't read simple English) to try to be different and gain a following, but 99% of Christians can see through this charlatan along with his boyfriend 'Jake-the-Snake'... they're just two dummies trying to con weak Christians out of their money so they don't have to work. They are BOTH unemployable and beg for money continually rather than trying to get a job. DUNGslinger's brother has a ministry... DUNGslinger doesn't, and is jealous of his brother's fruit. He's a very bitter Christian these days sadly, and constantly attacks the Body of Christ rather than edify it.

What impact are you having where you are?

Acts 17v6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; Look what the Lord did with just 12 men and how this all escalated and exploded. If every Christian 'sold out' to the Lord and sought to live for Him in everything, we'd see a different world. If it was just everyone on my mailing list, you would see a huge difference where you live and work. You see, most Christians are half-hearted and apathetic, with no real zest or zeal in their guts to face life and take every day by the scruff of the neck FOR THE LORD. We just amble our way through hoping for the best. The world calls those who make a difference 'shakers and movers'... I haven't seen a Christian in 2022 who 'shakes and moves' have you?

Jesus is NOT the Father... CULTS say He is...!

John 16v27+28 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. If a cult tries to tell you that Jesus Christ IS 'The Father', just give him these verses. End of argument. Jesus Christ is NOT the Father. If you think He is, it's because you don't understand the Scriptures. The Godhead is also known as the Trinity. NOT three 'God's', ONE God three 'persons', NOT parts like lunatic DUNGslinger says. Stop watching these numbskulls as they'll only confuse you and lead you into heresy, just like the HYPER-dispensationalists do, just like the MID-Acts and MID-Trib heretics do.

When people leave...

What should you do? People come and go in life for all kinds of reasons. If you chased them all you'd be running around like a headless chicken. Most of them you will have to 'let go' and may never see them again until Heaven. Many Christians are attention seekers and very childish, so you're best without them, just move on. I haven't got the time, the interest, or the energy to run after those that aren't 'interested'... so I don't bother. Sounds terrible I know. It's very difficult fellowshiping with Christians who are not on the 'same page' as you are. Can two walk together, except they be agreed? Amos 3v3. 'Ghosting' is a term used in this 'modern' world. It's when a friend or someone you've been dating disappears from contact with no explanation. Ghosting can shatter self-esteem and hurt just as much as physical pain. I'd never heard this term until a guy in the church explained it to me as he had suffered with it a number of times in life. Boy he is an amateur compared to me...! I've had people 'up and leave' all through my life... you get used to it, I guess that's why I have very little expectation from 'anyone' these days. The Lord knows my heart and their heart, so why worry. We recently had a couple of folks leave in the church because we were 'too deep' for them and they wanted 'happy-clappy', which is fine, enjoy yourselves, and I hope you find what they are looking for. Don't worry about these things, just commit it all to the Lord and move on, as life is too short to worry about all these attention seeking fakes and flakes. Smile, Jesus loves you darling!

Anthony Hopkins...

Hopkins is a recovering alcoholic; he has stayed sober since he stopped drinking just after Christmas 1975. He said, "I made that quantum leap when I asked for help. I just found something and a woman talked to me and she said, just trust in God. And I said, well, why not?" When asked, "Did you literally pray?" Hopkins responded: "No, I didn't. I think because I asked for help, which is a form of prayer." In January 2020, when asked if he was still agnostic, he responded, "Agnosticism is a bit strange. An agnostic doubts and atheism denies. I'm not a holy Joe; I'm just an old sinner like everyone else. I do believe more than ever now that there is a vast area of our own lives that we know nothing about. As I get older, I can cry at the drop of a hat because the wonderful, terrible passion of life is so short. I have to believe there's something bigger than me. I'm just a microbe. That, for me, is the biggest feeling of relief – acknowledging that I am really nothing. I'm compelled to say, whoever's running the show, thank you very much." It's interesting how your thoughts change as you get older and come to the end isn't it?

Tract responses...

We've had a lot of tract responses recently, which is always encouraging. In the last week alone, I've had three letters from a cult member, a sodomite atheist who left me a vile phone message, which created us sending over 25 texts to each other, and a self-righteous woman who has emailed me three times. It's always interesting corresponding with people, and seeing where they are coming from. The word of God always convicts them of their sins, and they usually can't stand reading Scripture, so they just explode and run away. All these three did just that.

Scott Morrison - prime minister of Australia and a total idiot... he's in trouble with the Lord Jesus that's for sure.

Scott Morrison is an Australian politician serving as the 30th and current prime minister of Australia. Morrison was raised in the Presbyterian Church of Australia, which partly merged into the Uniting Church when he was a child. He later became a Pentecostal and now attends the Horizon Church, which is affiliated with the Australian Christian Churches, the Australian branch of the Assemblies of God. He has said that "the Bible is not a policy handbook, and I get very worried when people try to treat it like one." In late 2017, Morrison stated that he would become a stronger advocate for protections for religious freedom. Morrison is Australia's first Pentecostal prime minister. He thinks misuse of social media is the work of "the evil one" and practises the Christian tradition of the "laying on of hands" while working. He said in a speech to the Australian Christian Churches conference in April 2021 that he believes he was elected to do God's work, although he later said that his comments were mischaracterised and that they were meant to reflect his belief that "whatever you do every day ... is part of your Christian service". He's a disgrace to the Body of Christ and an enemy of the people for the way he has treated them. He's pro-vax and has set-up 'detention centres' for all those who choose not to get vaccinated. May God deal with this moron and judge him for the anti-Christian stand he has taken.

We've just had our new Christian 'business card' printed with a Gospel message enclosed (Pete's idea)

Time for Truth is a Christian ministry which has been supplying Christians and churches all over the UK and worldwide for over 25 years, with tracts, books, Bibles, Gospel coins and the famous Gospel Cart. All of our tracts are sold at cost, what we pay, you pay. We believe the King James Bible is God's perfect word for today - Psalm 12v6+7. We are dispensational, and believe in the "Pre-Tribulation Rapture", expecting the Lord Jesus Christ to return anytime now. We also publish Time for Truth! NEWS and weekly updates. The main thrust of our ministry is to get the Gospel out to lost sinners everywhere. John, along with his wife Donna, is one of the founding members of Time for Truth! He leads The Oaks Church in Harvington, and is also a director of a commercial business. John is the author of the book 'The Christian Soldier's Battle Notes'. He also has a sense of humour.

Realise you are a sinner - For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; (Romans 3v23).
Death is a result of sin - For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Romans 6v23).
You need a Saviour - For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. (Luke 2v11).
You can't save yourself - For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. (Ephesians 2v8+9).

Only blood can wash away your sin - In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: (Colossians 1v14).
Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: (1 Peter 1v18+19).
There is only one Mediator - For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; (1 Timothy 2v5).

Newly saved...

Acts 20v28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Recently we've had quite a few newly saved Christians join us. It's always difficult where to pitch in sermon wise, because you want to feed the mature Christians and nurture the young ones, so it can be awkward when preparing as you want to feed everyone. I thank the Lord for all those He brings to us to look after. We do all we can to feed them spiritually and protect them from all the false doctrines floating around, and ground them in the Scriptures, to help them understand more about life from the Bible perspective. My job is to teach the Holy Scriptures to all those that come. The onus is on THEM as to what they do with Biblical truth. Most these days stay and get built up in the faith, some leave because we're 'too much' for them and they get challenged about their sin etc. and just can't seem to put the Bible first sadly.

The Oaks Church New Year's Eve 2021 meeting - Please answer the following questions and bring them with you to our meeting... This was Matt's response...

1) Looking back over the last year, what are the five highlights (best parts) for you?

- Leaving NFU Mutual and joining JDA
- Witnessing to family and having my Grandma read the Jack McElroy book about losing your fear of death.
- Getting through the trade shows
- Having all these new-comers join the church
- Having my faith strengthened - seeing God take care of us all the way through the chaos of this year when there's been so much doom, gloom and uncertainty

2) What have been the five hardest or worst parts of the year for you?

- Jan to July at NFU Mutual
- Dealing with my family - once at August and again around Christmas time. I hate how blind and deceived they are.
- I felt very nervous about the testing situation at the Trade shows prior to going to the NEC
- Going back to NFU Mutual - Working through bank holidays and never getting paid for it. I should've said no.
- Doing silly things like Jogging. Hurt my legs for about two weeks after. A silly thing to do.

3) What three things have you learnt over this year?

- That ministering to others is one of the most rewarding things that you can do. I'm shocked at how many hurting, lonely and broken people there are and we can all minister to others in our unique ways. It's important to look further than yourselves to see if you can alleviate the need of others in the Body of Christ.
- That standing up for what's right, even in the face of family and employers will always work out for good. Even if it's horrible at the time.
- Always be prepared to change. What doesn't bend, breaks. You have to bend, to change in life to accommodate others. Sometimes, radical and unforeseen change comes along and you need to adapt to it, and quickly.

4) What has your Christian walk been like this year, explain.

- Ups and downs. I've had a good time this year with the Lord but I've felt a million miles away from him when I was stuck in my job, doing ridiculous hours. I've had opportunities to witness to family and minister to others so I have been very pleased with that. I want to get into better habits and discipline in the days to come.

5) Who have you had an impact on this year?

- Don't know all the people but I hope that I've contributed positively to everyone. I hope that I've helped Dee with her workload. I've helped people around the world with the ministry to get the tracts and books they need and I've spoken to a lot of people over the phone. I hope that I've alleviated the loneliness of a couple of people because I'm shocked as to how many broken people there are - all over the world.

6) Who has had an impact on you?

- Everyone has to a degree. I've learned something from everyone in this room. Even my old bosses at NFU Mutual taught me a couple of things about work, IT and dealing with people. I've spent the majority of my time with John, Donna and Dee so I'd say they'd had the biggest impact on me this year, in a very positive way. Supportive, empathetic, compassionate and patient. I couldn't be surrounded by better people and I'm thankful to God for you all.

7) On a scale of 1 – 10 (10 being the best) – what has your Bible reading been like this year?

7 - I've been disciplined this year but I could definitely read more. It's hard to find the time - especially in the busy periods.

8) On a scale of 1 – 10 (10 being the best) – what has your prayer life been like this year?

5 - Seems to be an afterthought with me. I need to make more time to talk to God.

9) Do you think you have been in the will of God this year?

I hope so. I'm blessed where I am, and I've been blessed with what I've been doing so I pray that I am and I often ask God to put me in his will if I'm going astray. That might hurt but I've learned that it's the safest place to be. Particularly after the study on Paul in the Book of Acts in Church one Sunday.

10) What have you learnt by the mistakes you have made this year?

- ATD! Attention to detail.
- Double Check everything
- Take council from those around you. I have many blind spots
- If you say you'll do something - make sure that you do it. Make sure that you have credibility.
- It's better to slow down and do things slower but get things right rather than rushing things and being clumsy and making idiotic mistakes
- Small mistakes, sins and errors can have massive consequences

- Despite my foolishness, God oftentimes mops up out of his grace and mercy and spares me from the full consequences of my errors. I am humbled.

11) Have you stepped out of the will of God and landed in a place where you know you shouldn't have been? (Explain)

With my family - I'm thankful for the choices that have been made this year. I know that if I went back to see my family for a week in August - it would have been detrimental to the ministry as we did a lot of work that week.

Likewise, this Christmas - if I'd gone up to see my family, I wouldn't have been able to help with the ministry and take care of James.

Should I have done 3 Microsoft Exams this year? At the time, I thought doing them would help me at NFU Mutual. I wasn't to know that I'd be leaving so soon. Perhaps it was a waste of time and money but honestly at the time, I wasn't to know the future. It did help me at work and if I'd never got my job in Stratford, I'd never have gone to the Oaks Church. So I can't answer that right now.

I think on a smaller scale, I shouldn't have gone jogging in the summer. I could've used that time for spiritual things and I didn't. I was so sore so I really think that God allowed that to keep me out of it. Who knows.

12) Have you made important decisions this year that you know the Lord didn't bless? (Explain)

I don't know. I know that NFU Mutual was becoming a real slog for me so perhaps I should've gotten out of there sooner. I don't know. Sometimes you have to go through hard times to appreciate the good times to come.

13) What have you learnt about the world since Covid hit?

- That without a Biblical foundation - you'll go through life totally blind, making errors and blunders that you don't even understand and that you'll walk straight into a death trap without having any spiritual discernment. Without God, most people act just like cattle.
- That people really don't value freedom. As long as they have comfort, food and drink, entertainment, holidays and their business affairs, they'll go along with any tyranny, including being coerced into experimental, unproven, irreversible medical procedures.
- Do not trust anyone. Just one government decision can have your friendly next-door neighbour turning against you, reporting you and shunning you. This includes family and other Christians - shockingly enough.
- When it comes down to it - when there's shortages of food, toilet paper and fuel, it's a dog eat dog world. People will trample over each other in order to take what they want. The weak are discarded. Nobody cares. The love of many is waxing ice cold. Do not expect sympathy from the world, the government and its many institutions.

14) What would you like to change in your life in 2022 (not including the Rapture)?

- More Bible verses memorised.
- Less mistakes to be made!
- Less clumsiness!
- More attention to detail
- More discernment when dealing with people - less naivety.
- Being more perceptive about the needs of others.
- Thicker skin and more boldness. Learn to take and deal with criticism, offences, confrontation and insults. It's guaranteed to happen and to get worse as the world gets more and more evil.

15) Have you spiritually grown this year?

Hope so! I suppose only God knows but I hope so.

16) What have you worked on regarding your character from 2020 – 2021?

- Try to be less wrapped up in myself
- Tried to change in response to the needs of others
- Tried to be more generous
- Tried to be less fearful and trust God to take care of the scary things of the future and big decisions

17) Has a certain sermon really stood out to you this year?

The one about Paul when he loses years out of his ministry by rebelling against God and making the wrong choices. He wrote the epistles, he's probably the best Christian who ever lived yet he made mistakes.

Foolishness and doing the opposite of what God wants will waste your time and whilst God may forgive you time and time and time again, there will come a day when your times up. Knowing David Latham and his recent passing hammers this point home. Don't waste time because it is so finite.

18) How have you found The Oaks Church this year? (Any suggestions?)

It was tough at the start of the year, I won't lie. During the early lockdowns, I think we honestly got into a bit of a rut and things felt samey for a long while. We didn't really have a choice about those circumstances and we tried to make the best out of the rubbish situation but it was hard going.

I'm so thankful that we opened up the hall again. God has blessed the church in a massive way and we've seen unbelievable things happen. We've had all kinds of different people through the doors this year. I've never known the Church to be like this but it's really exciting and I'm humbled to be a part of it

19) How have you found Time to Regroup? (Any suggestions?)

Every session has been different.

You never know who will come through the doors.

You get all sorts of people turning up. Crazy whacky people, nice people, cold and frosty people, loud people, quiet people, saved people and even unsaved people.

I really enjoy it and you just never know what you're going to get. I enjoy the format, the music, the word and the contributions and testimonies people tell.

I enjoy the food and the times of fellowship.

All I would say is that the more people open up and contribute, and don't be fake and super-spiritual, the better it is and the more people get ministered to.

When people come and just sit there, don't talk to anybody and give one-word answers to questions and conversations, I think they create an atmosphere and they ought to try harder and loosen up. Just be yourself.

20) What didn't you do this year but would have liked to?

Didn't see my Dad once this year. I don't like him at all but I love him. Perhaps I could've inducted into his life this year but I'll never know, sadly. I don't regret it though. If I met him, it would benefit him and not me really as he just wants to go away and do his own thing.

21) What was your best decision this year?

Leaving NFU Mutual.

22) What was your worst decision this year?

Agreeing to work over the Easter holidays and not demanding pay. I was too soft with them in hindsight, and I got taken advantage of on so many occasions. I worked so many late nights, early mornings and weekends and nobody gave a monkey's load of rubbish but I agreed to do it as I thought I'd gain favour with my boss. Don't be a sucker like me if you work in a big company. Shove them! They don't care.

23) Sum up what you think is happening in the world?

I think that there's a satanic plot to kill, weaken and sterilise millions and millions of people via these inoculations or jabs in order to put down any hope of rebellion against this coming Antichrist one world government beast system. Perhaps the Devil needs to weaken and dwindle the population before he can get his Antichrist kingdom set up.

I think the line is being drawn between the lukewarm and the awake Christians and I'm seeing the lukewarm Christians getting hammered by this tyranny as they're going along with every edict and mandate. They're shutting their churches, enforcing and peer pressuring people to take the jabs and wear masks and they're not meeting up and having fellowship. I think many of these liberal churches are getting destroyed.

I think that the love of many is waxing cold. Look at what happened with the fuel crisis. The food shortages. The toilet paper shortages. Nobody loves their neighbour.

I think that families are getting destroyed all over the world as people take their stand on either side of the line. To follow the majority or to stick your neck out for what's right and truthful. Everyone is being forced to make a choice and people's true colours are beginning to show.

Big businesses continue to decimate and swallow up smaller companies. Take a look at your high street. They all look the same, all over the UK. How much stuff have you bought from Amazon?

Finally, I think the world is being made more and more impersonal, cold, digital, censored, monotonous, bland, boring, generic and robotic. Look at all of the video calls people are required to make each day as part of their jobs. It's so unnatural and soul destroying. Look at all of these live streamed events, from the Olympics in Tokyo to the Carol Services at Ludlow. Look at all of these boring electric cars that they're shoving on us. Look at all of these videos on YouTube with billions of views. Kids watching videos of kids playing with toys. People watching other people going on holidays. Look at what Facebook is doing with Meta and Virtual reality. Look at how nobody wants cash anymore. Look at how you can get everything and anything delivered to your house. Amazon are now delivering groceries. Everything is being geared up to make you leave your home as infrequently as possible. It's all a spiritual thing to make people passive, indifferent, heartless and cold.

24) What changes would make you a lot happier in life (not including the Rapture)?

Living one day at a time and not worrying about the future

Not worrying about things that I have zero control over.

Not caring what others think when it comes to speaking the truth and saying things which may hurt and offend the ones I love but will ultimately help them.

Being disciplined and making time to pray, read and seek God each day.
Humility - not doing things to make myself look good in the sight of others.

25) On a scale of 1 – 10 (10 being the best) – how much help and support have you given to others this year?
6 - I'm trying but I don't see the bigger picture oftentimes. I get wrapped up in myself and it's wrong. I need to be better at perceiving the needs of others.

26) As a Christian, what do you lack in life?

Faith. Courage. Boldness. Holiness. Wisdom. I hope that God can help me with these things.

27) What legacy would you like to leave behind?

I hope that I've pointed people to Jesus Christ. The more, the better. And I hope that I can help out more of God's people along the way and ease their burdens in whatever ways that I can.

28) Apart from the Bible, what other book has had a big impact on you this year? (Explain)

If I have to choose one, it would be the Pursuit of God by A W Tozer. It's a great book that cuts through the rubbish and goes into how to think scripturally and see things as God wants you to see things. It's a book that encourages you to be genuine and not fake in order to appear holy and super spiritual. I appreciate Tozer's words, humility and honesty.

29) You have one week left before the Rapture...! How are you going to live it?

Just live like a nut and bother everybody I can find about the Lord and the Gospel and what's about to happen. I'd do something mad to get on mainstream media like jump over the fence at Buckingham palace with a big sign to get the message out to as many people as possible.

And lastly... Describe what kind of Christian you are?

A Citroen C4 Cactus Christian. Rough around the edges, clumsy, herky jerky, a bit of a yob, can carry a lot of rubbish and not very sophisticated but he's a happy little fellow and he gets better than he deserves.

More bunkum...

Have you found a Bible Believing Church near you?

There aren't many Bible Believing Churches in England these days. If you find one, it's like finding a golden nugget. Stay there and grow. Feed off the King James Bible (Mat 4v4) and get involved as much as you can. Don't leave because of something so small, or you get offended. Man alive, GROW UP! You don't leave your employment every time you get offended do you!? Let the Holy Spirit through the Scriptures deal with you and help you mature. Too many Christians are so thin-skinned that if you upset them, they just run away, and you never hear from them again. Where are the MEN today? We need more men like John Wesley today, not Mr Bean...! If you attend a church that teaches the fundamentals from a King James Bible... STAY THERE. You may disagree with the peripheral stuff, but that's not really important is it. I've got some folks who attend The Oaks and believe in the 'Flat Earth' bless!!

Poor old overweight gasbag Breaker is up to his Hyper-Dispensational tricks 'again'...!

'Again', fat-slob-Breaker aka 'Mr Blobby' says if you 'Call upon the name of the Lord for salvation' God will send you to Hell because you are 'working' for your salvation... I kid you not. Fake-Pfenny does the same, along with Colic-Caldwell who says that Ruckman wasn't saved because he 'called upon the Lord' to save him... they are HYPER-

Dispensational NUTS. One 'scientist' who is meant to be very clever, 'unsubscribed' from our updates because I exposed the fat-slob above. These baby Christians are such a waste of time it doesn't deserve the time or space I give it in 'Time for Truth! News' but I have to warn you about these heretics to protect you from following them down a heretical rabbit hole. Breaker and his overinflated gasbag wife, mock those who 'Call upon the name of the Lord' for salvation...! They have eaten too many chicken wings and bags of crisps between them, that it's scrambled their tiny minds. If you ask Jesus Christ to forgive you of all your sins and save you from Hell... guess what... He will. Rom 10v12+13 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

When is enough, enough?

We all have our breaking point, I guess. Some of us have found it, some of us haven't... yet. We all have things that we are passionate about, care about and want to 'promote', but what happens if you meet people that don't feel the same way as you do? What do you do in these situations? You can't find people who agree entirely with you so what's the point of getting all upset about things. Remember the guy who fell out with us over Elvis being in Heaven? He was willing to walk away from a church that he agreed with 90% - 95% because of minor issues... for what? Where is he now? What upsets you? What gets to you? How do you cope with all this? When do you explode? Are you good at holding it all together? If you bottle things up... when and what is your 'release' valve? Christians can be some of the dumbest most ridiculous people on earth. Some of the most arrogant, bigoted, stubborn people I've ever met, have been Christians. We talk about being 'Christ like', yet I haven't met ONE SINGLE CHRISTIAN in my ENTIRE LIFE so far that is 'Christ like'... have you? I had one nutjob woman who wrote me a letter the other week telling me I'm not 'Christ like'... her being multiple 'stones' overweight... you just gotta smile haven't you? I'm only harsh with Bible 'correctors', idiots, cretins, morons, arrogant people, Christians so full of pride, heretics, effeminate Christians, liberal Christians, spongers and leeches, parasites, attention seekers, women who can't keep their gobs shut, men who can't keep their gobs shut, kids who can't keep their gobs shut, those with ulterior motives, those who shake your hand one minute and stab you in the back the next, those pretending to be men but really are cowards (the YouTube community), those who sit on YouTube all day every day, those who can't be bothered to work for a living and don't even try to get a job, those who try to stir up trouble, busybodies, nosy people, condescending people, those who are fake, shallow and superficial... and those who aren't looking for the Lord's return at the Rapture...! Apart from these, I love 'everyone'...!

For those of you who like to sound clever...

Exegesis - critical explanation or interpretation of a text or portion of a text, especially of the Bible.

Eisegesis - an interpretation, especially of Scripture, that expresses the interpreter's own ideas, bias, or the like, rather than the meaning of the text.

Tft! CD Ministry

We are now back up and running with the CD ministry again. Nearly all of our sermons are recoded and uploaded to our YouTube channel, but we also offer CD hardcopies if you would like them. You can also copy / duplicate them yourselves and pass them on, or upload them onto your own social media sites and platforms. We are only interested in getting the truth OUT to as many people as we can. We send out thousands of free CDs everywhere.

What do you lack in life?

Read 2 Pet 1v1-11, Hos 4v6, 1 Thes 4v12, James 1v5 – so what do you lack in life? Oftentimes we think immediately of physical tangible things, but it's not always the case. May the Lord give us all we need to fulfil His will in our lives.

Name that Pope...?

Can you name these Popes to win a prize?

I'm sure I recognise one of them... that's not Barney is it? It is... It's Barney... Barney's back everyone...!

By the way, it's no longer 'Barney' I'm told (his wife didn't like it)... it's David... fair play son.

What Christians will do for a new shirt.

Don't be jealous at other Christians because you're not doing what you should be doing...

One thing Christians are brilliant at is criticising other Christians. Much of that comes through jealousy because they see in others, things that they know they are not doing or are not gifted at, or too lazy and apathetic to have a go at. Many Christians who have very small YouTube channels are jealous of those who have larger ones (Bryan DUNGslinger cf. Gene Kim) and so all they can do is slate them and 'bad-mouth' them for it. DUNG-slinger is attacking Gene Kim all the time because he's jealous of him, that's the real reason. It's just immaturity and why DUNG-slinger is a 'castaway' who has been dumped and is not seeing any fruit, because his so-called ministry is dead. That's what jealousy and bitterness does to a Christian, it destroys him. Be very careful that you are not jealous of those who are producing more fruit than you are. Have you got a ministry? If not, ask the Lord to give you one, but you may need to make some big changes to your life and character first. Are you prepared for this? YouTube is a cesspit full of baby Christians who are achieving nothing in life, so all they do now is attack those who are achieving things for the Lord. What are you doing with your life for the Lord?

Interesting little study...

2 Thes 2v1 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him... Coming of our Lord Jesus = SECOND Advent (2 Thes 1v6-9). Gathering together unto Him = Rapture. In Mat 13v30 note TWO gatherings.

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. As from us... people were pretending to be speaking and writing 'as the Lord's apostles' and spreading lies everywhere. Beware what you read, watch, and who you follow. All the cults profess to have THE handle on the truth. Day of Christ = includes the Rapture and other events taking place in Heaven e.g. Judgement Seat of Christ, Marriage Supper of the Lamb... and events on the earth simultaneously (1 Cor 3v13, Phil 1v6+10, 2v16, 2 Thes 1v7-9)

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; THAT day is NOT the Rapture, but the SECOND Advent. Falling away first... we are IN it now. THAT day links to FOUR days... 1) Judgement Seat of Christ – 1 Cor 3; 2) Battle of Armageddon; 3) Millennium; 4) First Advent. The Day of the Lord, applied to Armageddon, does not come till the Antichrist has been revealed AS the 'son of perdition'. The Rapture and Judgement Seat of Christ will not take place till there has been a 'falling away' first. The beginning of the 'Day of the Lord' is the Day of Christ. Son of Perdition – John 17v12, John 13v26+27+30, 2 Thes 2v3+4, Acts 1v5.

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Did you look up every verse? What did you learn?

Words can have different meanings...

Whenever you see the word 'saved' in Scripture, it does not always mean saved from Hell. Here are some examples of different meanings for the words save and saved...

- 1) Mat 10v22, 24v13 – relating to the preservation of life (Mark 13v20) and eternal salvation by endurance and refusal of the mark of the beast – Rev 22v14, 12v17, 14v12
- 2) Mat 27v42 – physical salvation and deliverance from death
- 3) Luke 1v71 – relating to deliverance from enemies
- 4) Luke 18v42 – physical healing
- 5) 1 Pet 3v20, 2 Pet 2v5, Acts 27v20+31 – natural disasters
- 6) Rom 11v26 – natural salvation/deliverance of Israel from the Antichrist
- 7) 1 Tim 2v15 – saved from deception
- 8) Jude 5 – deliverance of Israel from Egypt
- 9) Rev 21v24 – relating to the corporate nations that followed Christ during the Millennium

Don't let alcohol grip you!

Christians will try and justify WHY they drink alcohol. No matter what they say, it's a sin according to Scripture and they are SINNING every time they take a drop. It goes against what the Scriptures say on this subject and the person who rebels against the teaching of Scripture is either a Bible REJECTOR or a Bible 'corrector'... NOT a believer. I have lost people at The Oaks Church because I stand against this sin, and they would rather drink alcohol than obey the word of God. If you want a detailed study proving from Scripture that alcohol is a sin and should not be drunk, read pages 227-234 in The Christian Soldier's Battle Notes. I have also seen Christians at our church clean up their lives and get rid of alcohol which is very encouraging. Again, it's not what I say, it's what the Bible says that matters.

Tft! daily / weekly Updates

Since the start of the covid hoax, we've sent out over 790 daily / weekly updates. Are you on our mailing list? If not, you've missed so much info. If you would like to be added to our email-updates just let me know.

More and more responses from our tracts...

Yet again I had another response to our tracts. 'Why is our country in such a mess?' seems to be the one that gets the most responses, although mainly negative, it shows that people read it. This year we've had more responses to our tracts than ever before. Let's hope more people are searching and seeking for the truth in these last days, throughout all this deception.

June 2022 already...

Can you believe how fast this year is going? It's still edgy out there in the world, and most people I guess are expecting the next big problem e.g. a recession, the 'monkey-pox' outbreak, more problems from the so-called 'war', and on and on it goes. The sheep are being led to the slaughter and they can't see it or understand what is happening. Us Christians are doing what we can to warn people, get the Gospel out, and continue to look for the Rapture, apart from that, we can't do much more. I thank God that the satanic 'masks' have gone, although there are STILL some morons wearing them, words fail me. Most of the elderly seem to believe what the TV sells them, and they trust in the government to bring about a better life... I don't. I've never witnessed so many gullible people who believe every lie poured out. So far, this year has been a good one for The Oaks Church, Time for Truth! and our business JDA, which I am very thankful to the Lord for. We are trying to impact more and more lives every week by what we put out. Donna's picked up a special ministry she never knew she would ever do, and that is being such an encourager to so many people. She is constantly visiting, texting, calling and emailing many folks around her, and she is building some good relationships up with them, praise the Lord.

Why The Oaks Church is different from most other churches...

- 1) We believe God has preserved every word perfect and given it to us in the King James Bible – Ps 12v6+7 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. Most other churches do NOT believe that the Holy Bible is perfect, they think it has errors in it. Their God isn't as powerful as my God. To us, the Bible is the most exciting Book on planet earth and we love reading and studying it. It's our Final Authority, the last word, on all matters of faith and practice. If your thoughts and beliefs are contrary to the Bible, you are WRONG and I/WE stand AGAINST you.
- 2) We major on the word of God – 2 Tim 4v2+3 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; We don't go in for sensationalism, fake signs and wonders, showmanship, or whipped up frenzied fleshly so-called 'worship'. You won't find us barking like dogs, rolling on the floor, singing endless 'choruses', 'screaming like a banshee', throwing hymn books, 'running the bases', 'throwing shoes at the preacher (unless he's really bad)'... jumping on the tables and chairs, shouting 'Preach it!!!', 'waving flags' (especially blue and yellow!) or any of the other nonsense you hear in FLESHLY meetings. We really do love the Lord and want to do things decently and in order, as the Lord Jesus would. (1 Cor 14v40). ...the flesh profiteth nothing - John 6v63. Rom 8v4-8 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. We want to be spirit filled children in control of our faculties. Rom 8v1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 2 Cor 10v5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
- 3) We judge everything by the word of God – 1 Cor 2v15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things... 1 Cor 2v13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. It's a spiritual Book, so we compare Scripture with Scripture, in context to get the meaning.
- 4) Due to the fact that I preached predominately to just three women for years, I don't have to fear about upsetting anyone. You know where the door is if you get offended and want to leave. I will preach and teach Biblical truth no matter who it offends. I do this out of a love for the Lord, His word and the truth. I want to do all I can to build you all up in the Scriptures so you can deal with life in a better way. Put the Lord and His word first, and everything else will fall into place. Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? Gal 4v16
- 5) It's not a one man 'show' – I love teamwork, that is why I try to get others involved in the work and ministry. I try to give opportunities to everyone. If you can preach, teach, sing, pray, read, give a testimony, play music, teach children, or whatever talent / gift the Lord has given you, there is always opportunities here... just let me know.
- 6) We don't just live for the Lord IN church... we try to live for Him in everything we do, hence why we are all responsible for reaching lost souls with the Gospel. Most church members aren't interested in saving lost souls from going to Hell.
- 7) We reject man-made doctrines such as Calvinism, Hyper-Dispensationalism, and all the other 'ISM's' and cult like teachings. I will speak as plainly as I can, as honest as I can, from the Scripture of truth - Dan 10v21. You'll get it straight from the heart, speaking the truth in love Eph 4v15.
- 8) We're open to correction - Gal 6v1 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 Thes 3v15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
- 9) We don't believe in women 'pastors, elders, deacons, or bishops' – Not one woman was chosen to be an apostle. Not one woman was used to record any book in the Bible. There is no mention of one single woman 'preacher' in the New Testament. Not one single sermon in Scripture was ever preached by a woman. In Acts 6v1-4 – the apostles chose seven men, and no women. The serpent was in the garden before Adam but he never tried to deceive Adam, he went straight for the woman. Why? (1 Tim 2v14, 2 Cor 11v3, 1 Pet 3v7). Male leadership in the church has never been a problem until this Laodicean age. God established the Messianic line through Kings not Queens. Read 1 Tim 2v11+12 and 1 Cor 14v33-37 – I never wrote that, God did.
- 10) We will expose and name heretics, liars, hypocrites, and those who you should steer clear of – 2 Tim 4v14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: 3 John 1v9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Luke 13v31+32 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee. And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

- 11) The Oaks Church isn't a church for lukewarm Christians. You'll either get stirred up, fired up, made up, fed up, or you'll blow up... we've had em all!!! You can't hide at The Oaks Church. Submit to THE BOOK... OR LEAVE!!!
- 12) You'll get challenged all the time to seek a deeper and closer walk with the Lord Jesus Christ, and to live according to the Bible.
- 13) We're not after your money. You don't pay my bills. We take up an offering to cover the costs of the hall etc. Some of you do support Time for Truth! with gifts towards the ministry, but we don't ask or demand anything. You do as the Lord leads you. 2 Cor 9v6+7 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. What you do with your money is up to you, but if you are not using it in some way for the Lord's work, you're wasting it. I'm not into 'tithing', we don't teach it here as I don't believe you have to today. I do believe in using money the Lord gives you for ministry. I leave it there.
- 14) We will stand against all ungodly laws passed by the Government e.g. sodomy, evolution, covid, etc. I also pay my taxes... Kent Hovind didn't and look what happened to him. Mat 22v21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. Read Rom 13v1-8. Read Ruckman Romans page 522.
- 15) You'll get 'all the counsel of God' preached and taught here, rightly divided - Acts 20v27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Acts 20v20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you... 2 Tim 2v15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. Here at The Oaks Church you'll get a balanced diet of doctrine, NOT 'Hyper' in anything Lord willing.
- 16) We want to help each other grow spiritually, and support one another in every way we can. No one should be left alone, everyone should be looking after each other.
- 17) Here at The Oaks Church we want to be honest and genuine. We are just an average group of Bible Believing Christians trying to get through life the best we can, living for the Lord in all that we do. We are not seeking fame, fortune or a 'big name'. Phil 2v5-8 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. We don't want to see pride in ourselves or others.
- 18) I'm not here to impress. Leadership is not easy. I don't desire titles. A 'pastor' aka a 'shepherd' feeds, protects and looks after his sheep. I'll do that in every way I can. If you need help, I'm here... talk to me. We are a family and I know that some of you text one another to 'check in' that everything is okay, I'd encourage you to do more of that with each other. Call, email etc. meet up!? I send out weekly/daily at times, email updates with help and advice, helping us to think right and to stay on track.
- 19) I've had people leave The Oaks Church saying 'There's no love in this church!' I've had some of you say that you feel more loved and cared for here than any other place you've been to. You can't please everyone, so why try?
- 20) With all the nasty things that have happened over the last two and a half years, we've stuck together. Through the bad stuff, some of us have met for the first time and become friends, brothers and sisters.
- 21) I will do all I can to get you to 'think', push you to your limits in certain areas, go deeper than you would do if you were in another church. I want you to seek the Lord and His word deeper than you have ever done before. Many of you have said to me you're reading your King James Bibles more than ever and loving the studies which is great.
- 22) We don't have hierarchy, 'them and us', 'laity and clergy', we are Christians walking through life together. Some of us meet once a week, some twice some more on occasions. We're a team. We actually want to get to know one another and learn about each other. We are sincerely interested in one another.
- 23) Here at The Oaks Church we are very flexible and cater for different needs of people. If an unsaved person comes in, we'll adapt with the Gospel. We try to be led by the Holy Spirit in how to conduct our meetings. Some meetings we'll have a deep Bible study that will take up most of the time, other meetings will have a format that we stick to.
- 24) We tell it like it is – if something needs addressing, we'll try our best to address it. We're not afraid to speak the truth Lord willing... in love - Eph 4v15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
- 25) We don't 'boast' in what WE have done. If anything good happens we thank the Lord and give Him the glory. Ps 44v8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Ps 94v4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? Gal 6v14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

26) What other things... No gimmicks, no bands (although we are open to musical instruments), we're not a social club, we serve 'disgusting' coffee (according to Simon) but great food...! (I guess you can't have it all).

So why do you attend The Oaks Church?

- 1) Because you want to spiritually grow in your Christian life
- 2) To be grounded in the Scriptures
- 3) To worship the Lord Jesus Christ
- 4) To meet likeminded Bible Believing Christians and have fellowship with them
- 5) To learn from the King James Bible and get challenged
- 6) To seek God and see what He would have you to do and where He would have you go... your next step?
- 7) To make new friends
- 8) To share experiences with one another
- 9) To get fired up
- 10) To get support and help
- 11) To get encouragement
- 12) To get challenged
- 13) To leave the world and all its problems behind and come to a little oasis in the desert
- 14) To seek God for an answer through His word
- 15) To take comfort, from each other, we're in the same boat, similar situation – 1 Pet 5v9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. 1 Cor 10v13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
- 16) To get equipped
- 17) To get things off our chest and talk to others about what we're going through

'Related' in heresies, not by name - O'Steen and Osteen

These two dumbbells are as sound as each other when it comes to Bible doctrine and rightly dividing the word of God (2 Tim 2v15), as neither of them can do it correctly. One is a raving nutty Pentecostal, the other a raving nutty Hyper-dispensationalist, who doesn't understand salvation, nor when the church started or any of the other letters outside of Paul, as it is Paul, he 'worships', for he talks more about Paul than the Lord Jesus. This is the nut baby-Eli worships and serves... 'birds of a feather'...! You get it.

Bearded-heretic-O'Steen doesn't think anything BEFORE Paul was FOR the Church, because O'-Beardy thinks the Body of Christ started with the apostle Paul, I kid you not. This is how shallow his teaching is, and how much he carves up the Bible like baby-Eli does... they just keep chopping it to pieces until they think it fits their heretical teaching. Be very aware of this heretic.

Another thing O'-Beardy can't figure out is Acts 7 and that the Lord's will could have been fulfilled 'whichever way', e.g. receiving the Lord as King or rejecting Him. The Lord knew and knows, Beardy hasn't got a clue. Read my book the Christian Soldier's Battle Notes for a deeper study on this.

Beardy goes on to 'eisegesis' Eph 4 + 5 not knowing what apostles and prophets were before Paul... it gets much worse, and is embarrassing to watch.

Beardy also believes Paul and Peter preached two separate Gospels 'throughout' Acts and beyond...! Oh dear... We'll let the Scripture destroy Beardy's heresy here - Gal 1v8+9 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. See how messed up you get when you try to chop up the Scriptures like the Hyper-Diapers do? So, I guess Peter was 'accursed' according to Dumbbell Beardy throughout Acts. That's what you get from WRONGLY dividing the Scriptures. Read Acts 15 for some clarity. Don't get sucked into this miniscule cult of the Hyper-Diapers.

Beardy calls the church in Jerusalem 'the kingdom church'...! You can see where baby-Eli gets all his heresies from, that's why they have to invent more than one 'Body'... baby-Eli has 'THREE' Bodies of Christ... I mean way-out-there-man...!

The trouble with Beardy O'Steen, like all Hyper-Diapers (baby-Eli et al.) is that they are very shallow in their Bible studies, and because of arrogance and PRIDE, they just can't admit they are WRONG. PRIDE destroys them every single time. The Hyper-Diaper CULT, and that is exactly what it is, A CULT, is the most arrogant bunch of dead-heads you'll ever come up against, they are even worse than the Calvinists, and that's saying something. I think Beardy-O'Steen is so full of himself, that he would rather die than admit he is wrong... just like baby-Eli (remember that punk kid!)

Next up, Beardy blatantly LIES about Ruckman regarding him distancing himself from other Hyper-Diaper heretics like EC Moore, J.C. O'Hair, Stam etc.

'Another' error Beardy makes is that he believes the Rapture is ONLY found in Paul's epistles... yes, again, I kid you not. Shallow Bible teaching, from his shallow mentors Moore, O'Hair, Stam etc.

Beardy is against water baptism and says you should NOT do it today, because Paul wasn't sent to 'baptise', yet his hero Paul DID baptise – Acts 16v30-33, Acts 18v8.

O! Beardy doesn't understand why Ruckman calls his cult 'dry cleaners'! He's not the sharpest chisel in the box, is he? Remember Eli believes that if you 'ask' God to save you from Hell, God will send you TO Hell because you 'asked' and that is 'working' for your salvation...! Well, ol Beardy and Fake-Pfenny believe exactly the same. They don't believe Ruckman was saved BECAUSE he asked the Lord to save him, he called upon the Lord to save his soul (Rom 10v13). The 'dry-cleaners' aka the Hyper-Diapers, go as far as to say, you can't get saved with John 3v16...! This is how perverted and depraved this cult is... NUTS! Beardy-O'Steen is as crooked as a dog's hind leg when it comes to teaching the Bible. Their interpretation of the Scriptures is nothing but CULTISH, stay away from him and them.

Unfortunately, like all cult leaders, Beardy didn't get his doctrine from the Bible, he got his doctrine from books 'about' the Bible, rather than study these issues in any depth on his own. He copied, O'Hair, Stam, Bullinger, and Moore, they were his mentors who he was deluded by. Beardy has never come up with anything original, just like his 'boyfriend' baby-Eli, they just regurgitate what their mentors say. Be careful WHO you follow! Baby-Eli and Beardy can't think for themselves, they need help from their cult mentors... Stammering-Stam et al.

Beardy categorically states that no one was IN Christ BEFORE Acts 9... let's let the Scriptures destroy another of his heresies... Rom 16v7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. Oh dear Beardy, dropped the ball again didn't you son! Do you know how this cult leaders tries to get around this? He says 'being IN Christ' does NOT mean you are IN Christ or IN His body... I kid you not. It was this verse that sent baby-Eli into a mental state of shock... as he just couldn't get his head around it. Beardy is no different, as he just can't handle this Scripture, and starts dribbling saying "IN Christ doesn't mean you're 'IN Christ'... it just doesn't, it can't, I won't accept it, it doesn't mean that, I can't take that, I need some fresh air, because THAT Scripture is too much for me... IN THE GREEK... help me someone, I'm drowning and people now see I've been exposed for teaching such a putrid heresy... sorry mummy!" Just one verse derailed him and his little cult, that is why they have never grown, neither have any of them led a soul to Christ, because they don't know how to, because they don't know the Gospel, they're a CULT...! Baby-Eli and Ol-Beardy, along with Stam, O'Hair, Moron-Moore and full-of-BULL-Bullinger, NOT ONE OF THEM is a soul-WINNER...! Do you know what Beardy does now, since he's been exposed? He calls it a 'straw argument', in other words, I can't answer it, I don't know how to answer it and now I won't TRY to answer it, it must be a straw argument...! We Bible Believers call that 'rocks for brains'.

Beardy NEVER talks about soul-winning or getting the Gospel out, or trying to reach lost sinners... NEVER, just like baby-Eli doesn't, they can't, they don't know how to.

One of the problems with Hyper-Diapers is that they are effeminate 'men', not 'manly' men. They achieve very little in life because they just sit in their houses and cult 'temples' without mixing with real people of the world, because they just can't handle them. Baby-Eli just blogged all day and did nothing else, and Beardy will only mix with his 'kind', so people don't ask him questions, or challenge him over his heresies... remember just ONE SINGLE VERSE (Rom 16v7) blew his tiny socks off.

Beardy then goes off on a tangent and ADDS another 'Body of Christ' calling it the 'little flock' to get around why Paul was persecuting Christ, when Christ was in Heaven already, showing you that Paul was actually persecuting the BODY OF CHRIST that existed BEFORE Paul was saved (Gal 1v13, 1 Cor 10v33 – there are three groups of people... Jew, Gentile and Church of God, not a fourth called 'the little flock' or 'kingdom church' which the Hyper-Diapers like to invent to teach their heresies... beware of these terms!) Beardy is now having another panic attack and foaming at the mouth. Deception, delusion, moronic 'eisegesis' and PRIDE, that's Beardy in a nutshell, and this boy is a NUT. Beardy's 'kingdom church' appears NOWHERE in Scripture. Beardy is a Bible 'corrector', and like all CULTS, has to ADD bits and take away bits from the Holy Scriptures. Beware of this charlatan and avoid him like a dog with rabies.

Eph 2v13-16 – ONE Body by what? By the Cross...! The Body started AT the Cross NOT in Acts 9.

Osteen, like his little disciple 'Fat-slob-Colic-Caldwell' plus FAKE-Pfenny and 'FAT-SLOB-Breaker' (why are there so many FAT Christians?) actually believe that anyone, (boy or man) who ASKS Jesus to forgive them of all their sins, will be sent to HELL, because they ASKED, and ASKING is working for your salvation...! So, if you were 14 years old or you were 40 years old, and asked the Lord Jesus Christ to forgive you of all your sins, according to this lunatic-fringe-cult, you are on the road to Hell because you ASKED God to save you and this is working for your salvation. This is what FAT Robert Breaker and FAT Mrs Breaker actually believe and teach...! I think too many chicken wings have warped their tiny minds, don't you? None of the above believe Ruckman was a Christian because He ASKED God to save him, and that is working for your salvation. Ruckman is in HELL according to these idiots above...! That is what you are dealing with regarding the HYPER-Dispensationalists. They are nuttier than a pecan pie, as Ruckman used to say. I think Robert Breaker is good at eating, but certainly NOT good at teaching the Holy Scriptures correctly.

Another 'lovely' charismatic lady writes to me about my 'tone'... and how I say things...

This dear lovely sister in Christ, who is as sound in doctrine as Joyce Meyer, wrote me a letter telling me that for years she has been burdened for me and the way I speak and how I have a root of bitterness in me regarding my family life and how I am not producing much and could produce so much more if I didn't attack everyone...!!! To which I say... NUTS, you silly old bat!!! These lame, thin-skinned, feministic, shallow, liberal, arrogant, 'know all's, are all alike and as helpful / useful to the Body of Christ as a handbrake in a canoe. If the idiots I have to deal with were reasonable, even Scriptural, then we would have some common ground to work on, but they aren't. They are prideful condescending punks that deserve all they get from me... and more! If you received the emails I do, you would certainly think a lot more differently. If Christians want to act childish and maliciously, I will deal with them in a fashion that will HELP THEM for the future... Capiche? Don't bite off more than you can chew. Don't fight or get involved if you can't handle it. If you start something... remember YOU started it...! Don't go around shooting your mouth off before thinking about the consequences. Hunter, DUNG-slinger, Colic-Caldwell, Fake-Pfenny, Fat-Slob-Breaker, the bearded twins divisive-inerrantist and his boyfriend Phil Newton (clones of DUNG-slinger) etc. all jumped in before measuring the depth of water. Time for Truth! was too DEEP for them and they all drowned, and since then, have achieved nothing in life, all because they crossed swords with the Jack Russell terrier.

How well do you know the back end of the Old Testament?

Daniel
Hosea
Joel
Amos
Obadiah
Jonah
Micah
Nahum
Habakkuk
Zephaniah
Haggai
Zechariah
Malachi

When your pastor says... 'Turn to...' and it's one of those books at the back of the Old Testament, do you panic? Have a look at the order, and try to memorise it for next time, and don't be the 'last in class' to find that evasive book. Imagine getting to Heaven and meeting these authors, from books you could hardly find and never read, wouldn't that be a shame. How do you read your Bible? Do you have a set routine? It's worth reading it from cover to cover at least once a year if you don't already. Much of the information in these Old Testament books is for the future not the past, things that are yet to happen. Now do you see how important they are to read?

None of us read the Scriptures enough I'm sure, and yet we only really get to know God through them. Every day we should be saturating ourselves in the Bible, not books 'about' the Bible, that's where many Christians go wrong.

You KNOW what you are interested in don't you? We all have our favourite hobbies, past-times, sports, teams, films, songs etc. therefore we know all about these, but when it comes to the minor prophets, most Christians don't know much about them at all, which speaks volumes to be brutally honest doesn't it?! As a Christian, we really should know our Bible and love it, and spend time daily in it seeking God's will and searching it's deep riches about life, but do we...?

When something really hits you in life...

What do you do? How do you cope? So often we think that we are exempt from bad situations, so when one comes, it rocks us to the core... "I never thought it could happen to me!" It's at these times our faith is really tested, and we choose whether to really seek the Lord through it, or try to work it out ourselves. It would be much better if our lives were a continual close walk with our Saviour so when a 'bad situation' arises, we just keep walking with Him through it. There is nothing better than a close walk through life with Jesus Christ, nothing even comes close.

Why there will never be another shortage of toilet paper again...

LIAR and hypocrite DUNGslinger has now attempted to write a 'little booklet' to get up there with the 'big-boys' he thinks. Just like his boyfriend's book of disaster 'The lord of glory' (it has NOTHING to do with The Lord Jesus Christ) which flopped from day one, and this heretical load of tosh is doing the same. These two boys just can't 'cut it' as authors as the Lord Jesus Christ does NOT bless heretical teachers like these who spew out rubbish all the time.

F.L.O.P.

Failure in Launch,
Operations or Premise

These two 'books' are as sound in doctrine as the Watchtower magazine which the JW's put out each week. These two

'lads' belong to a cult, in fact, they are part of the smallest cult in existence. Yet, it's not all bad news as the two 'books' they have produced, the paper inside makes for a perfect 'rolling of a fag' if you smoke, or using it as toilet paper aka 'bog-roll', as the texture is just perfect for the old keister. There will never be a shortage of toilet paper again...! Although thinking about it, there could be as these so-called 'booklets' will NEVER stay in print as no one is buying them, as students of the Bible can see the heresies.

Not only is DUNGslinger an habitual LIAR, he is an utter heretic when it comes to 'teaching' the Bible, as he really hasn't got a clue. Do NOT get stiffed into buying these two 'booklets' of garbage, neither into wasting your money by supporting these two out-of-work parasitical hobos. DUNGslinger said it was a SIN to stay on YouTube, but it was NOT a sin to go onto other video platforms (work that one out???!!) ...And because no one followed him onto these other platforms, and he lost money by 'moving', he now says it is NOT a sin to be BACK on YouTube... and some of you suckers fell for it. If you are wasting your money supporting this unemployed fornicator (DUNGslinger is NOT 'married', but is 'shacking up' with some bird with a kid; and his boyfriend, 'boy-wonder', says it is wrong to marry outside of your 'race', and yet he has been known to 'knock-around' with those who are of a different colour skin I'm told... the hypocrite – BOTH are racists!!!) You will certainly be judged yourself for wasting God's money on these racist idiots. I've warned you numerous times about these two heretics, and I'm glad many of you are waking up and seeing through them both now. If you want to do something positive, report them for their racism to YouTube and get them KICKED OFF 'again'. Neither of them have amounted to anything in life, and sadly won't, due to their pride, arrogance and heresies. Their lives are TRASH, their books are TRASH and if they are saved (!!!), their Christian walk is TRASH, seeing no fruit whatsoever. Remember when DUNGslinger was normal, and understood who Jesus Christ is...? Now he thinks Jesus (Lord - NT) is the Father (LORD - OT). I wouldn't waste ten seconds watching or listening to either of these two charlatans. I know some of you have been conned in the past by these LIARS, but now is the time to 'wake-up' and expose them for who they really are. What a couple of losers. Both books never 'launched', never got 'off the ground' praise God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit... 1 x 1 x 1 =??? Godhead. Prov 10v18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

Here's another example of multiple meanings for one word... 'elect' – Calvinists miss this...

The word elect in the Scriptures can mean the following...

- 1) Jesus Christ – Isa 42v1, 1 Pet 2v6
- 2) Jews / Israel – Isa 45v4, 2 Tim 2v10
- 3) Angels – 1 Tim 5v21
- 4) Individuals – Col 3v12, 2 John 1v1+13
- 5) Church – 1 Pet 1v1+2

The Oaks Church...

I am very encouraged by what the Lord has done at the Oaks. We get a good number every week now, and nearly everyone in the church is actively involved in reaching the lost with the Gospel which is quite incredible. There aren't many churches today where 95% of the congregation are actively witnessing, passing out tracts and trying to reach their 'neighbours' with the Gospel. I can't tell you how encouraged by it all I am. Each week the sheep want feeding, and this sheep wants to feed them the best food possible, hence why we give them steak (Heb 5v14) as much as we can. I love preaching and teaching the Scriptures. I also like helping those around me fulfil their potential too. I have put a lot of time into Matt and the 'punk kid' is flourishing. I must say, I'm very proud of how he has grown spiritually and maturely over the last few years. I think I've adopted him... Donna did straight away. Denny has also adopted him as her new baby brother. Looks like he's in!!!

New booklet

Well 500 copies went out in just a few weeks which was very encouraging. Lord willing this booklet is fighting against the heresy of Sabbath keeping / worshipping, keeping the Law for salvation, especially by the SDAs. It also shows you the differences in the Dispensations. It's a very informative little booklet that you'll want to pass on to your friends and family, and all those who are in error. Sow them everywhere you go, and give them out to anyone who is trying to 'keep the Law' which was given to Israel NOT the church. We've ordered another 1,000.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

Romans 10v4

The law has no bearing on the church or the Christian for salvation.

The Ten Commandments were never given to the church or the Christian.

IFB Cult Leaders – you won't find a bigger bunch of heretics 'professing' to be KJV Believers.

This bunch of heretical losers, 'prey' on those who can't think for themselves, neither read nor study the Scriptures. They set themselves up as little popes that you must go to in order to understand the Scriptures. Beware of these false teachers. They preach and teach many heresies, they deny the Holocaust, they hate Jews, and teach that God has finished with Israel. Not one of them can rightly divide the Scriptures. I thank God that they are only a small cult, and their so-called 'leader' has been kicked off YouTube and banned from many countries, praise God.

They all wear platform shoes to stop their knuckles from dragging on the floor.

If there were missing links, THESE are THEM...!

I think this CULT is trying to compete with DUNGslinger's CULT of who can be the smallest CULT in the world.

Another so-called 'Bible Believer' who hasn't got a PERFECT Bible...! Just another Christian jackass...

This guy has got his big head stuck so far in the 'clouds' that he really hasn't got a clue about the Christian life although he thinks he does. He attacks Ruckman for being divorced among other things, although this jackass still reads Proverbs (wasn't Solomon married more than once???). The trouble is this, Cloud doesn't know his Bible (he doesn't have THE word of God, but many different books that 'contain' the word of God hence why he has NO final authority) very well, and Ruckman is too deep for this snowflake. In fact, old 'Head in the Sky Cloud' has to hold his hands up (see photo) and admit that he only attacks Ruckman in order to get a following. We can see right through this yellow stained coward. Just another enemy of the King James Bible who is jealous of all those who BELIEVE it. Gene Kim wrote a book that blows all of 'BIG-Head-in-the Cloud's' accusations out of the water... it's called 'Ruckmanism Ruckus', and well worth a read. Kim BELIEVES 'The Book'... Cloud is a Bible 'corrector'... who doesn't. Don't waste your time with Cloud, he's a flake.

Hands down for coffee Cloudy!!!

Not being able to take criticism...

None of us like it, and we all deal with it in different ways. Some Christians just can't take it and run away, leave the church and you never see them again, just because you pointed out something that is not right in their life. These kind of Christians are very immature and will hardly ever grow in their spiritual life sadly. What are you like with criticism? Other Christians are 'good' at judging others and pointing out faults in everyone else, yet when you do to them what they do to others, they 'blow up' and never recover. We should all be examining ourselves (1 Cor 11v28, 2 Cor 13v5) rather than each other. We all have faults and sins that need dealing with. Quit pointing out all the faults in others until you are 'perfect'. I know of one guy who continues to judge everyone, yet when I pointed out a few faults he had (although he denies it) he blew his gasket. Pride is his problem. Pride usually is THE problem with all Christians; everyone thinks they know best. It's not just reading the Bible, it's living it.

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

John 14v6 – Cf. Eph 2v18, Ps 36v9, 1 Tim 2v5, Mat 11v27, Acts 4v12, John 5v39+40, Eph 4v21, John 5v40

An atheistic Moron discusses 'Jesus' with a Christian who has no Final Authority – What a joke...!

Bart Ehrman hasn't got a clue about sound doctrine, and David Wood hasn't got a clue about the Scripture of Truth (Dan 10v21) as the Final Authority, so what have you got? A complete waste of time. Bart Ehrman is not an authority on anything, he just thinks he is. He thinks he is 'clever', yet sadly he's self-deluded, and as thick as a short plank. He says he was a Christian once, which I very much doubt, as his knowledge of doctrine in Scripture is so limited it's embarrassing. Speaking of 'planks', Wood is good at challenging Muslims... that is it. He's another one who couldn't rightly divide the Bible if his life depended on it. Use 'David Wood-en-Plank' against Muslims... Use Bart Ehrman when discussing ignorance of the Bible. You either believe God inspired and preserved His WORDS or you don't... I do. Bart 'Duh-man' is a moron... period.

Seven resurrections

- 1) Resurrection of Jesus – Mat 28v1-6
- 2) Resurrection of OT saints – Mat 27v52+53
- 3) Spiritual resurrection of the believer – Eph 2v1-6
- 4) Physical resurrection of believers at the Rapture – 1 Cor 15v49-55
- 5) Resurrection of OT saints physically – Ezek 37
- 6) Resurrection of Tribulation saints – Rev 11v12, Rev 7v9
- 7) Resurrection of unsaved dead – Rev 20v11-15

Post-Trib Nutter...

He somehow found our website and immediately started attacking me over the Pre-Trib Rapture. He said there were only two resurrections (see above). He was just another arrogant mouth-on-a-stick thinking he knew everything, so when I pointed out a few things he had gotten wrong, he exploded as they all do. Punks are a dime a dozen these days and none of them can reason from the Scriptures. Needless to say, it ended terribly for him and he left saying that I was not saved. As usual, he read from a Satanic counterfeit to back up his nonsense. I'm noticing more and more these days, that Christians are becoming increasingly unteachable. Pride is the problem; it always has been.

Time to Regroup! Meetings

I'm really enjoying these meetings and its great seeing so many travel so far for fellowship and Bible study. If you are an isolated Christian, you really should do all you can to get to these meetings held once a month, especially if you don't have a regular local church you attend. They are a huge source of encouragement and a great place to meet new friends and likeminded Christians. The last one we held was my favourite, and ministered to all of us. It was full of great Bible studies, exciting and great fun also. May the Lord continue to bless and grow these meetings. It's a great place to come to, an oasis in the desert, to meet King James, dispensational Christians who really do love the Lord Jesus Christ.

Update on JDA

The company is doing very well praise the Lord, and Matt is proving a great investment and help to all, especially Dee. We never thought we'd be in the situation we're in at present, being able to take someone on. Jan to April 2022 were the best months we've had since starting the company 11 years ago. Lord willing it will keep going, as the business helps fund everything we do. Thank you to everyone who prays for our business. It's hard work, but very rewarding being your own boss.

Dad is now 89 and coming to 'The End'...

I can feel very sad for him, empathetic / sympathetic, frustrated and angry etc. He is still a hardened atheist who has no interest in the Lord or His word, yet is terrified of 'The End'. He is constantly calling Donna at all times, telling her he's terrified and needs to see her. She sits with him for hours calming him down. As soon as she mentions anything about the Lord he kicks off 'big time' telling her he'll stop her from coming round if she talks like this. He's a nightmare, a very arrogant man who thinks he is right and everyone else is wrong. He has rejected the Lord Jesus Christ for 89 years; think about that. What a sad tragic life, of 'living' without the Lord's guidance. Is it any wonder people make so many poor decisions and judgements because they have shut God out.

Some missionaries are just on a continual glorified holiday...!

Did you know that some Christian so-called 'missionaries' (supported by churches from overseas), are on a full-time paid holiday in reality? Sure, they occasionally go out on the streets, pass out a few tracts, or do a 'bit of evangelism' here and there, and of course they will send back regular one-page (or at a push, two-page) newsletters to keep the 'golden-goose' happy. Some Christians are the biggest parasites and 'spongers' you ever did see. Some of them are over here in England, living it up... golfing, travelling, with the occasional preaching engagement here and there, shopping, fishing etc. you get the gist. Most unsubscribe to us... I wonder why!? They sure do enjoy life, don't they?! I'm sure some missionaries work very hard... but SOME... DON'T, and they are fleecing the Body of Christ rather than getting a job and FEEDING and ministering to the Body. Listen, you're not reporting to ME... I'm just warning you lazy loafers, as you shall give an account to the Lord for what you have done and the way you have lived. 'Religion' is a job just like plumbing for some people. With some 'religious' jobs you get a 'manse'... how about that. Do you know why people like DUNG-slinger don't like me, it's because I wake up their followers who have been 'plundered' for years in supporting these fakes and flakes. People like this parasite have been fleecing Christians out of their money, 'begging', because they are too lazy to get a job. He, and people like Fake-Pfenny, are just lazy bums sitting in their houses (because they are afraid to go out into the world, being so scared of people) making videos attacking every Christian who does have a job, and does have a ministry e.g. DUNG-slinger attacks even his own brother who has a job and a ministry, that's the type of cowards you get these days. If you are being sent gifts, donations and monthly support, you had better be using it wisely. Look up the word steward and stewards in a King James Bible concordance and read each verse. We work hard and as the Lord blesses the business, we pour it back into ministry. Any donations that we receive goes into buying tracts and Bibles. For years we've been supplying free tracts and booklets to those who are too poor to buy them, we shall continue to do this as the Lord leads.

Fighting and contentions with other Christians...

It happens. It happened in the Bible in the New Testament Church, and it will happen with all of us at some point. Christians fall out over the smallest of things (Mat 7v1-5) and oftentimes it causes such conflict that someone will leave the church. Most of these 'bust-ups' are very immature. Some Church members are what's called 'high-maintenance' and take offense to the least of things. Some church members get upset by something you say or write, and it wasn't even aimed at THEM... but... if the shoe fits... WEAR IT...! Don't let the little things upset you too much, overlook them, deal with them if you need to, and just move on. Don't get bitter, keep grudges, stop talking and create an 'atmosphere'. Some Christians are good at 'creating an atmosphere' aren't they?! Some Christians have such a miserable face, and moan, and back-bite all the time, it's a wonder why they even stay isn't it. Every church has them. Most are women...! That's a fact...! The pastor / leader has a time of it trying to keep it all together at times. It's draining I can tell you. That's why I adopt the approach, if you want to leave... LEAVE. Go find somewhere 'better' and take your bad attitude with you. Many so-called King James super-spiritual Bible Believers I know, are the biggest hypocrites you ever saw, seeking the attention everywhere they go.

Columbus Bible Church – another HYPER-Diaper-cult to stay away from...!

When their leadership, consisting of David Reid, Jim Sellers and Chad Combs start talking MID-Acts, PAUL PAUL PAUL and 'little flock', KNOW THIS... they are HYPER-Dispensational and couldn't rightly divide THE SCRIPTURES if their lives depended upon it. One woman sent me a link to their church, so I explained to her that they were part of a very small cult that was set up only a few years ago. If they had their way, they'd cut up the Bible taking everything OUT that wasn't written by Paul... they're a cult, so beware. One woman who wrote to me recently from 'Grace Outreach' has also fallen for the lies and deception of the HYPER-Dispensational CULT. It's a very small cult over here in the UK, and not much bigger in the USA.

When is your name written in the Lamb's Book of Life?

Is it when you get saved or from eternity past? Read these Scriptures and then decide – Rev 21v27, Ps 69v28, Exod 32v33, Rev 3v5, Rev 17v8. All names are written in the Book of Life initially, and at a point of no return, known only to God, are some names removed, and those souls eternally lost. There is no place in Scripture that teaches God writing your name in the Lamb's Book of Life when you get saved, agreed? There is nowhere in Scripture which says certain 'elected' people (aka the Calvinism heresy) are preordained to salvation and the only ones IN that Book, as many names are blotted OUT of the Book.

New Gospel Dog-Tags

The Dog-Tags have arrived - Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. 2 Tim 2v3+4. They are a great witnessing tool, and a brilliant talking point. The quality is second to none.

US Army dog tag set with the Gospel embossed on them as seen below.

- Exact replica US Army identification dog tags
- All parts sourced from US military suppliers
- 304 grade stainless steel tags and chains
- Set of 2 chains – one neck chain and one short chain

These dog-tags are totally authentic and indistinguishable from those issued to serving US army personnel. Includes two tags with custom embossed Gospel text, a neck chain and a short chain.

Made from extremely hard wearing 304 grade stainless steel to prevent any allergic reactions.

The tags and chains are made in the USA by GSA (US government approved) vendors to ensure the highest possible quality and authenticity.

Text is embossed using genuine US Military embossing equipment, fitted with the correct font.

These are accurate replica US Army stainless steel dog tags - Our stainless-steel tags are 304 grade stainless steel – this is a weakly-magnetic grade of stainless steel, which sometimes confuses people who expect steel to be strongly attracted to a magnet.

Being stainless-steel, the tags won't corrode or cause any allergies although if you are vulnerable to allergic reactions we recommend thoroughly cleaning the tags prior to use to remove any residues left from the manufacturing process.

We use a genuine military embossing machine, and these characters aren't used in the U.S. Army specifications. Each letter is a separate piece of type-face in the machine.

Why Tft! NEWS helps pastors...

Because I can say things you can't. Let's face it, if you said some of the stuff I say, you wouldn't have a congregation, or a church anymore. Yet, you know what I say is true and many of you agree with me. By some of the people in your own church receiving Tft! NEWS, helps you, because they are challenged to think differently, and see things from YOUR point of view rather than just their own. I've had pastors read parts of our newsletter out to their congregations. I'm trying to help where I can. I'm sick of fakes, flakes, arrogant-attention-seeking Christians who cause trouble everywhere they go. They are time-wasters and achieve very little, but cause division whenever they open their big arrogant mouths. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers... Whose mouths must be stopped... Titus 1v10. I'm helping to stop them.

'THE' Textus Receptus...!

It is NOT just ONE Greek text... 'THE' Greek says...! It is FIVE Greek texts (Erasmus, Colinaeus, Stephanus, Beza and Elzevir), with each DIFFERENT text going into SEVERAL editions...! Not one of these texts match exactly. Those of you who say 'THE' Greek text says... don't know what you are talking about! Those of you who think the Textus Receptus is ONE Greek text... don't know what you are talking about, so stop sounding like an idiot and stop deceiving the people. There is NO original Greek text you can check anything by, as there are NO originals on planet earth, all there are, are copies of copies of copies...! Every time the word 'Scripture' or 'Scriptures' occur in your Bible, it is talking about 'copies'... NEVER originals...! Get that...!

Another tract response... and this one was a loo-loo...

If you don't understand what is going on here, let me know...

The tract was delivered through his door I believe. The tract he received was 'Where are they now?' Look and read it very carefully. It's one of our best-selling tracts, and tens of thousands of these have been distributed over the years.

Read the email below from the bottom to the top... He is 'The guy' and I'm 'John' of course...

John - So did I... I'll play the game... I appreciate honesty without ulterior motives though.

The guy - Oh dear. It's the usual trickery and bluster. Sad really. From your leaflet I expected better. Take care.

John - By knowing, how would this change anything?

The guy - You claim in the literature that you are sure 3 are going to heaven. Which three are these please?

John - Who can be certain?

The guy - Good evening John, thanks for your fascinating leaflet. Just of interest, which one (if either) out of Adolf Hitler or Oscar Wilde do you believe is in heaven? Kind regards, C.

Now do you get what just happened? If not, you could get caught out with this kind of thing, so beware. We need discernment in these last days more than ever. He didn't respond to my last comment... for obvious reasons.

Be very careful what you say and to whom...

For those of you who didn't get it, Oscar Wilde isn't on the tract... that's the 'starting' point.

Very funny, and one of the best jokes I've heard...

Nelson Mandela is sitting at home watching TV and drinking a beer when he hears a knock at the door.

When he opens it, he is confronted by a little Chinese man, clutching a clip board and yelling, You Sign! You sign!

Behind him is an enormous truck full of car exhausts.

Nelson is standing there in complete amazement, when the Chinese man starts to yell louder. 'You Sign! You sign!'

Nelson says to him, 'Look, you've obviously got the wrong man', and shuts the door in his face.

The next day he hears a knock at the door again.

When he opens it, the little Chinese man is back with a huge truck of brake pads.

He thrusts his clipboard under Nelson's nose, yelling, 'You sign! You sign!'

Mr Mandela is getting a bit hacked off by now, so he pushes the little Chinese man back, shouting: 'Look, go away! You've got the wrong man! I don't want them!' Then he slams the door in his face again.

The following day, Nelson is resting, and late in the afternoon, he hears a knock on the door again.

On opening the door, there is the same little Chinese man thrusting a clipboard under his nose, shouting, 'You sign! You sign!'

Behind him are TWO very large trucks full of car parts.

This time Nelson loses his temper completely, he picks up the little man by his shirt front and yells at him: 'Look, I don't want these! Do you understand?

You must have the wrong name! Who do you want to give these to?'

The little Chinese man looks very puzzled, consults his clipboard, and says: 'You not Nissan Main Dealer?'

More TOSH from DUNGslinger...!

He's so jealous of Gene Kim that now he's attacking him, hoping others who watch Gene Kim will now start watching him. You see DUNGslinger hasn't got a ministry or a job, so he NEEDS subscribers to help finance his miniscule cult and help him pay his 'wife's' bills because he won't work to do it. DUNGslinger thinks Jesus is the Father and Jesus is the Son and Jesus is the Holy Spirit and Jesus is the Body and Jesus is the Soul and Jesus is the Spirit... I know I know... he's a nut.

Now verses like John 5v18-23 (read them) make DUNGslinger 'dung' his diaper because they show you that the Father and the Son are separate 'PERSONS', yet one God... they are NOT separate 'parts' or 'entities'. DUNGslinger was nearly normal once, not quite, but nearly, but as for now...he's just failing in everything he does, all because of PRIDE, jealousy, and bitterness. He knows as much Scripture as Gene Kim's big toe. Godhead and Trinity are synonymous.

Who (or what) controls your life? By Matt

Recently, I've been thinking about the thing of freewill, control and the external influences that affect us on a daily basis. We're all confronted with the following thoughts at times.

I can't see a way out of this situation. I feel weak and powerless. I can't stop what is happening. I feel like I'm drowning, I feel like I'm just treading water each day and I'm trying to keep my head above the water. I feel like my life is spiralling out of my control. I've tried my best to live a healthy life and I'm still getting health problems. I'm trying to save some money but I keep having to cover all of these bills that seem to come out of nowhere, and I always seem to be broke. I've achieved none of the things that I set out to achieve today. I don't know how I'm going to cope for much longer in this world with all of the trouble and turmoil. I hate my current job but I have no idea where I'd go if I ever got laid off. I don't know how I'm going to cope with my parents growing old.

All of these thoughts can be condensed into one word, and it's a word that we, in our flesh, detest.

And that word is uncertainty.

None of us like to be caught off guard. We like to be prepared for all of the situations that life throws at us.

We like to have savings in place to cover all of the unexpected bills that we face. Be it to cover the expenses of the arrival of a baby, to cover us in the case of an accident or a disaster (through various insurances) or to ensure that we are provided for in old age (in the form of pensions and investments).

Ecc 10:19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

We like to plan, and to know what we're going to be doing tomorrow, next week, next month and for some of us, even next year. In the secular workplace, it's common to be asked "what's your five year plan?"

As a Christian living in 2022, you'd better get used to uncertainty. The Lord expects us to walk with him, one day at a time, living by faith.

If you release a video on YouTube titled "What date is the rapture?", you're bound to get millions of views.

Christians are carnal.

Christians are desperate to be in control of their lives, and they do not want to yield to the Lord and His leadership. Many Christians wrestle with God, and we try and take matters into our own hands.

Oh, what peace we often forfeit

Oh, what needless pain we bear

All because we do not carry

Everything to God in prayer

What are you carrying, that ought to be handed over to God?

1Pe 5:7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

And if you've handed the thing over to God, why do you still fret and worry?

Jas 1:6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

Jas 1:7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

Out in the world, they have a term that coins our detestation of uncertainty. They call it "uncertainty tolerance".

How much uncertainty can you tolerate in your life? How much of your life has got to be perfectly predictable? And if something comes up that bursts your bubble, do you get bent out of shape about it? Do you get into the flesh, or do you deal with the matter in the power of the Spirit of God?

Very recently, I had a situation come up when I was due to drive to a Bible study on a Friday night. Everything was in place, I had all of my things ready, I was on time and I was going to pick a friend up from the train station on the way to the Bible Study.

All of these best laid plans however, were laid to waste.

Little did I know, a house cat had recently escaped from her owner and she had run away from him. She'd crawled beneath my car, up underneath the front axle and she'd gotten herself stuck under my bonnet, between the engine block and the firewall. She was terrified, and she was not moving anywhere. There was no way to get the cat out from my car.

It sounds like a trivial situation. I was just about to set off to the Bible study, and I heard a knock at the door. My neighbour explained to me the above story, and I ran downstairs to open up my car's bonnet. And there she was.

It took 5 hours to get the cat out of my car, and the fire brigade was called to the scene. It took four trained emergency workers to get the cat unstuck from my car, and I had to get my car put back together afterwards the following day, as brackets, the battery and plastic cladding, hoses and wires were moved to free the cat.

The event is amusing in hindsight, but at the time, I was not pleased as it was late, the breakdown service wanted nothing to do with the situation, it was cold and it was getting dark.

I thank God that the situation got resolved, and I managed to catch the tail end of the Bible study later that evening, but what struck me was the theme of uncertainty.

How do we deal with it as a Christian?

Because life is full of unexpected events, be they good or bad. A couple in Gloucestershire recently won £187 million in the national lottery. Another woman recently was killed on a roundabout in Kidderminster in a car crash as she set out that day to go about her daily business.

You cannot predict your life. You don't know what a day can bring forth, and we live in a world of constant change. Nothing stands still.

Pro 27:1 Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

So as spiritual Christians, we surrender to the Lord. We try and do our best each day for Him. When bad things happen, we reflect and see if there is any unconfessed sin in our lives that we're involved with and we get it cleaned up so that we don't bring the chastisement of the Lord upon ourselves.

And bad things often happen, even when we believe that we are living a clean life. The Lord works his purposes out in our lives, and we do not understand what He is doing, oftentimes.

Isa 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Get used to uncertainty, Christian. The Lord is our provision, and he will take care of His own.

This is Pfenny's mentor - both are HYPER-dispensationalists... both are hypocrites...!

This nutjob calls himself a King James Bible Believer!!! He's a fake, a flake, a conman, and a big-time loser who has given up on life. He has a YouTube channel, where he 'teaches' the Bible, yet couldn't get a following if he gave away FREE MONEY. Here he is enjoying one of life's worldly pleasures... doesn't he look pretty? This is the guy who taught fake-Pfenny the doctrine... 'If you ASK Jesus Christ to save you, He will send you to Hell because THAT is working for your salvation...!' You see, none of these guys believe in repentance, and that's why they can sit and sin all day because by their 'mental-ascent' fake Gospel, they think they are saved no matter what they do now. Soon this guy's body will be like his cigar... ash.

Be careful who you allow as you mentor. Pfenny is also so far off the sound doctrine radar it's staggering..

Seven baptisms

- 3) Baptism of physical suffering – Mat 20v22
- 4) Peter's water baptism for Israel in the name of Jesus – Acts 2v38
- 5) Apostles water baptism for Gentiles in the name of the Trinity – Mat 28v19

NEW Tract...

I'm very pleased with the way this tract has turned out. This tract is unique. It encourages neighbours to talk, even discuss this tract among themselves, along with the 'deeper' things of life. It has a clear Gospel presentation and is our first landscape tract. Housing estates should be especially targeted, but it can of course be used anywhere. There isn't another tract like it. Time for Truth! tracts not only get read, but they also create responses. May the Lord bless and use this tract widely.

They are 10p each and available now to purchase on our webshop. Drop one through every letterbox down your road and pray that the Lord uses it to reach these lost souls. We have also reprinted another 70,000 tracts as we were running low on some designs.

Well, I never expected this would come from our tract 'Designed or not designed...'

Hi John, Hope all is going well for you. A good friend of mine has passed on your 'Designed or not Designed?' booklet. Would you consider doing a talk for our community at The Old Convent in Stroud sometime in July? I am looking at maybe having your talk Thursday July 21st? Any good for you? The room we would hold the event in can host 100 people. We are a very awake group of Women & Men here in Stroud & I feel that we would be interested in listening to what you have got to say re the times we are living in now. We know Sarah Jane & Mark who attend your spiritual meeting & have recommended you. We can talk more over the phone if you prefer. I certainly think it would be a good idea.

Please let me know your thoughts on this & if your presence here would be a possibility for July 21st.

I accepted...

Morning John, Great news that you have excepted our offer of talking at The Old Convent 21st July. Thank you :-)) We look forward to welcoming you here. The address is:- The Old Convent, Beeches Green, Stroud. GL5 4AD.

We usually start our talks at 7pm. Most of our speakers talk for around 2hrs with a short break in between where they can sell merchandise or chat to the attendees. There are no hard rules, we have the hall all evening.

Will we need to supply you with a projector & Screen? We can do this & a table for merchandise. Our speakers usually arrive around 6pm so they can set themselves up.

We usually charge for the talks as we have to pay for the hall, promotion, expenses etc & your expenses etc. Are you happy with this?

This is great advice...

As with any church, you will always get different characters turning up, 'all' professing to be sound Bible Believers who love God and His word...MOST DON'T...! Get that. Classic example coming up... a Christian professes to be a King James Bible Believing Christian who loves the word and adheres to the word and obeys the word and talks about the word and challenges everyone about the word... etc. etc. etc. Then, this Christian (just an example) who is up and down regarding mood swings, is inconsistent in attitude, and causes an atmosphere everywhere 'they' go, comes in all upset because I ignore them at one meeting. Due to their attitude... I let go and tell 'them' the truth about the problems they have and are causing. This Christian then says they are leaving the church and will never return. Did you get all that? This is a King James Bible Believing so-called Ruckmanite (who is meant to be a hardened soldier!!!) who has a hissy-fit and gets all uptight and upset over the smallest of things that THEY HAVE CAUSED and runs away like a scolded brat. This is the so-called 'tough Christian soldiers' we are supposed to look up to these days. In a word... PATHETIC. You're best without these baby Christians who are actually Bible deniers and Bible REJECTORS, not believers as they make out. They do NOT obey the word and will NOT obey the word when they are upset. It is THEIR will and NOT God's will when they get upset. They will admit they are wrong on a text, but still NOT obey the word because they are so full of PRIDE with a huge attitude and chip on their shoulder. They are an absolute JOKE when it comes to being a Bible Believer. They will NOT change even though the Lord wants them to; they will NOT change even though the Bible says they need to... they are set in their ways and will point the finger at everyone else (especially ME) rather than own up to their sin and pride. Baby, immature Christians. They will then drift again to their next church and cause problems there too. This is their life. God will judge them for it of course, as they will not listen to help and counsel. Have you got someone like this in your church? Be assured, they WILL leave as soon as they get upset. They will then bad-mouth you and everyone else to everyone else. I won't name the Christian as I have more grace than they have. I have to deal with this kind of thing from time to time. It's NEVER their fault in THEIR eyes of course. They can only see the 6x2 plank in your eyes, and only splinters in their own eyes. When Christians come to your church boasting as to what they have done, what churches they have attended etc. know this, they won't last long at your church. Be careful what you tell them as they will use it against you when they leave, and they WILL leave.

Who is your best friend, apart from the Lord?

How do you treat your best friend? Do you love and look out for them, watch their back, and protect them as much as you can? Are you spending the necessary time with them? Is there anything you are not doing for them that you could be? Friends are so precious, especially in these last days. Look after your friends, love and care for them.

How about these for some great verses...

Prov 18v24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

John 15v13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Prov 17v17 A friend loveth at all times...

Prov 22v11 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

Prov 27v6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

Prov 27v9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

Prov 27v17 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

Don't take your friends for granted, look after them, fight for them and protect them.

Regarding Capital Punishment, Gareth writes... which I thought very interesting...

For whoever is siding against capital punishment...

I think I've said that I'm not in favour of the death penalty. My own narrow view comes from a few places, the Bible and personal experience. I just read in Numbers that the reward for murder is death (35:16-21). Pretty clear, but that relies on an honest witness and an unbiased one. These days the death penalty is exercised at high rates in China, the Middle East, and the USA. It is of note that (at least in the US) you are most likely to suffer the death penalty if you are poor, and "marginal" in some way. Just different.

The Old Testament also lists many other crimes for which one can be stoned, hanged, burned, strangled, slayed etc. So, should we not also advocate killing people for witchcraft, idolatry, sodomy etc? It's biblical! As a state we don't kill people for such. This is a list I copied (below) - but if I'd researched it I'd have come up with a similar list - but longer! There were also several instances where God executed the punishment Himself directly.

1. Murder (Ex 21:12,14) (Lev 24:17,21) (Num 35:16-21,30-31)
2. Kidnapping (Ex 21:16) (Deut 24:7)
3. Child sacrifice (Lev 20:2)
4. Both the man and woman who commit adultery (Lev 20:10) (Deut 22:22-24)
5. Rape (Deut 22:25)
6. Daughter of a priest who became a prostitute (Lev 21:9)
7. An idolater (Ex 22:20) (Deut 17:2-5) (Num 25:1-5)
8. Breaking the Sabbath (Ex 31:14) (Ex 35:2) (Num 15:32-36)
9. A woman having sex before marriage (Deut 22:21-22)
10. Homosexuality (Lev 20:13)
11. A man and his father's wife who have sex (Lev 20:11)
12. A man and daughter-in-law who have sex (Lev 20:12)
13. A man who marries a woman and her mother (all 3 must die) (Lev 20:14)
14. Bestiality (sex with an animal) (Ex 22:19) (Lev 20:15-16)
15. A false prophet (Deut 13:5) (Deut 18:20)
16. A false witness (Deut 19:16-21)
17. A disobedient son (Deut 21:18-21)
18. A child who strikes his father or mother (Ex 21:15)
19. A child who curses his father or mother (Ex 21:17) (Lev 20:9)
20. Men who are fighting and hit a pregnant woman, causing her lose her baby (Ex 21:22-25) ***Note: A good verse to use against those who are pro-abortion
21. A man whose ox kills someone after previously goring other people (Ex 21:28-29)
22. A sorceress (Ex 22:18)
23. A medium or spiritualist (Lev 20:27)
24. A brother, son, daughter, wife, or friend who entices you to go after other gods (Deut 13:6-11)
25. Everyone in any town that entices people to go after other gods (Deut 13:12-15)
26. A blasphemer (Lev 24:10-16,23)
27. Anyone who failed to abide by a decision of the court (Deut 17:8-12)
28. Any non-Levite who tried to set up or take down the Tabernacle (Num 1:51)

If we had the death penalty for all the above, there wouldn't be much of a housing crisis. (Now there's a thought...). So does some sort of dispensationalism hold sway here?

And yet, Moses was a murderer. So was David and so was Saul/Paul. Each of whom had a profound influence on the Bible and shaped the very faith we hold.

Should we be lenient? I think so. Apart from the above (i.e. especially wrongful sentence) there is an opportunity for repentance if people have time to reflect.

I think we also distinguish in law between murder and manslaughter. If we didn't, should the person that killed my brother by falling asleep at the wheel have been killed? Despite our family anger I believe that we have to draw the line somewhere and blood for blood there would have been terrible. However, if my brother had been a woman and pregnant too, I am sure sentencing would have been different. And yet abortion is allowed as a form of birth control! Talk about lopsided.

If it is just down to incarceration - it does not mean patting perps on the back and releasing them. They are going to Hell if truly guilty - a terrible punishment anyway. Further, if you kill a killer then are you not also subject to judgement? I think locking people up is the least worst outcome. There is also an economic dimension to incarceration here but in the end, economics should not, however, dictate justice.

These are just a few thoughts and I'm sure other people may see things differently and I'm ok with that. None of these things is either easy or straightforward.

Oh for the wisdom of Solomon (who should also have been killed for allowing idolatry at least). Kind regards, Gareth.

Stroud Meeting

Time For Truth!

A talk by John Davis 'a Christian Minister with discernment',

21st July, 7pm at The Old Convent, £7.00
Hosted by The Beacon @ the Roses

Talking about: "The last days according to a Bible Believing Christian"

John Davis... "I'm controversial because I have a Final Authority on which to turn. I'm controversial because I trust the Lord Jesus Christ and the King James Bible 100%. I'm controversial because I haven't bought into what has been happening over these last two years. I view what is happening from a Biblical perspective and see the times we are living in as 'The Last Days' according to Scripture. I know THE END... and we win!"

Ephesians 4v14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

2 Corinthians 2v11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

The vaccine is NOT the Mark of the Beast...!
But it certainly plays a part in these 'last days'.

John will be showing us where we are in Biblical prophecy and what to look out for as we draw this dispensation to a close.

Revelation 13v17&18 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six..

Come & join John Davis Thursday 21st July who will be giving us a very thought-provoking talk regarding the days we are living in.

Signed by Jane and Iris

70 people turned up, 5 walked out... it was a wild time. Many Christians afterwards who were all 'over the shop' on their doctrine, came up to me, that too was very interesting. I thank the Lord for the way it all went. If you would like to receive a free hard copy of the message just let me know. Many unsaved received the Gospel that night, and 39 King James Bibles were taken along with over 40 literature packs praise the Lord. You can read more about this meeting later on in this newsletter. Over 900 people have now listened to the message we put out on Rumble, plus hundreds of copies on CD we've sent out. We've been invited back, but unless the Lord shows me it's right to do, I shall leave it to another, as I've done my job there to be honest. It was a very interesting time, one of which I thank the Lord for and for Sarah in sorting it all out.

Kingdom of God (K of G)

It is the sovereignty (supreme authority) of God, which is moral and universal. It existed from the beginning and will know no end. It is over all and embraces all.

Has God for its ruler

It is in Heaven over the earth

It is unlimited in its scope

It is moral and spiritual in its sphere

It is inclusive in its character (embracing the natural and spiritual seeds of Abraham, the heavenly calling and the church of the mystery)

It is universal in its aspect

It is (in its wider aspect) the subject of NT revelation

It is eternal in its duration

Scripture calls it the mystery

Luke 17v20+21, Rom 14v17, 1 Cor 15v50

The K of G is the reign of God in the universe over all His created creatures and includes time and eternity, heaven and earth. It is spiritual, and cometh not with observation.

It is entered by the new birth (John 3v5), and is not meat and drink, but righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost.

Kingdom of Heaven (K of H)

It is a dispensational term, and is used of Messiah's Kingdom on earth, but sometimes the heavenly sovereignty over the earth. It is not from or out of this world. This sovereignty comes from Heaven, because the King is to come from hence (John 18v36). It was to this end He was born and this was the first subject of His ministry – Mat 4v17. That Kingdom was rejected, as was also the further proclamation of it in Acts 3v19-26 (according to the prophetic parable of Mat 22v2-7). Thenceforth, the earthly realization of this Kingdom was postponed and is now in abeyance (suspension, temporarily inaction) until the King shall be sent from Heaven (Acts 3v20). The secrets of this Kingdom (Mat 13v11) pertained (to have reference, relate) to the postponement of its earthly realisation, on account of it being rejected.

It has the Messiah for its King

It is from Heaven, and under the heavens upon the earth

It is limited in its scope

It is political in its sphere

It is Jewish and exclusive in its character

It is national in its aspect

It is the special subject of OT prophecy

It is dispensational in its duration

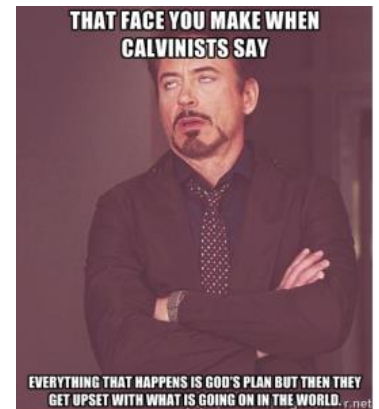

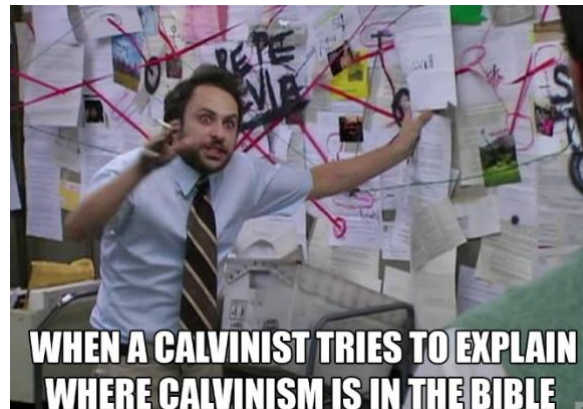

Scripture calls it 'the mysteries' – Mat 19v28

The K of H is mentioned 32 times in Matthew

The K of H merges into the K of G when Christ, having put all enemies under His feet, shall have delivered up the K of G, even to the Father – 1 Cor 15v24-28

The nonsense of Calvinism

Do you feel a failure?

I guess we all do at times. I suppose it helps to keep us humble. Yet, we all have been given different talents by the Lord for Him to use in us. What are you good at? What can you give to the Lord to use? How can you impact other lives for our Lord? He wants to use us, but oftentimes we are too stubborn to allow Him to, we get so caught up in the world and carnal things. When was the last time you said to the Lord that He can have everything you have, so you can live, please and glorify Him through your life. If you feel as if you don't have much, give Him what you do have, step out in faith and see what He will do with that little mustard seed; you'll be amazed. Are you good at drawing, music, writing, encouraging, caring, are you articulate, have good business acumen, good at driving, whatever? Give it to the Lord asking Him to bless what you have and see where He takes you, you'll be amazed. Don't bury your gift (Mat 25), invest it in the Lord and let Him bring the increase, as He is the one who knows what to do. Our job is just to be available and willing.

Talk at The Old Convent Stroud

What's coming next?

This is a talk that is too controversial for YouTube!

Please duplicate it and upload it to all your social media platforms, let's get this message out everywhere.

It explains why we went through what we did over the last two years, and what we are heading into next.

I don't think I've ever had the support for a meeting like the one I had last night. I cannot thank you all enough for praying for me. I had so many emails of support from people saying they were praying for me, and so many of you put this meeting out on your social media sites etc.

Thank you also, to everyone who 'bought Bibles' through your donation.

I would also like to say a special thank you to all those Christians who turned up, and Sarah who actually kicked this adventure off.

I was told that 70 people turned up... 5 people stood up and left when I 'got going'...! There was such a mixed bunch of people you wouldn't believe it.

To be brutally honest, if the organisers had really done their homework, I would never have 'got in', nor had this opportunity, because this was not what they wanted I can tell you... but the Lord opened the door... and ...he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth Rev 3v7. I was there... and I could tell it was going to be a very tough night. They were serving Pimm's in the corner, and one guy took full advantage of it...!!!

Mark introduced me, and then I was 'off'... and when I say... 'off'... I mean... I WAS OFF...!

I just 'let go' as much as I could, preaching truth, praying that the Lord would stir this lot up, and somehow break into their lives. I didn't hold back, I tried not to... but gave 'both barrels' including the 'silver bullet'... it was 'carpet bombing' / 'saturation bombing' as planned... hitting every vice, sin and 'rebellion extinction' member I could with the Gospel and with the word of God.

It started off with a couple of interruptions, one guy shouted out, the New Age music started playing 'by itself' (which I switched off at the plug), but after that, it was okay.

I had support throughout the meeting from Christian's 'Amening', but I could also feel the opposition.

I spoke for 64 minutes and then the fights, contentions, debates and questions started... 95% coming from Christians can you believe...!!!

Those that didn't believe in the Rapture, those that were Post-Trib, those who had 10 different versions of the Bible, those who didn't understand dispensational salvation, those who believed in eternal security in all dispensations, those who were 'demon possessed' they said, those who believed in one Gospel from Genesis to Revelation, those who were amillennialist, and on and on it went. For the next hour I was involved in all of that...!

One guy (not a Christian) shook my hand and told me I was wrong on nearly everything, I was too forceful and didn't act like a Christian should even though he wasn't one...!? I just smiled.

One woman was 'demon possessed', got delivered, and wanted to talk with me... by the sounds of it, there were still a 'few left inside'. Some people I spoke to were absolute NUTS, and so New Age and confused, it was incredible how they could get the right shoe on each foot in the mornings.

It was wild... and I mean wild man. A night to remember that was for sure!

Do you want the good news or the bad news?

The bad news... I didn't switch on the microphone...! I know, I know... well I had a lot on my plate didn't I...! Sorry to everyone. My team will start reminding me each meeting from now on.

I will record it though and get it out there Lord willing.

The good news... 39 King James Bibles were taken and over 40 'pizza-boxes' full of tracts and booklets.

10 Christian Soldier's Battle notes also went in seconds, I should have taken more.

The organisers couldn't believe the turnout they said. People had travelled some distance to be there which was very humbling. My overview on the whole meeting is this... I went to do a job, a job the Lord Jesus Christ had given me; I did it the best I could, although I am very critical of myself. I was pleased the way it went. I was surprised by the Christians who were all over the shop on their doctrine... I doubt one agreed with the other, although they did know the Gospel and were doing what they could in getting it out, as some were street preachers, which was excellent.

I could also 'feel' some who were very stirred up by it all but hadn't got the guts to come and talk with me.

Without doubt, the actual message 'rocked some folks to the core'. The team had a lot of encouraging comments which was great. I couldn't talk to many others because I was debating all the 'Christians' that came up to me, which was a shame in some respect.

Like the Mustard Seed meeting, it split them down the middle, and both sides were quite extreme in their passions and emotions. I guess that's the reason I don't speak out much these days!!!

We also met some other Christians who had recently set up a church and talked about getting me to preach there...! We shall see.

Matt commented on the way home that he had never seen anything like this situation in his life, and described it like 'dropping a nuke' and now just waiting for the 'fallout' and repercussions. We shall see.

Torben (aka TorBURN from now on!) Søndergaard in a word... FAKE...!

He's a NUT... and those of you who follow him are very shallow in the Scriptures.

Let's keep it simple... those who follow this guy are simpletons, idiots, morons and don't know the Bible.

Torben Søndergaard is part of the Oneness Pentecostal sect. He believes he is a self-appointed apostle with a "Last Reformation" belief system. He claims that "about 90 percent of all the people, that he or others in his team pray for, are healed". Lack of healing is caused by a lack of faith which is Word of Faith doctrine to the core.

Søndergaard has created his own little belief system by "taking a little from some different" denominations, for example, baptismal regeneration from the Catholics, speaking in tongues as the sign of baptism in the Holy Spirit from the Pentecostals, believer's baptism as Baptists, and baptism to Jesus Christ not using the Trinitarian formula as Oneness Pentecostals.

Contrary to almost any other Christian denomination, he teaches that salvation for a Christian is completed through baptism in water not using the Trinitarian formula, as well as through baptism in the Holy Spirit with the manifestation of speaking in tongues. He also teaches that just as Jesus received the Holy Spirit through water baptism, it is through baptism that a Christian receives the Holy Spirit. Søndergaard regards receiving the Holy Spirit as having substituted receiving Jesus. Søndergaard has lots more very strange doctrines too, but why waste time and space; if he's got the Gospel wrong and the Godhead wrong, dump him...! He's a fake, a fraud and a LIAR. Those of you who follow him will get what you deserve, and you haven't got the discernment of a dead cat.

This is his statement of faith...

*We believe that the original scriptures of the Old and the New Testament are given without errors by inspiration of God and are supreme as final authority for faith and life (2 Tim 3v16-17). TorBURN doesn't have a perfect Bible for TODAY.

We believe that what we read in the book of Acts is also for today and that we need to come back to the simple disciple life the first Christians had. We believe that The Last Reformation is a reformation about the true gospel and the simple disciple life, but also a reformation of the church. This is the reason why the movement is called The Last Reformation. The "first" reformation was the reformation with Martin Luther in the 16th century. A reformation of the Catholic church that led to the Protestant church. TorBURN doesn't understand his so-called 'bible' and therefore doesn't read it dispensationally.

We believe in the only true God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and His Son our Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist (1 Cor 8v6). TorBURN doesn't believe that Jesus Christ is GOD. He's a cult leader.

We believe that those who receive the Holy Spirit and live by it, build together the body of Christ and continue the work that Jesus has started (1 Cor 12v27, Eph 4v12). We believe that God the Father, Jesus the Son and the Holy Spirit (which is the Spirit of God and the Spirit of Jesus) are immutable and therefore the same yesterday, today and forever (Jam 1v17, Heb 13v8, 1 John 5v7). TorBURN thinks Christians today can do the same apostolic gifts like the apostles... NUTS!

We believe that to enter in the promised Kingdom of God and receive eternal life we need to be born again: we need to repent toward God the Father from all our sins, get baptized in water in the Name of Jesus Christ, receive the Holy Spirit and continue living a life in faith till the end (Acts 2v38, Matt 7v21). We believe that repentance is a changing of mind and a turning away of sins caused by the goodness of God and in faith it is the first step into the new life (Rom 2v4). TorBURN believes in faith PLUS 'works' for salvation TODAY... NUTS! He believes in baptismal regeneration like the cults.

We believe that water baptism in the Name of Jesus Christ is part of being born again because it is to be buried with Christ and have the sins washed away by His blood.

"AND NOW WHY ARE YOU WAITING? ARISE AND BE BAPTIZED, AND WASH AWAY YOUR SINS, CALLING ON THE NAME OF THE LORD." Follow TorBURN and you'll BURN with him in Hell.

Seven mysteries

- 2) Christ indwelling – Col 1v27
- 3) Body of Christ – Eph 5v32, 3v1-5
- 4) Blindness of Israel – Rom 11v25
- 5) Mystery of iniquity – 2 Thes 2v7
- 6) Rapture 1 Cor 15v51

What are we allowing...?

We all make choices, so what are you allowing into your mind and heart that affects your Christian life? Is there something you know you should NOT be allowing in? If so, what are you doing about it? Time is running out, live a holy life to the end.

Matt and Lily get married.

It's great having this young family attending the Time to Regroup! Meetings. Matt is in the Army, so as you can imagine, it's tough being a Bible Believing Christian there. He's taking a good stand. Now it's Mark and Sarah's turn...!!!

When did the Body of Christ start?

If it was at 'The Cross', which is in Mat 27, how can the 'elect' in Mat 24 be the Church, which is the Body of Christ (Col 1v18 cf 1 Cor 12v13, Rom 6v3, Gal 3v27)? One guy at the Stroud meeting said the elect is the Body of Christ, the Church... it can't be!

Rom 7v4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

1 Cor 10v16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

1 Cor 12v27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

Eph 4v12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

When a man who is honestly mistaken hears the truth, he will either quit being mistaken or cease to be honest.

Alderney Evangelism...

Greetings John, my partner and I live on Guernsey's tiny sister island of Alderney, which is rich in WW2 history with plenty of bunkers and forts for tourists to visit. We've placed 100 gospel coins around the island so far, and hung some dog-tags in strategically placed areas that we thought would be eye catching! Jana has also painted "gospel rocks" and slates. Cheers John, THANK YOU for helping us to sow the word of God! We appreciate all your work, especially your Tft YouTube channel, its essentially our 'online' church out here. Warmest regards and God bless, Gavin and Jana.

Not just fat... but ugly... the hypocrisy and blatant lies of this moronic conman...!

Aron Ra is a so-called American author, podcaster and atheist activist. In February 2022, Ra identified himself as a 'Satanist'. So, Satan is his 'god' but he professes to be an atheist...? Yeah, makes sense!? This goat-bearded fool attempts to bamboozle his dumb listeners into thinking that he knows what he is talking about. You've never heard such garbage and utter nonsense pour from his big arrogant mouth... I mean, he really chews the cud man! You've got to be an idiot to listen to this dodo. Question – why are all atheists ugly? Anyway, his arguments have been demolished numerous times by Kent Hovind, Ray Comfort and other creationists. He desperately needs a comb, and maybe even shampoo for his hair on occasions, let alone his drab dress sense, that's one for / from the tombs isn't it? People like this nut, spend their lives trying to disprove God, while all the time they lie to everyone, as like this nutter, who actually believes in a 'god', just a lesser one, a counterfeit of the real True God. He hasn't got a proper job, and sponges off those who are so 'weak in the head' that they actually financially support him, can you believe it? But let's face it, imagine this fat ugly dude turning up for an interview... somehow, I don't think he'd make it through the preliminaries, do you? He actually thinks evolution is science, that's how messed up his tiny mind is. Ra identifies as a feminist... well he's got the hair for it hasn't he!?

Jude 1v10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

Where are you in life?

Some of us are behind you, some in front regarding the Christian walk. Some are nearing the end, some have just started out. Life, what an adventure! Time, how fast it goes. Are we making the most out of every day? Are we seeking the Lord's will and trying to live for Him in everything? Have you stopped recently to think whether you are even on the right path? If you are travelling along the wrong road, you need to get off it as quickly as possible before you waste more precious time. Some Christians waste months, even years because they have been deceived or misled, make sure this is not happening to you.

Do you fit in?

This world is getting harder to live in for the Bible Believing Christian; the liberal Christian fits in fine, but us, we find it very tough at times. So, what do we do, how do we cope with all the antichristian systems etc.? We read and study our Bibles asking the Lord to guide us through every day, helping us to make the right decisions don't we... don't we?

If you can't 'admit you are wrong', 'own up to it', say 'sorry', or take criticism... ...know this...

You are a backslidden Christian, who is not living for the Lord in holiness, purity and HONESTY. Boy, do I get them. Recently we've had a couple (or more) of these 'type' of Christians leave us, all because of the arrogance and pride in their own lives, and their rejection of God's word regarding love, forgiveness and repentance. Of course, they think they are Bible 'believers' rather than rejectors, but that's because they are so full of self-righteousness and pride, that they never see their own faults and sins, it's tragic to watch. All they are doing really, is hurting themselves. They never think they are wrong; they criticise and judge everyone else, yet they are the NUTJOBS who need to change. In two cases, when I pointed out some faults of their own to them, they both exploded and left the church. These immature Christians both claim to be 'Ruckmanites', how funny is that. Ruckman would disown them BOTH.

Do you appreciate LIFE?

Never take a day for granted, we don't know how long we've got, as anything could happen. Just trust in the Lord and thank Him for every day asking Him to guide you through it. Whether it's the Rapture or we have to face death, the Lord is there to bring us home, so don't worry or fret, just keep talking to Him about everything and read the Scriptures. I've had a wake-up call recently with a headache I couldn't shift for two weeks. I always think the worst

So many young and fit people are suddenly dying... why?

The internet is doing all it can to cover this up, but the word is getting out. Young fit and healthy people are dropping dead all over the world... why? How come this is suddenly happening if it's not to do with the vaccine? We've never seen anything like this before. It's the biggest coverup in human history.

Christians who just keep on making excuse after excuse after excuse after excuse after excuse after excuse... PRIDE.

Christians will try to justify their actions and mistakes until their dying breath rather than admit they are wrong and apologise. The reason for this? PRIDE...! Yes, again, it's pride, nothing else, just pride. Most Christians are so proud they can't bear to admit they are wrong or made a mistake. Because of this, their Christian life stagnates, and they produce very little fruit. Oftentimes they live in bitterness and regret, jealous of those who do see fruit. It's pride, every time. Do they change? Most don't. Why? Because of pride. Pride won't let them, as they see admitting their faults, sins and mistakes, as a weakness, and they'll lose their reputation, because their reputation means more to them than truth and righteousness. Phil 2v6-8 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. How many Christians have you seen vanish from off the scene? I've seen loads, all because of pride. Many Christians have left my life and the church because they were too proud to apologise and admit they were wrong. This embarrasses them too much and so they'd rather be isolated, disfellowshipped and live life on their own, because they are all Bible REJECTORS and God's word means very little to them. Some of them will attend 'Gay Pride' marches, holding up banners, trying to justify themselves before God through self-righteousness (it never works!) and they'll also try to work some kind of 'favour' with God by 'doing so-called good works' rather than submitting to His word, apologise, seek forgiveness and mercy, and repent of their sins. These Christians actually achieve very little for God although they think they do by their 'dutiful-guilty-good-works'. Actually, their 'good-works' are a stench in God's nostrils, but they just can't see it... why? You guessed it, because of pride. How deceitful pride is. One woman told me that she 'loves to tract', yet her life is full of broken friendships, contentions, legalism, judging everyone else... everywhere she goes. She's NOT a Bible Believer, but a Bible rejector instead... she just can't see it. Every church she attends is WRONG, as she is right, and knows best, as she is a 'Ruckmanite' and knows all the top 'preachers'. She's a sad joke and so full of hypocrisy is frightening. Like many opinionated arrogant Christians, she will live her life in isolation, because she will not admit or deal with her pride. How tragic, how utterly futile. How many people have left your church recently? Why? How many churches have you left? Why? Is the fault with you? Deal with it, or you'll cause yourself so many problems down the line you'll have such a miserable backslidden life. You have been warned.

The Rapture...

Deut 16v16 Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty: Note the 'feast of weeks' is called a 'harvest' in Exod 23v16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. The possible applications would be that the Passover (the feast of unleavened bread) would be the 'first part' of the resurrection – the firstfruits of OT saints (1 Cor 15v20); 'the feast of weeks' would be the harvest, the Rapture of the Church (1 Cor 15v23); and the 'feast of tabernacles' would be the 'gleanings' at the end of the Tribulation. It's also interesting to note that there are 'three' fig seasons in Israel (Mat 24v32). We're very close!!!

Here are some questions for Calvinists... (Check every verse in a King James Bible though)

If sovereignty means that God freely and unchangeably ordains whatsoever comes to pass, why does evil exist?

Where did evil first come from? Did it in any way originate from God?

Does God love everyone in a meaningful sense?

In what sense does God love those whom he deliberately withholds grace from?

Is God sincere?

If God's hidden will sometimes conflicts with his revealed will, how can you trust what he says?

Does God have an intrinsic sense of morality and character that guides his decision making? Is it meaningful to us?

If "Irresistible grace" is true, why doesn't God save everyone?

Was God's justice fully manifested at the cross? Doesn't it minimize Jesus' death to argue that reprobation is necessary to show God's justice?

I hope that everyone goes to heaven, does this mean I love more than God does?

Does it trouble you that God deliberately leaves most people in a state of inability, and that their damnation is unavoidable?

Do you ever doubt that you are elect? How do you know whether God wants you to be saved or not?

Why did God choose you?

How do you avoid feeling proud that God loves you and not someone else?

How does evangelism make a difference?

The devil wants all to go to hell. God wants most to go to hell. How can you tell the difference between God and the devil?

Ezekiel 18:23 If God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked and wants them to turn and live, why is reprobation necessary or even possible in the Calvinist system?

Matthew 23:37 Why didn't Jesus gather up everyone in Jerusalem when he longed to?

Mark 10:21-22 If Jesus loved the rich young ruler, why wasn't he saved?

John 3:16 If God loves the world and irresistible grace is true, doesn't that mean everyone will be saved?

Romans 11:32 For God has bound all men over to unbelief so that he may have mercy on them all. Who does all refer to in this verse? Is the first all used in a different sense than the second all?

1 Timothy 1:18,19 What does it mean to shipwreck one's faith?

1 Timothy 2:3-4 If God wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth, how is hell possible?

1 John 2:2 He is the propitiation for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world. How can "whole world" mean anything else other than whole world?

More questions for the Calvinist...

1. Why preach 'repent or perish' when the non-elect can't repent, and the elect can't perish?
2. How can God hold the non-elect responsible for 'not believing' and damn them for it, when He deliberately did not give them the faith to enable them to believe in the first place?
3. If Christ has already made an efficacious atonement for the sins of an elect person, is that elect person actually lost during the period prior to their being saved?
4. During the period before an elect person gets saved, how are they condemned already (for not believing) when their unbelief (which is a sin) has already been paid for by Christ on the cross?
5. If repentance is a gift only given to the elect, what did Jesus mean when He said that some of the people in hell would have repented if they had had the same opportunity as the people to whom He preached?
6. Why does the Spirit of God strive and convict some sinners who later prove, by dying and going to Hell, that they were non-elect? What is the purpose of such moving's of the Spirit?

So where are you going wrong?

Do you even know? Has someone pointed out the bad decisions you are making for your life, your family etc. Do you think the decisions you are making are good and right? Is it all working out, or have you stress, friction and contention on every side? If so, there's probably something wrong with your decision making. Maybe you should seek another opinion? Do you know what the Lord wants from you? If not, how will you find out? Making poor decisions will not just affect you, they will affect all those around you.

Who impressed you this year?

How did they do it? Did it change your life in any way? Who is inspiring you to press on, keep going, and live for the Lord? Who are you inspiring? What impact are you having on those around you? Are you living as a Christian should live? What Christians have you read about who have challenged you to live more purely, more zealous for the Lord? When was the last time you read about John Wesley, Richard Baxter, Martin Luther etc. Have you read any good biographies or autobiographies lately? When was the last time you even bought a book? Have you gifted someone else with a book that was a great help to you this year? It's great to pass on good Christian books to others. What about Christian films, have you watched any good ones of late? Can you recommend any? Are you building up a good Christian library?

Even more questions for the Calvinist...

- 1) If God picks and chooses who He will offer salvation to, and who He will send to Hell with no chance at redemption, then why witness or preach to people? You are wasting your time if the person is not one of the elect.
- 2) If we have no free will, and we will become a Christian if God wants us to be one, again why bother with preaching, evangelising, and witnessing?
- 3) If God sends people to hell because He picked them out ahead of time to burn for all eternity, how can He judge those people for their sins and be a just God?
- 4) If God is love, how can He pick so many people He is going to send to hell and not offer them salvation?
- 5) The Bible says that it is not God's will that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. In light of that verse, how can you say it is God's will that many will go to Hell without a chance of being saved?
- 6) Do you not realize what kind of God you are portraying to the world? In blunt terms, you teach and preach a God who picks people out ahead of time to toss into hell and never give them a chance to serve Him. You portray a God who forces people to be Christians who He has picked to be Christians. If a parent decided to just love some of their kids and provide for only some, we would have strong language for what kind of parents they were.....yet your portrayal of God is even worse than that.
- 7) Which God would you rather serve and tell people about: A God who loves everyone and who will save anyone, or a God who picks and chooses who He will save and who He will not, and forces people to serve Him?
- 8) If we have no free will, then why did Jesus say "Behold I stand at the door and knock....."?
- 9) How do you deal with this verse - 1 Tim 4v10?
- 10) How would you feel about God and election if your children were not of the elect?
- 11) What happens to babies who are not the elect and die before birth or in infancy? Does God send babies to hell? And if so, how can you serve a God like that? Can you prove it from Scripture?

The Queen is dead... the new antichristian 'king' will be the last nail in the coffin for England...

The Queen was as profitable to Christians as Freddie Mercury (Queen) was, both were very antichristian in many ways. The new 'king' is against THE King James Bible, THE faith, and THE only way of salvation in THE Lord Jesus Christ. The whole establishment and Government is as corrupt as you can get, full of sexual scandals among other sins. Thank God we don't look to these 'rulers' for help... our help the LORD: he is our help and our shield. Ps who made heaven and earth. Ps 124v8. If there is no hope for them or our country. hope of ever returning to the glory days. singing 'GOD save the king'? What's that think. When Christians would rather go to Queen as being Christian, you know what mess England is in. Come Lord Jesus, it's our

Bring back Oliver Cromwell...!

Your favourite preacher hasn't done you much good has he???

I've heard Christians say 'so and so' is the best preacher I've heard, the best Bible teacher etc. Yet their lives are full of sin, misery, rebellion, and their characters are the epitome of arrogance and pride, they are so opinionated and full of self-importance it's unbelievable... yet they can't see it. Their so-called 'best teachers and preachers' haven't done a very good job helping them have they. I get all kinds of Christians spouting off who's the best, who their favourites are, and on and on it goes... what a waste of time. If you're sitting under good preaching and teaching, it will change you for the better, if it isn't, something is wrong. Maybe it's time to find a new teacher!? Some of the YouTube channels I get sent are full of proud Christians strutting their stuff across the 'stage' lapping up the limelight... some think that is spiritual, I don't.

Another response from the Netherlands...

Hi John, I found your booklet 'Does anyone really care?' in my mailbox just now. If there is one thing I can say about this, it would be: please continue with spreading this message. I have known Jesus since 2018 after years of being an agnostic. I found out that Jesus is real, that God is real and that Holy Spirit renews my mind day by day. Many people in this secular world don't understand that they need Jesus and I think that is very unfortunate. People don't know what it means to be human and look away from all the bad things that are present in this world (just like you describe in your booklet). Moreover, when people see that things go wrong, they blame God for it: people are inherently good and it is God who is wrong. We both know, of course, that we are not good, but we are made good because of Jesus. Be blessed and spread His love! Allard The Hague, Netherlands.

Don't get sucked in by this heretic 'Billy-Boy Macgregor'... he's NUTS...!

He thinks we're in the Tribulation now and the Rapture is on Sept 16th 2023...! Yes, he's another unscriptural date-setter like fatso-Breaker. Ol' Billy-Boy hasn't just got a gap in-between his teeth, he's got gaps all over his theology. I don't think many follow him, thank the Lord, so just beware of this NUTTER. Here are some of his other raving mad teachings... The vaccine IS the mark of the beast; Jared Kushner IS the Antichrist; Israel IS a fraudulent state; the real Israel IS now resurrected and hiding in Saudi Arabia; the Second Advent IS January 13, 2027... and on and on it goes. Even Doug-can-Stuff-It is sucked in by him...! I warn you because these antichrist so-called Christians are springing up all over the place in these last days... 1 John 2v18+19 Little children, it is the last time:

and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

Quality time on your own with the Lord Jesus...

2 Cor 12v15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. Is your life always about giving to others and pouring into other Christians lives? Are you getting any quality time to yourself? Sometimes we can neglect our own lives because we are too busy 'giving out', which can cause us problems. We need quality time alone at times to think and meditate upon the Lord and His word. I've noticed that this year to be honest. I try to pour all my energy into serving the Lord and helping those around me, and sometimes I'm just not doing what I need to do, even though I'm busy serving... does that make sense? I have neglected to spend time just with the Lord, and I've missed this. When you preach and teach, you can get so wrapped up in 'studying' (Ecc 12v12), that your normal daily reading for enjoyment can go by the wayside. Do NOT neglect to read your Bible, get into it, and keep reading through it every day no matter what, as it will always do you good. Spend time alone with the Lord. Go for walks and talk to Him, just you. Get quality time alone with Jesus Christ.

JDA in October...

So far, it's been a good year. Thank you to everyone who has prayed and supported us during 2022, I can't tell you how encouraging it has been. The JDA team have worked very hard again this year. Dee has proved a worthy Managing Director, and is guiding the company very well. She is looking after the biggest accounts we deal with and doing it brilliantly.

2023 Gospel Calendar...

This is the best calendar we have produced so far. We printed 5,000 and they are selling very fast. If you want some, let me know asap to avoid disappointment. Gospel calendars are the best way of getting the word of God up on the wall, preaching 365 days a year in places that you and I can't really get to e.g. businesses, hospital and doctor's offices, dentists, schools etc. Are you distributing them in your neighbourhood? If not, you really are missing a great opportunity. Has your church invested in Gospel calendars? Every Christian ought to be distributing them to their friends and family, neighbours and work colleagues. These calendars were even shipped to the Philippines by Dave in Scotland. Gospel calendars are one of the most received 'tracts' by unsaved sinners, don't miss out.

Tongues... are they for today?

If tongues are NOT for today... and they are NOT... what about those people who profess to speak in them? What does this mean? Are they liars? Are they deceived? If there is no such thing as the Pentecostal or Charismatic 'tongue', where does that leave the person who thinks / believes he speaks in them? How can you trust anyone who is so deceived or such a liar? Be honest with me, how can you trust someone who 'jibber-jabbers' such utter nonsense? They even go as far to say that if you speak the way I'm speaking here you're blaspheming the Holy Ghost... can you believe these idiots?! These are childish Christians who don't know their Bibles and haven't grown up. They seek to draw attention to themselves by speaking such utter rubbish 'shedraka-meshaka-nigglytootoo-comeontwopelltwo-giggly-pigly-wiggly-honoshueshoo'. I wouldn't trust one of those nitwits for anything. If they are so deceived by that tosh, what else are they deceived by? If they are such liars, what else are they lying about? The Pentecostal and Charismatic 'Church' is full of people who are deceived or liars if they profess to speak in tongues and believe in 'signs and wonders'. How can you take these people seriously? They deserve what they get if they are NOT reading and studying their Bibles. You've NEVER... not one day in your life... have you EVER... seen a limb (pick what you like... hand, ear, arm, leg) supernaturally, miraculously put back on... have you? HAVE YOU???

Don't play games with me you punk, tell the truth for once, man up. Most of these Pentecostal NUTJOBS stay in the rut of their deception because they are cowards to face up to the truth because of the repercussions among their friends and families. My advice to you... either expose the LIES in the church and get it back on track as it should be, or, if they don't listen, GET OUT and find a Bible Believing Church that can actually rightly divide the Scriptures – 2 Tim 2v15.

The Oaks church Carol Service

Well, this year we went for a very professional flyer and printed 1,000 copies to distribute. Many folks brought their unsaved relatives and friends to this meeting. You can read about this service further on in this newsletter. We visited a number of carol services this year, and not one of them preached the Gospel to all these unsaved people that gathered sadly. Ours was different, we went after lost souls and made sure they all knew where they were going that night if they died, Heaven or Hell. It was their choice and we left them with the weight of the word hanging upon them. They either received Jesus Christ as their Saviour that night, or they rejected Him. If unsaved people turn up to any of your meetings, make sure you challenge them with the Gospel, it's their only hope in this sinful world.

What are you focused on?

What takes up most of your time? What gets your attention? As Christians it's very easy to get distracted by all that is going on around us, and many Christians have been enticed by the bright shining glitter of the world, only to find that it left them empty after running there. Only the Lord Jesus Christ can give you true satisfaction. Are you focused on Him? Mat 6v24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Although some Christians try to. I personally don't know of a rich Christian who is really living for the Lord, do you? Their relationship is usually very shallow, and they are consumed by self. I know of a few millionaire Christians, and they have no interest in getting the Gospel out to sinners... it's tragic.

Why DUNGslinger really is a bonehead... and I mean a total bonehead...!

As you know he thinks John Wesley and Keith Green weren't saved, which is not only ludicrous and preposterous but very childish. He also thinks the Father IS Jesus, and Jesus is the Holy Ghost, I mean, this guy is so screwed up that no normal rational human being would follow him in anything anywhere, even to just buy a bag of 'kindling' from him. I don't think I know of a more narcissistic moron than this one. Is he really saved? I don't know. He is 'shacked up' with his 'babe' (!!!) and has dedicated his wasted reclusive life, telling everyone else how they ought to live. BONEHEAD-DUNGslinger, that's him. His boyfriend 'JT', the baby with the 'bouncy hair', is his only admirer and both of them love to 'blow smoke' with their childish emails. DUNGslinger has never grown up. He's never had a man to help mentor him, that's why he is so effeminate and childish all the time. He bought a load of Ruckman books at the start but realised they were too deep for him so he just leaves them on his bookshelf 'showing off' instead. He has no visitors, no friends and even his own family want nothing to do with him. He spouts heresies day in day out. He had to go get a 'babe' from a dating agency because he couldn't find one naturally as he is a recluse. He has grown a big, long, scruffy, bushy-beard to hide behind, as he's scared to face people clean shaven, and he has bought one plaid red and black shirt for every day of the week. He's now gone into hiding, because nothing has worked for him. He's just a dirty beggar trying to live off weak people. Baby-JT said I never used to mention DUNGslinger, and he couldn't understand it... now he does. Just have a look at DUNGslinger's face, look into those demonic eyes... aren't they lovely. Don't they speak to you about 'love and peace'. No one really takes this muppet DUNGslinger seriously, a bit like David Ike and his cult, although DUNGslinger hasn't got a following or a ministry, or a church. This poor bearded, deluded fool, doesn't witness, preach or teach (unfortunately he can't), neither passes out tracts. He just mopes around the house with his 'babe', acting. Do I feel sorry for this childish boy trying to play a man? Not really. But why John? Because he has had so many chances to get back into line it's amazing. So many people have tried to help him, warn him and guide him. He has listened to no one, only the self-deluded-idiot in the mirror. Unfortunately for him, it has destroyed everything he ever had regarding any kind of ministry. BONEHEAD-DUNGslinger, is a complete washout wasting every day of his life. Will he ever change? Is there any hope for this sad old tramp? I'm afraid not my friends... unless... the starting point has to be the scruffy beard. If that goes, it's a sign. Watch this space.

This article was written, courtesy of baby-Jake Thompson aka 'JT'. Thank you, baby-Jake, for highlighting DUNGslinger, and getting me to start mentioning him, I appreciate it, and so do thousands of my readers. I hope you are happy now JT, maybe it will help launch you into doing something with your own life? Just a thought. I may start highlighting a few things regarding you soon my boy, that is, if you don't start being a good boy for your mother, so watch this space. I believe your YouTube channel has now been deleted? I'm sorry baby-Jake if Time for Truth! took you down, but YouTube isn't for cultish brats or babies, and sadly you seem to qualify for both?

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 1 Cor 13v11. Baby-Jake, it's time to put away childish things. One day you are going to have to get a job, and then maybe, if you comb your nice bouncy hair, your first girlfriend, wouldn't that be novel?

Do you really appreciate those around you?

Or do you take them for granted? There are many people in our lives who have helped us, and continue to do so. Have you thanked them recently? The Lord brings different people into our path for different reasons; sometimes it's to help us, sometimes it's to help them. We should all be doing what we can to look after those that the Lord brings our way, but do we? Do we take some people for granted? Do we realise how much they have helped us? Stop and think about that for a while. I thank the Lord for all those who help me in the work and ministry He has called me to. Without them, I couldn't do half of what I do. We are here for each other 24/7. Stop for a moment and think about all those who have helped you recently. Did you thank them properly?

British Governance versus Rome by Alan O'Reilly

Overview - Remember that Catholics must obey the pope rather than the Monarch or Parliament or indeed any non-Catholic leader. Catholics themselves confirmed Adrian Hilton's observation. Note this disclosure by the Waterford Mail.

ATROCIOUS INSULT TO THE QUEEN

When the Pope and the Queen are placed in antagonism to each other as has been done lately and it is intimated that Her Majesty would not accept a divided allegiance we are compelled to say plainly which allegiance we consider the most important, and we would not hesitate to tell the Queen to her face that she must either be content with this divided allegiance or none at all. Let us never forget that whatever her boasted authority may be it is as nothing and less than nothing compared to that of the Vicar of Christ.

The law of God, that is, the Pope's command, will be, or rather has been, and is being, carried into effect; the Parliamentary lie will be spit upon, and trampled under foot, and treated as all honest men treat a lie - that is — rigorously disobeyed. Note therefore Catholics' open defiance of Romans 13:1-2.

Article XXXVII of the Church of England stipulates The Bishop of Rome hath no jurisdiction in this realm of England. In these perilous times 2 Timothy 3:1 of rampant Vatican versions infesting the body of Christ, and members in particular 1 Corinthians 12:27 the words of Dr Grattan Guinness should therefore be a focus for national prayer:

I see the great Apostacy, I see the desolation of Christendom, I see the smoking ruins, I see the reign of monsters; I see those vice-gods, that Gregory VII, that Innocent III, that Boniface VIII, that Alexander VI, that Gregory XIII, that Pius IX; I see their long succession, I hear their insufferable blasphemies, I see their abominable lives, I see them worshipped by blinded generations, bestowing hollow benedictions, bartering lying indulgences, creating a paganized Christianity; I see their liveried slaves, their shaven priests, their celibate confessors; I see the infamous confessional, the ruined women, the murdered innocents; I hear the lying absolutions, the dying groans; I hear the cries of the victims; I hear the anathemas, the curses, the thunders of the interdicts; I see the racks, the dungeons, the stakes; I see that inhuman Inquisition, those fires of Smithfield, those butcheries of St Bartholomew, that Spanish Armada, those unspeakable dragonnades, that endless train of wars, that dreaded multitude of massacres. I see it all, and in the name of the ruin it has brought in the Church and in the world, in the name of the truth it has denied, the temple it has defiled, the God it has blasphemed, the souls it has destroyed; in the name of the millions it has deluded; the millions it has slaughtered, the millions it has damned; with holy confessors, with noble reformers, with innumerable martyrs, with the saints of ages, I denounce it as the masterpiece of Satan, as the body and soul and essence of antichrist.

Conclusion - And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too. 1 Kings 1v36.

To whom shall YOU go?

John 6v68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. Jesus Christ is THE answer, and will always be THE answer. Have you found that out yet? What are you waiting for?

174 countries have now visited the Time for Truth! website, which I think is remarkable. I am very thankful to the Lord that this small ministry is touching many people around the 'globe' (or 'disk' if you are a flat earther...!) We are shipping lots of our material to the USA and Europe at present. Christians from all around the world are being touched and ministered to by Time for Truth! praise God. The Lord is using this ministry to stir up and challenge Christians everywhere to seek a deeper relationship with the Lord and get involved in serving Him in some kind of ministry. Every day I receive emails from people all over the world enquiring about something. The webshop itself (thanks to Cristian, Liggy and Matt) has been able to bring the best Bible teaching to Christians everywhere. Many Christians are using our materials in their outreach work, with hundreds of thousands of tracts being distributed, it's very humbling to see how the Lord has grown this ministry. We started from our bedroom printing our first tract on an OKI laser printer, using listing paper with perforations down the side, which we had to tear off for each tract. 25+ years later and now we are shipping thousands of tracts every month, it's quite incredible. Stocking Ruckman was a great decision, as we've shipped thousands of his books worldwide and continue to do so. We continue to write and produce booklets on various subjects and we're always looking to expand the range. The Gospel Cart has also proved a great tool to those evangelists on the front line. We wrote four booklets exposing the Covid SCAM and tens of thousands of these got distributed, mainly across the UK, but also overseas. All our tracts are produced AT COST, what WE PAY... YOU PAY...! If you are not posting, distributing, or passing out tracts, you are wasting so many opportunities in life. When was the last time you left a tract somewhere? What is your excuse?

Why not place an order today for some Gospel tracts, and start working the area where you live? You never know where they will get to, and who will get saved. It one of the best ministries a Christian can get involved in.

Christians that go off at a tangent...!

Many Christians start well, but for some reason pride sets in and they start thinking they know more than they do (e.g. DUNG-Slinger, Fake-Pfenny, Fat-Slob-Caldwell etc). Then they veer off the sound doctrine radar saying things like... 'Jesus is THE Father' (which He certainly is NOT...that is a cult teaching). Be careful who you listen to and keep checking them out, because so many Christians are NOT balanced in their doctrine, therefore they are unbalanced and unstable. In the end, this type of Christian will quit going to their local church and isolate themselves, so they don't mix with other Christians (because they are cowards) and start sitting in front of a camera in their bedrooms and make boring videos every day telling everyone how they are right and everyone else is wrong. They have now become a baby cult... DUMP THEM.

Do you know when to stop and move on...?

Do you remember 'ric-david' the heretic? He started off 'okay' but then his own pride and self-delusion led him away from understanding the Scriptures and he went so far off the sound doctrine radar, you have to question whether he was ever saved, probably not to be honest. He's just another lonely loser with no Bible, no final authority, no God, and no hope. He's just an arrogant 'boy' pretending to be a man, drifting through life with no purpose. He didn't (couldn't) answer any questions I put to him, and now he is somewhere out there in the 'ether' humming, moaning, seeking peace, and is another 'chimp' to pick fleas off. This dodo has wasted his life, is wasting his life, and will continue to do so up to the Great White Throne. It's sad to watch such an arrogant idiot, blind as a bat, knowing very little about anything, struggle... and he does.

Are you any of these types of Christians below, or maybe you are several of them...?

How honest are you...? We shall see...!

The 'Attention Seeking Christian' – You just keep wanting the attention, you will even lie to get it. You go around telling everyone how bad things are for you JUST TO GET THE ATTENTION. The way you speak and act is done to draw attention to yourself, inside and outside of church. When challenged or confronted with convicting TRUTH you crumble and will run away to the next church, or just quit all churches and stay at home.

The 'Arrogant Christian' – Pride is your issue, although you just can't see it. Everyone else can see it in you (which is tragic), but for some unknown reason you just can't. You think you are right on everything, and oftentimes you are unteachable. You are a very poor listener.

The 'Tight-Fisted Christian' – You take-take-take, but never give, or if you do, you do it on a miniscule scale (whatever you can get away with to tick the box) and always grudgingly. You have no interest in supporting your local church, a ministry or missionary. You're just a parasite living off others, and lack the Christian love and charity spoken of in the word of God. Your money is your 'god' and no one is to touch that idol. You never 'offer' you just TAKE. This kind of Christian is fruitless in their Christian life. They hardly ever change.

The 'Moaning and Complaining Christian' – They moan about everything, mostly behind peoples back. They gossip and always talk negatively. They also produce very little fruit in their Christian walk. Nothing is ever right for them. They always know what is best, yet they cause themselves problem after problem. Their life is never easy, and usually full of problems... mostly self-inflicted. Life is always 'hard work' with this kind of Christian.

The 'Lazy Christian' – They cause problems among those who are hard workers. Every church has one or two. They will look to get out of any kind of responsibility. They never volunteer or offer any help to anyone.

The 'Unteachable Christian' – They never listen; they never change. They know 'everything' and get stuck in a rut but just can't see it. They produce very little. They are oftentimes envious of those that do. They don't take criticism at all well, but love to give it all the time to everyone else. Pride is their problem, although they can't see it and will never admit it.

Christians who 'don't keep their word' – they are just 'talkers', always promising things but they never deliver. No one really takes them seriously (although they can't see it), because the brutal reality is, they are liars. These Christians are a waste of time getting to know as friends, as they will always let you down and disappoint you.

The 'Quitting Christian' – they start something, then they quit, then they start something else, and then they quit. Their whole life goes on like this. They rarely ever establish themselves or have any kind of ministry that lasts. They never give things a chance. When persecution or tribulation comes, they quit, and then they run and hide for a while before resurfacing again at a later date. They find it very hard to make friends and stick with them. They are usually overly sensitive and get offended and hurt easily. They never commit to anything seriously, and will always let you down. They oftentimes can't see their own faults and will blame everyone else for the way things turn out for them.

The 'Drifting Christian' – they drift through life with very little goals or purpose. Each day they 'drift', and never really settle down whether it's in a church or just in their own Christian life and walk. When they look back on their life, they realise that they didn't do much for the Lord and often feel guilty and ashamed. They don't seem to change at 'the end' either and often don't finish well.

'Blind Christians' – These just can't see the problems in their own lives and the problems they are causing in those around them. Even if things are pointed out to them, for some reason, they just can't see it within themselves. They also can't see the 'needs' of other people because they are so wrapped up in themselves.

The 'So-Called Super-Spiritual Christian' – these are just a joke. Give me 10 minutes with them and I'll show you how 'super' they really are. When their guard is dropped, or when pertinent questions are asked, they fold and crumble and oftentimes cannot take any kind of convicting truth as they just can't cope with 'constructive' criticism, as they think they have got it right. They will no doubt leave your church. They hardly ever apologise due to their ego, arrogance, and pride. No church is spiritual enough for this type of Christian. Some of them will make up every excuse they can find of why they do not attend a local church. They become isolated and lonely and will not try to put their errors right. They are self-righteous hypocrites on the whole, while pretending to be some sort of 'holy saint' you should look up to.

The Christian who 'can't see it from the other persons point of view' – They refuse to even try! Why is that? You know, I know, and the Lord knows. It's their way or no way. They are not 'team players' and will cause problems without a doubt. They have few friends and will cut anyone off who doesn't see it 'their' way.

The Christian who likes to 'Go It Alone' – they can't make friends, refuse to try, and won't 'compromise' on the issue. They will leave church and everyone, set themselves up on their 'Lonesome Todd', cut everyone off, and just sit staring at a camera making videos on YouTube about how YOU should live...! Total hypocrites of course. They produce hardly anything in life. They morph into many of the other Christian 'types' listed here of course.

I'm sure there are other suggestions you can come up with yourselves. These are just a few thoughts I had while driving down the motorway this week. I could talk about the 'positive selection' of Christians, but that's for another time. It's the 'negative ones' that need dealing with of course. The others are an asset, these types are a hindrance.

Did any of this convict you? If so, what are you going to do about it? The ball is in your court now. Something has been highlighted in your life, maybe a weakness has been spotted in your armoury. Will you seek the Lord to get it sorted, or just move on doing nothing about it?

Some of these types of Christians will 'morph' into another type, and on and on it goes, until they have quite a selection of the above brought into their own character, whether intended or not.

What is hindering your Christian walk? What is detrimental to your Christian life?

I have some of ALL these types of Christians on my mailing list. I have seen some improvement with some of them over the years, and some haven't improved at all. Many have now unsubscribed.

I'm brutally honest with you because I care. Gal 4v16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

'Pope' James White, the Bible 'correcting' wingnut who dresses like lord Bath...

This Bible correcting nut-job just gets funnier. He not only looks a 'little odd', but because he doesn't believe the Bible (he doesn't have one!), he is all over the shop regarding his doctrine. His Calvinism is poisonous, his teaching on prophecy is a joke, and his Bible 'correcting' is satanic. He is certainly in bed with Roman Catholicism through his 'bible versions'. I'm just very thankful that not that many Christians follow him, most find him creepy. When it comes to understanding the Bible, he certainly is a man you cannot trust at all regarding Bible teaching. Stay well clear of this deceiver. Read your King James Bible and ask God to speak to you. White-Wash is a heretic, avoid him at all costs. He now has a sleeve tattoo as he is trying to make friends with the world. Tattoos are certainly NOT for the Christian, neither are piercings, or the cutting of the flesh. Only idiots get tattoos. I know a lot of idiots. Lev 19v28 Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

H.L.Roush Sr – Had good intentions, but some bad doctrine, so beware of him...

Matt asked me about H.L. Roush the other day. I've listened to quite a few of his sermons in the past. Like many Christians, he loved the Lord, and had good intentions. My problem with him is that he was a hyper-dispensationalist, plus he 'corrected' the King James Bible. Ruckman is a much better Bible teacher. Roush is good devotionally, like Tozer, but for strong meat rightly divided, I would beware of him. Just because you like a preacher, or because you think that preacher really loved the Lord and is a 'gentleman', doesn't mean they are right, or 'safe and sound', so be careful WHO you listen to and follow. If you want strong sound doctrine, read and listen to Ruckman and Larkin, as you don't get better than these two Bible teachers. If you want devotional stuff, then yes there are many out there who can fulfil your need.

Notes of a sermon that will hopefully challenge you...

We started off by asking, 'What do you get fed up with?' (What do you?)

As you can imagine, we had a lot of different answers...

The state of this world; the government, the unscriptural laws that are passed; the nonsense of covid and the SCAMdemic over the last two and a half years. Stupid people who don't think, and just believe the latest narrative.

The Laodicean church (the one that puts the 'rights of the people' before the rights of God). What a mess the church is in today.

The Laodicean church is lukewarm, tolerant of 'anything and everything'; 'be what you want' and embrace all 'movements' (they'll take 'anything')... LGBT ISABUNCHOFSCUZZOS!

The Laodicean church today is not interested in the King James Bible, God's word, or what it says (Rom 4v3); it is not interested in doing God's will (Rom 12v1+2) or living a sanctified life, which is the will of God (1 Thes 4v1-7); it is not interested in getting the Gospel out to sinners (Acts 16v10, Rom 1v15, 10v15, 1 Cor 9v16); or preaching and teaching the word (2 Tim 4v2-4).

The Laodicean church is not looking for the Lord's return (Titus 2v13) and does not believe or teach the Pre-Trib Rapture (1 Thes 4v14-18, 1 Cor15v51-53). It doesn't know about, or understand the 'signs of the times' (Mat 16v3 cf. 2 Tim 3v1-7).

It is lukewarm, and wants to please men not God (Gal 1v10, Acts 5v28); it wants to make friends with the world (James 4v4). Due to the fact that the Laodicean church has replaced the word of God, the King James Bible, with a satanic counterfeit (ESV, NIV, NKJV etc.) it has totally lost its way and purpose. It has become inept and unskilled in the word; puerile and ineffective.

There are very few Christians 'sold out' and 'on fire' for the Lord today.

Are you fed up with all this?

Christians are so immature today; if they get upset over the smallest of things they will leave the church (you don't do this in your job!) I don't think any of these kinds of Christians will make this years edition of 'Champions of the Faith' do you?

Anaemic Christians going to anaemic churches, wasting their time and their lives, without realising it.

What else are you fed up with?

How about disunity? - Ps 133v1, Eph 4v3+13, Rom 12v18, 1 Cor 12v25.

The Christian 'community' - what 'community?' What Christians have you fallen out with and what was it over?

Why can't Christians get on? - Acts 15v36-39.

Where is the 'sound doctrine' today? - 2 Tim 4v3, Titus 1v9, Titus 2v1, 2 Tim 2v15.

What about 'pride' - Prov 13v10 - are you fed up with arguing and fighting - 1 Cor 3v3.

What about sin, are you fed up with the sin in your life? Rom 7v14-25.

Does the sin in your life bother you? Do you know how sin is affecting you and those around you? How are you dealing with it?

Are you fed up with people? Work colleagues, friends, family? How are you dealing with this?

Are you fed up with yourself? Are you trying to change? Are you asking the Lord to help you?

Write down the top three things that are most important in your life...

3)

Read Mark 12v30 - are you living out this verse in your life?

You see, most Christians try to 'justify' why they are NOT doing what they should, they have reasons WHY they did or didn't do it... Mat 25v24+25, Luke 16v15. Are you justifying yourself?

Are you fed up with liars? Those that promise yet don't deliver? They don't keep their word? I don't trust those kinds of people.

What else are you fed up with? Cheats, quitters, 'know alls', attention seekers, the 'self-absorbed' (those who are preoccupied with their own feelings, interests, situation, life).

When you have a conversations is it just that, or a monologue? How many times do you ask the person you are talking to, questions? Are you only interested in yourself? Some people hardly ever ask questions, they just talk about themselves all the time.

Are you fed up with apathy?

Fed up with superficial people?

Fed up with ungrateful and unthankful people - Col 3v15.

Go back to Jonah... what kind of guy was he, what were his motives for what he did and why? Are you like him in any way?

What have you been challenged about regarding what you've just read?

If your top three things aren't the following, what does that tell you about your Christian life and your relationship with the Lord...

1) Loving and worshipping Him

2) Living and serving Him

3) Reaching lost sinners with the Gospel

If your three points don't match these, you're not where you should be in your Christian life.

I hope this has got you thinking. Make sure you look up every verse to get what is being said.

Appreciating the simple things in life...

So often life can seem so complicated, and it needn't be, we make it that way. When was the last time you went for a walk? We get so wrapped up in things, activities and 'business', that we forget to stop, think and enjoy what's around us. Maybe today, just stop what you are doing, and go for a walk, thanking God for what He is doing in your life. Look at the creation He has surrounded you by, thank Him for bringing you this far in life. Thank Him for all the meals you have had, all the times He has brought you through illness, trials, and problems. Thank the Lord for all those who have been a help to you this year. If your life is too complicated, maybe it's time to 'declutter' and make some radical changes? Start today.

Time to Regroup! meetings...

They just get better and better praise the Lord. What a great turnout the last one was, thank you Lord. We all benefit from the teaching and the fellowship. These meetings are packed full of Scripture and are 'electric'. If you haven't been to one yet, you really are missing out. The last one we had in 2022 was amazing, especially regarding all the different people that came, 41 in total. It was very moving, emotional, and a great place to be, just allowing the word of God to minister to us. If you don't have a church to go to, this is the place for you. If I was on my own, I'd do all I could to get to these meetings once a month. We all need Christian friends and fellowship in our life. There is no reason why anyone should be facing life alone, it's all about making the right choices. If you haven't got any Christian friends, it's YOUR fault...!

The 'pastor' who is scared to visit me on his own...

I won't mention any names 'Barney Davey-Wavey Baker', but he is very frightened to visit me 'on his own'... I know why, he knows why, and the Lord knows why...! Surely, I'm not that scary am I...? But these Pentecostal nutbars who keep on spouting... 1 John 4v18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. ...don't seem to be living that Scripture do they, especially when they visit me...!? Aren't people funny.

Christmas Eve 'blow-out'...! (Part One)

There we were, on our way to Hay-on-Wye (I go a fishing...! John 21v3), then to Hereford, Tenbury and finishing up at Bridgnorth. We'd even loaded a new box of tracts for the journey. It wasn't to be this time. Forty minutes into the journey we hit a pothole big enough to swallow most cars and the front drivers tyre burst. Then it was a two hour wait for recovery. I said to the team (there were four of us)... "Right, get your pens and paper out, let's see what we can learn from this situation...!" So here is part one, with part two and three to follow from the other members...

- Everything was going so well – plans had been made, prayers 'sent up', and off we went on our adventure.
- Feeling of uncertainty – I had an inkling of uncertainty about it all. I can't put my finger on it, but alas, I should have spoken to the Lord more about it. Maybe this journey shouldn't have been made...!? (Have you made journey's you shouldn't have? Are you about to?)
- The 'blow-out' – I knew once we had hit it, something was wrong. We pulled over next-door to a country pub with a small car park. It was closed. I felt frustrated and disappointed that I couldn't take the team on this adventure, but maybe there was a reason for it. Maybe something more serious and sinister was awaiting us, and this was the Lord stopping us? I don't know, Heaven will reveal it all.
- We walked back to the pothole to take a few photos of it, as we may try to claim off the Herefordshire Council for Roads and Safety.
- Why? We often ask this question don't we. But it happened and there was nothing we could do about it. We were together and we were safe. It was a lovely day, not raining, and we had the warmth and comfort of the car. There were no shops, and a b&b was a five minute walk, so we enquired if we could use their toilet. They agreed and we gave them a gift for their hospitality. The Lord provided for all our immediate needs... thank you Lord.
- We had to sit for over two hours, but had some good conversations, while listening to the birds singing. It was a relaxing time after we'd calmed down.
- Help was on its way. Donna, Dee and Matt all work amazingly together sorting out problems. They did it again here. We were updated by the recovery man, and he arrived. Within fifteen minutes we were back on the road again. He was very helpful. We gave him a gift, a tract pack and a calendar. Was this his day for salvation? Imagine that... what a Christmas present that would be for him and us.
- Damage done – a new front tyre was needed, and this should be sorted in the next four days. We drove back with a space saver fitted.
- Cost and time wasted – after evaluating it all, maybe it was worth happening. We gained a lot from it and were able to rest while waiting. It was also a pleasant drive back home and a profitable time together... a different kind of adventure. We finished up having 'beans on toast' which is a dish I'm sure will be served in Heaven.
- What can we learn by it all... much. I won't steal Donna, Dee, and Matt's thunder, so read parts two, three and four next, to see what they learned by it all.

- One thing that did hit home again, was the fact that we are all hit by external influences and things that affect our lives by others negligence and by them not doing what they should be. It happens all the time, in all sectors of life, from healthcare, business, family situations etc.
- Going through it all with friends – it makes things much easier, you share the burden, and support each other. Everyone stepped up to the plate and did their bit, making it run so smoothly. The team were brilliant as usual. It's so much better going through these situations together, with one another by your side. We all need friends who are faithful, trustworthy, helpful, and supportive. Have you got some?

Christmas Eve 'blow-out'...! (Part two) by Donna

After a lovely evening of Nine Carols and Lessons at St Laurence Church in Ludlow, Friday evening, we arrived home, enjoying chips and a coffee on the way. Travelling through the dark streets with the twinkle lights and walking from the Candlelit church to the car feeling the cold Christmas air, we were reminded of how pretty Ludlow is. Later discussions were had and it was decided we would meet at 8.30am on Christmas Eve and have a ride to Ludlow and or Bridgnorth and make a full day of Christmas Eve. Our lives though very enjoyable are so hectic and we felt as if our feet haven't touched the ground again this week! Our average bed-time over the last couple of weeks has been 3am. So, an early start and a full day was on the horizon, likewise an earlier night... 2.30am. We had made plans (which we often don't, as we are very spontaneous). The alarm was set for 7.45am, and up we got. Meeting in John's study as we do daily, we chatted and prayed that the Lord would guide us to people, would lead us and bless our day. Off on our adventure we went, box full of tracts in the boot. However, our destination changed to Hay on Wye. Stopping at a familiar coffee shop in Bewdley for a Danish and Coffee, to go, we continued driving, chatting, listening to music, appreciating the lovely countryside and sunny morning and then... A pothole changed it all. We hit one pothole and commented how severe it was, to a few minutes later hitting one much worse, causing our dashboard lighting up warning us of our front driver's side tyre. That was it. It was flat! We were going nowhere. We started to talk and reflect upon our day and each of us, made notes, while waiting for assistance to arrive, initial ETA 11.05am, later changed to 11.30am then to 11.50am (however the man did arrive a little earlier and we were on our way at 11.50am after our call was made at 9.44am) So my thoughts are as follows 1) It started so well. 2) We had a plan, but changed direction. Ludlow/Bridgnorth to Hay on Wye, as our first stop. 3) The unexpected and unforeseen happened. 4) What were we saved from, something worse? 5) We prayed, were prepared, but the Lord changed it all. 6) On the spur of the moment our day completely changed. 7) Other people and their workmanship/choices effect our lives. We recently had the incident with the Venetian Blind causing £2300 damage to our car which had just been fixed, and now because of neglect in keeping the roads to a 'standard' our plans were ruined and we need a new tyre. More inconvenience and expense. Travelling home we tried 10 tyre outlets, but none stock our necessary tyre. We all effect each other's lives in different ways for good and bad. What we do and what we say etc. 8) What were we stopped from doing, was it an 'attack'! 9) Following things through. This incident happened to us. I will write a letter to Hereford Council and inform them. We can try and get this resolved and help other people. Try and prevent the same thing happening again. It's important to try and do what's right. 10) We were forced to stop, to wait and to be still. Down a beautiful, peaceful country lane with birds happily singing, the sun shining, trees, sheep and countryside surrounding us, we were safe and together and the Lord even provided a B&B for our toilet needs. We planned a different and adventurous Christmas Eve and we certainly had one. Another one of life's experiences to live and learn by. I was reminded too how it should keep us in check, as to how we respond and deal with situations, when plans don't necessarily go our way.

Christmas Eve 'blow-out'...! (Part three) by Matt

This Christmas Eve, John, Dionne, Donna and I woke up early and we thought we'd spend a day out in Herefordshire. Prior to going out, we made great plans for the day to enjoy our time off together in the English countryside. Little did we know that we were going to have a flat tyre enroute to Hay-on-Wye!

What happened - John was driving down a series of country roads and we saw many large potholes that we avoided. Unfortunately, one pothole was unavoidable, and it caused a quickly deflating puncture in the front right tyre of the car. Here are my thoughts about the incident and how our plans were derailed!

The Unforeseeable nature of life - James 4:14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

So often in life, our best laid plans go to waste. We think that we know best. We think that we can predict and plan ahead and we think that we are in control of our destinies. We are in control of what we do and how we act, but there is so much in life that is beyond our sphere of influence. Did anybody accurately predict the events of 2020 and beyond with the Coronahoax? Amongst all of the top prophecy teachers, conspiracy channels and websites and the rest of these sources of alternative news, I did not find one that accurately warned anybody about what was to come, all the way back before February 2020 and beforehand. We were all taken by surprise. People speculated about "martial law" and these "fema camp" setups being kept under wraps by the government, but nobody accurately predicted just exactly, what was to come (or at least, not to my knowledge!) Likewise with the current energy situation and the rising costs of living. Just as our flat tyre spoiled our Christmas Eve plans, all of these unforeseeable circumstances can crop up and push you down a different path in life that you never thought you'd take. I look at my own life. I never thought I'd be in the position that I am in today, regarding employment and life choices. I would've been the last person to ever say that they were interested in the Bible and the things of God! But 5 years after getting saved, everything has changed for me.

2Co 5:17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

Dealing with the repercussions of sin - We hit the pothole today because someone, somewhere who is responsible for the roads of Herefordshire did not do their job effectively. There were so many of them, and they could've easily proven to be fatal for a motorcyclist.

<https://news.sky.com/story/potholes-uks-roads-like-the-surface-of-the-moon-after-record-rise-in-breakdowns-rac-says-12280646>

The government is responsible for using our tax contributions to fix and repair our infrastructure. And yet, British roads are in terrible shape! They spend our tax revenue on the woke agenda, importing and housing illegal immigrants, abortions, poisonous vaccines, state visits for our leaders to go and see the pope, transgenderism and they spend our taxes on bogus foreign wars that we ought to have no involvement in. We think about our own lives, and the problems that we deal with. We lock our doors at night, because of sinful people. We lock our cars, because of sinful people. We use passwords on our computers, because of sinful people. We wait in a queue at accident and emergency on a Friday night, because of drunken, sinful people. And on and on it goes. All sin is negative, and sin has repercussions that you don't even know about. How many people have suffered because of what you have done, or because of what you have not done? Have you set a terrible example to those who look up to you? Have you caused hurt or harm to people around you, without even realising it?

Ecc 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

Is God trying to get your attention? - When trouble of any kind enters our lives, we often think several things. Am I being chastised? Am I in any known sin, that God is chastising me about? Is this an attack from the devil or his minions? Is this totally my fault? Why has God permitted this thing to happen? Is God trying to teach me something? Is God working to purge me of something? Is God working to build my character? Is God working to purify and refine me? Sometimes, we know exactly why a thing happens, but oftentimes we don't. And today was one of those occasions! Who knows why we had a blowout on Christmas Eve. Were we prevented from getting into further danger? Were we prevented from meeting someone who'd perhaps seek to harm us? We witnessed to two people as a result of the puncture. Firstly, a woman at a local Bed and Breakfast, and secondly to the mobile tyre repair man. The first woman was, from what I could gather, an unsaved "church goer" who sits in the church of England on a Sunday out of tradition. John gave the second man a big pack of gospel tracts and a calendar with KJV scriptures on there. Goodness came from the bad situation! We were sat in a layby totally helpless, until the repair man arrived. Oftentimes in life we find ourselves in situations that only God can fix, and we have to wait upon His timing. This teaches us patience. Also, as a result of the puncture, we had to drive home on a space saver, and as such, we were limited to 50 mph. Was God slowing us down? Do bad things in our lives force us to slow down at times? Does God have to slow us down? As we drove at a slower speed, we noticed more potholes and imperfections on the road surface. Oftentimes we get into trouble because we rush into things in life. Without prayer, without consulting the Lord or His word. The Bible tells us;

Eph 5:15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

How careful are we? Also, as we drove home, we were making slow and steady progress but many cars were overtaking us! We see a similar thing at times in our lives. It seems that many people are doing better than us and are overtaking us. Spiritually, in terms of Christian growth and Bible knowledge and also in terms of business success and material prosperity. We all have a measure of prideful competitiveness within us. If we are on the right road that the Lord wants us to be on, and if we are moving forwards with the Lord, there isn't a problem! We ought to stay on the course that God has set for us, and not to deviate or be discouraged if others are seeming to be getting ahead. We'd do well to mind our own business!

2Co 10:12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

If it's not working 'fix it'...

I know of people who will spend hours, days, weeks and years before making a decision about something. This is not me. If something needs sorting, I'll sort it, with the Lord's help and guidance of course. Procrastination is not a word that is in my vocabulary, whether that is good or bad, I don't know, but I just can't sit on a situation if it needs fixing. This can cause problems I get that, but usually it solves them. People make excuses for both sides of course, being rash and the other side of not doing something for ages. Some husbands take ages to sort something out that their wives have asked them to do, e.g. they need something new for the kitchen etc. Listen, if it makes their life easier, and my life easier, GET IT...! Help each other, if it's broken, 'fix it', do it now...! Don't keep making excuses FIX IT. This is the same kind of principles we have regarding our Christian life. If something is dragging you down, sort it. Heb 12v1 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us... don't let sin get a hold of you... FIX IT...!

Article by Donna...

Don't wait until I'm gone... Death is so deep, so unsearchable to process and so final. I am sure we each have been through this experience along life's journey, and each have carried our loss, and all that entails, in different ways to help get us through. For some death brings relief, and this can be in varying forms. Relief from unbearable physical pain, relief from restricted living and hospital appointments and treatment, relief from a long illness, relief from the pressures of life; family issues, financial pressures, fitting in and experiencing a sense of belonging, relief from daily sadness and struggles, even relief for those who may have looked after a relative for many years, day in, day out, or relief to see someone taken who could or had been causing fear and turmoil in one's life. Death also brings with it, an extremely difficult emotion to deal with and control, which is loneliness. An emotion we can all feel at times. To lose the closest person to us, family member or friend or even our pet. No-one can replace the longing to be with, to see, to hold, to talk to and share life's experiences with. No-one. Not when the person who has passed away was our very best friend. The person we could be most natural with. Who understood us better than anyone else. The one in whom we drew our strength and courage from. The one in whom we could rely on and find security in. The one who was always there at the end of the day and first thing in the morning. The one who was by our side when things were going well, and life was so good and the one who was there to wipe away a tear and bring hope when a difficult situation arose. The one where oftentimes words were not necessary, just to be together and enjoy each other's company. Death leaves us with memories, numerous of which are of happy times and experiences of special moments and seasons within our lives, but along with those happy and joyous memories, there comes regret. Another very powerful emotion we all experience. How many of us have lost a loved one unexpectedly, taken so quickly when everything appeared okay on the outside? How many of us have not made it to a bedside for those closing moments of life before the final breath was taken? How many of us have received the dreaded phone call informing us of an accident or fatality completely 'out of the blue?' No time to prepare, no last words spoken, no time for apologies or forgiveness or for those words we so longed to say while alive, but never did. We realise another end of a chapter in our life has just happened, and the ending was not our choosing, though sadly and quite possibly, our doing. Nothing can be done after death. It's irreversible. What a sobering thought. Nothing can be spoken to put a situation right, nothing unfinished can be dealt with and closed, nothing can be uttered and heard. It's final. Isn't it interesting, almost strange if that's the right word to use, that at funerals we hear relatives, friends, colleagues, and neighbours give a short speech of how they felt about the person deceased. How that person had influenced them and been an important part, figure, or mentor in their life. How missed that person would be. How they appreciated their company. We can also often hear of characteristics and find out things that we never personally knew about the person. The sacrifices made, the upbringing, the unspoken difficulties and battles that person daily faced and the burdens carried. This making us reflect on how we had impacted, for better or worse, into that person's life. Much is said after death. Much is often revealed after death. Don't wait until I'm gone. It's too late then. If you have something to say to someone, say it. If you need to put something right, do it. If you need forgiveness or need to forgive, seek it, and action it now. If you could help or assist someone, do it. If you could bear a burden and make someone's load lighter, bear it. If you could talk to someone and be open about your death experience and how it affected and still affects your life, and how you deal with the loneliness, emptiness, huge void that has been left, the regrets and the many other emotions you continue to experience, talk! If you could be a friend to someone, open-up, make the first move. Be approachable, be willing, show kindness. Describing friendships is quite something; often they can be rewarding, and cause emotions of happiness, joy, contentment, understanding and belonging; likewise, they can be frustrating, hurtful, inconsistent, hard work, tiresome and the list goes on. Whatever or wherever you fit in, you need friends. Do your part. Put the effort in. No-one can go-it-alone however they appear on the outside. We need each other. For any friendship to grow, blossom and develop, honesty must be at the centre and remembering to look at a situation from the other persons point of view. Learn to give in, to bend, to adjust and change. Don't wait until I'm gone. Today you have life, an incredible gift. You don't know how long you have left on this earth, none of us do. How you live is so important. What you say, how you say it, how you treat others, how you care or don't care, how you sacrifice, how you share in whatever form that may be, how you respond to others, how you listen or don't listen, etc. etc. If you are in good health, have your faculties and are not in any way restricted or experiencing any difficulties at present, you are in a great state and should be very thankful. Do not take your health for granted and try and be more considerate to those who daily battle with extreme pain, are immobile, struggle with debilitating health and a chronic disease. Consider, when you experience pain in some way, how long does it last for? Does it go away after an hour, a day? How would you cope if day in, day out, your pain never went away. Every task taking so much effort, so much bravery, so much determination. One task completed and on to the next. As Christians, we are 'fearfully' accountable. Each motive known by the Lord. Each word and action, each thought. Our lives are being watched by our Creator, Saviour and Best Friend and by those around us, our families, friends and especially our enemies! This is sobering. Do we really take note of the Scriptures and all the verses we read and hear preached to us? Do we change in accordance with the examples of those we read about in the Bible? Do we act upon its guidelines, instructions and the warnings given? Do we adhere to God's word? Do we believe it and I dare to say, do we personally read it? Do we take our Christian life seriously? Does it matter to us, as much as our secular employment, our family, our reputation? Do we appreciate what we have and the daily benefits and blessings we experience and enjoy. Don't ever take anything or anyone for granted. Don't ever be ungrateful and try your hardest not to be selfish always thinking what you want and need, how you should be dealt with, how life should revolve around your desires. Learn to be content and don't be carnal in your daily living and thought life. We're not here for long. Prepare for eternity, for meeting the Lord. And if you have something to say, to profit, to make a difference, to put something right, to change a situation, to live out a Scripture – say and do it now... Don't wait until I'm gone... This is something I'm sure we can each address in our own lives, while we have today. We know death is so final, but of course we understand as Christians it is a temporary parting. So easy to say and to write, so incredibly painful and unexplainable to live with however long or short that temporary parting may be. Hours seem like days, days like months and life just goes on...! Everyone around us seeming joyous and experiencing good times, while we feel our life has been shattered, destroyed, finished! Keep talking to the Lord and sharing your heart with Him, tell Him everything; your disappointments, failures, pain, sorrow, struggles and uncertainties, and don't neglect to thank Him too; for always being there, for understanding, for listening, for His word and the comfort of the Scriptures and for the peace and hope we have to walk through our earthly pilgrimage, before entering our eternal home where everything will be absolutely perfect. 1 Corinthians 15v26 – The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. Thank you Lord.

(My comments - This is one of the sincerest articles I've ever read, and because of it, we have produced a booklet together called 'Don't wait until I'm gone...' It is aimed at all those who have lost loved ones.)

New booklet 'Are Roman Catholics Christians?'

Well, we finally made it, and Pete from Printbridge did a fantastic job for us as usual. They are only 39p each and we printed 3,000 copies A5 size. Give one to every Roman Catholic you know, and post one through every Roman Catholic Church you can find. It is also a useful booklet for every Christian to read, as it gives you a lot of information regarding what they believe etc. Thank you to everyone who took part in this project, whether it was proof reading, sending a gift to help cover costs, or prayer support, it all helped so much. I am very thankful to the Lord for giving us the opportunity to produce another booklet to help get the truth out. Some Christians have been very supportive in this project, like others we have undertaken. There aren't many Christians these days who are even interested in getting tracts, books, Bibles and other Christian literature out there to the lost souls of this world, so we really do appreciate all of you who stand with us and support us in this work.

Since writing this article, hundreds of these booklets have been ordered and distributed which is really encouraging. If you know anyone who has anything to do with Roman Catholicism, give them this booklet... and pray they get saved. Every Christian should read this booklet to see where the Catholics deviate from the Holy Scriptures.

St Laurence Church Ludlow - Carol Service

This is the fourth time we have been to their carol service. Pre-covid, they read all Scripture from the King James Bible, but sadly it wasn't this time, which made a huge difference. The service was again very enjoyable, especially the carols. Hundreds of people gathered, but alas, no Gospel message preached, and another opportunity lost.

Trying something different?

It's so easy getting stuck in a rut. Are you actively seeking the Lord's will in your life? If so, ask Him to help you get out of the rut you're in and step out into something new maybe? What does the Lord want? Now could be the time for you to try something new, a new job, ministry, or new church etc.? If you are not enjoying life, make some radical changes and get out of the rut you are in, even if it means moving. Find out where the Lord wants you and get there. Ps 37v5 Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. Prov 16v3 Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established. Phil 4v6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Make the most out of every day. Don't waste time, use it wisely. Make sure you are living in the will of God, as this is where you will find total peace, contentment and satisfaction.

Well Donna is now 'in print' and this is her new booklet... Don't wait until I'm gone...

We hope and pray that it will touch many lives. It is targeted at those who have lost loved ones, also babies and young children. If you know of anyone who is going through bereavement at the moment, give them a copy of this booklet. I would also post a few through funeral directors and undertakers in your town.

Donna is a deep little thinker, and her booklet is very well written, and straight from the heart. I hope many will take comfort from these words and the Lord will use it to bring souls to Him. Have you read it yet? It is also in a PDF format on our website which you can download and send via the link, especially to those who have social media sites. Please use it as the Lord leads.

It's the first time Donna and I have written a booklet together... very romantic.

Well, here is ol' Charlie, and a new tract with his ugly mush protruding from it...

What, with the coronation on 6th May 2023, these tracts are a great way of getting the Gospel into lost people's hands. They are only 2p each, so for just £5 you get 250 tracts...! How about that for a deal. They are also perfect for posting in cards and envelopes to your family, friends and work colleagues, use them everywhere. Leave them in cafes; bus-stops, doctor's surgeries, dentists, council offices... anywhere and everywhere.

The world will love the presentation of the tract at first... until they read the Gospel message on the back of course. But, we hope and pray that many will get saved through it.

'AS IF...!!!' Don't get sucked in by these charlatans...!

Daniel Kolenda is a missionary evangelist whose ministry is marked by signs, wonders, miracles, and a multitude of salvations. He has led more than twenty-two million people to Christ face to face through massive open-air evangelistic campaigns in some of the most dangerous, difficult, and remote locations on earth.

Just like his predecessor 'Bonkers-Bonke', these 'signs and wonders' boys, are just that, 'boys who are BONKERS!!!' They haven't grown up, they are feeding on the milk of the word rather than strong meat (Heb 5v12-14), that's why they haven't got a clue about life, the Bible or doctrine.

There isn't a Pentecostal I know who can rightly divide the Scriptures when it comes to tongues, signs, wonders, and healing. 'Signs and wonders' are NOT for today no matter what you believe. This guy is just another charlatan... watch out for your money, as that's what they're after.

The Local Church is NOT for 'Entertainment'...!

It is NOT a place where you can, or should, show off your talent, whether it be singing or playing an instrument. If you have been 'gifted' in any of these, use your talent for the Lord to bring honour and glory to Him. If you sing or play an instrument seeking the attention, you are wasting your gift and it will mean absolutely NOTHING. All your effort will just be burnt up at the Judgment Seat of Christ. Donna and Dee told me they get nervous when they sing. I replied by saying that you are NOT singing to impress anyone; it doesn't matter what anyone thinks or says, you are singing to the Lord to bring honour and glory to Him. This helped them a little. You see, when I speak, preach or teach, I do it for the Lord. My flesh loves praise, but the spiritual man desires to love and worship the Lord in all that I do, and as long as my Lord Jesus Christ is pleased, I couldn't give a 'flip' what anyone 'thinks'... as I'm NOT trying to impress anyone or win anyone as a fan. I want to be genuine and honest in my ministry, not seeking the approval of those that listen. It's not a game, and it's not a show. We shall all get judged for what we have done and what we haven't done for the Lord. All our motives will be scrutinized and anything and everything that brings honour and glory to the Lord will get rewarded. DON'T seek praise, and DON'T seek the glory in anything. Just keep thanking the Lord and praising Him for using you and allowing you to serve Him.

Carol Service Gospel Message – Saturday 17th December 2022

Christmas time... we sing about the Lord Jesus Christ leaving Heaven to come to earth as a man, being born of a virgin.

But for what?

Why did He come?

The whole world lieth in wickedness, we are all sinners according to the Bible and we all need our sins forgiven.

Have you asked Jesus Christ to forgive your sins yet?

If Heaven is a real place, and I believe it is... if Hell is a real place, and I believe it is... how do you know which one you are going to?

Now, according to the Bible, you don't have to DO ANYTHING to go to Hell. Think about that. Just stay the way you are, live the way you are... and bang... you die... you go to Hell.

WOW!!!

But... to get to Heaven... you have to DO just ONE thing...

Before I tell you what THAT is, let's see what CAN'T get you to Heaven...

- 1) Just believing in God... the Devil believes in God, all the cults and false religions believe in God
- 2) Going to church – that won't save you!
- 3) Being 'good'... there is NOTHING you can do, no matter how good you think you are, that will GET you to Heaven – the 'good' does NOT outweigh the bad
- 4) Doing good works – there are no amount of good works you can do, to GET you to Heaven
- 5) Giving money to charities, sacrificing your time on good causes, helping as many people as you can WON'T GET you to Heaven
- 6) Just because you 'think' and 'believe' you are 'better' than others – that WON'T get you to Heaven.
- 7) Being baptised or christened WON'T get you to Heaven

You have to be PERFECT to get to Heaven... and NONE OF US are perfect.

So, that is why Jesus Christ came... because He IS perfect, and lived a perfect life.

Jesus Christ took all your sins and died in YOUR place.

He became your substitute.

He died for you, He was judged in your place, went to Hell for you, and rose from the dead FOR YOU.

The blood He shed can wash all your sins away and get you to Heaven IF... IF... IF... you believe what He did for you, and you put your faith and trust in the work that He did FOR YOU. He has DONE it all... you've just got to BELIEVE and TRUST in Him. I asked Jesus Christ to forgive me of all my sins on May 4th 1989 – He changed my life, and now I try to live for the Lord in all that I do... in my business, in my everyday life, in my family, in my ministry and in church life... everything. I ask the Lord Jesus Christ to guide me in all the decisions I make in life.

If Jesus Christ is at the helm of your life, He'll guide you through it. If you are trying to navigate your own path through life (without the Lord), you'll make so many poor and bad decisions, even though you may think they are 'good'. There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. Prov 14v12. That's why some of you are really struggling to know what is right in life, and some of you maybe in some bad situations because of the choices you have made, not involving the Lord.

You could change that tonight... RIGHT NOW where you are sitting, you could call upon the Lord Jesus Christ to forgive all your sins and save you, and start living for Him... RIGHT NOW...!

It is the best decision I have ever made.

It's great to enjoy yourself and have fun tonight, but life is hard, it's tough out there... and it soon ends. What you have done with Jesus Christ in your life, will determine WHERE you will spend eternity... Heaven or Hell... and it's YOUR choice. I'm just presenting you with the truth this evening. You can accept it and receive everlasting life... OR... you can reject the word of God, go your own way, and continue on the WRONG path.

Jesus Christ made a way for you to escape Hell and go to Heaven, having all your sins forgiven, but you have got to put your faith and trust in Him... that's YOUR part of the deal... He's done His part... when He cried with a loud voice from the Cross... IT IS FINISHED...! (John 19v30)

He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. 1 John 5v12

John 3v16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. John 3v36

You are loved here tonight, by the Lord ultimately... and people care enough for you to tell you the truth... what you do with THE TRUTH... is up to you.

If you have a Christian in your family, the most important thing to them this evening, is that you get saved, you receive the forgiveness of all your sins through Jesus Christ, so that when you die, you will go to Heaven with THAT Christian in your family, whether it be your wife, husband, child or relative... they want you to become a Christian more than anything else this Christmas.

So, will you?

You will either walk out of those doors tonight a Christian, with all your sins forgiven... OR...

You will walk out of those doors tonight, rejecting Jesus Christ as your Saviour, taking your sins with you, and continuing on the road that will eventually lead you to Hell.

Think about that as you leave this building tonight.

Life is short
Death is sure
Sin the curse
Christ the cure

I urge you right now to ask Jesus Christ to forgive you of all your sins and become a Christian this evening. Will you? Have you?

If so, let me know afterwards and we can talk.

If you have become a Christian tonight, I will also give you a free copy of my book 'The Christian Soldier's Battle Notes', which will help you on your journey.

How do you deal with 'being offended?'

Do you run away and hide? Do you seek a new church. When someone offends you, 'HOW' do you deal with it? Most Christians, especially the 'King-James-Only-Dispensational-Pre-Trib-Street-Preaching' crowd, act like children, and DON'T DO what the King James Bible says...! Why is that? How come they can't forgive, forget, and not keep grudges? Why is that? I've had 'bust-ups' with my team on many occasions, but we work it out, and stay together... we're family. You've got to work at relationships, and if you find a good friend where you have some depth, make sure you protect what you have and don't just run away from each other when a bad time hits. Think of all those who have left The Oaks Church, where are they now, what are they doing? What fruit are they bearing? Ask them if you see them. They got offended and ran away. Some of them went straight into some doctrinal error because they started listening to the wrong Bible teachers. When you are in a local Bible Believing Church, you look out for each other, you protect the sheep from heretics and wolves, and those who would fleece them and use them. But if you leave the sheepfold and seek other pastures, oftentimes, you'll find that the grass is certainly NOT greener. If you are in a church that preaches and teaches the King James Bible and is sound in doctrine, STAY THERE, no matter IF and WHEN you get offended... grow up and get over it.

Childhood memories...

Have you got some lovely ones? If so, what comes to mind? Any stories that make you smile? Every childhood should be a wonderful time, but sadly for many, it isn't. Can you remember when you first heard about the Lord Jesus? I wonder how old most people are before they hear about the Creator, and how Jesus Christ came to earth to die for us? Every parent should be talking to and teaching their children the Bible, how else will they learn about the Lord? I have some lovely memories of my childhood, although I grew up in a very atheistic home. I'm thankful how the Lord rescued me from this atheistic road to Hell and saved me. It's important to teach children the truth, not the lies they are brainwashed with at school. Bring your children up correctly and in the word. Teach them about accountability and punishment for sin.

Bible study...

Are you getting enough? If not, you need to sort this out in your life. We all need to get deeper into the Scriptures, personally on our own, and within the local church. We hold a Bible study on Friday evenings, if you can make it. If more were 'committed' to a mid-week Bible study I'd hold one at The Oaks Church hall, but it wouldn't be feasible if only a handful of people turned up, because we could hold this in a house group. You need to look at your own life and decide whether you are getting enough Bible study or are you starving to death? I would travel miles in the early days looking for Bible studies. I'm prepared to teach if you're prepared to come...! 2 Tim 2v15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. Heb 5v12-14 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil. Who is teaching you the Bible?

The Oaks Carol Service 2022

You just couldn't make this stuff up...! Usually you go to a 'normal' carol service, sing some carols, hear some readings from modern 'bible perversions', have a glass of 'mulled wine' (NOT...!!!) and a mince pie... then you go home... not hearing the Gospel message... that's a typical 'carol service' today...!

Not at The Oaks Church... now hear this, now hear this...

We had one woman tear up one of our tracts (Where are they now?) (which were left on each table) mid-service and tried to set light to it in one of the table candles.

We had a 'pagan' stand up and walk out when the Gospel was preached.

We had one woman 'attack me' (verbally) after the service for about five minutes... she soon realised that I wasn't like her husband...!!!!!!

We had different people (elderly mainly) moan and shout out because they weren't getting 'seen' during the quiz questions (which turned out to be great fun in the end I hasten to add...!)

We had a Roman Catholic family get so challenged, that the mother wants to come to The Oaks Church to learn the Bible...! The kids loved the church and wanted to come back.

We had two emails from the 'pyromaniac' saying that she has burnt all of our literature in her fire-bowl... and spouted that we were a cult and not 'Christian', as God wouldn't send people to Hell for just committing a few sins. She kept telling me she was a nurse for children with cancer and such a 'good' person who will go to Heaven... after admitting that she 'lied' and

'stole', not to mention her 'gluttony' (There ain't no way that her husband carried THAT over the threshold...!!!)

It was wild man... and what a night...!

Over 30 people dropped out with illness which was disappointing, but 56 turned up on a freezing cold night which was very encouraging. It snowed the next day.

The meeting lasted two and a half hours and everyone loved it... well nearly everyone.

The carols, special songs, all the readings from different people, were great... (hopefully I'll upload some of these soon... I'll have to 'edit' as I left the mic. on and you'll hear me attacking, mocking and exposing, and ridiculing many... all in jest of course...! NO to your next question...!); we also had a singing competition for each table, which was great fun, even though one table was so bad I had to cut them short...!!! (I won't mention any names, but they came from Cheltenham...!!!)

People started turning up at 6.10pm, some came late, and some left as late as 10.45pm...! We got to bed at 2.00am, and were back in the church at 9.00am the next morning to clear everything up, and load all the chairs to take home. It was hard work but worth it.

We hit everyone with the Gospel twice, one at the beginning (Matt, who did an excellent job) and one at the end.

The whole evening couldn't have gone any better and we were so thankful to the Lord for everything. All the above helped 'make it'...!

Donna and Dee led all the carol singing on the microphone, with a new member to the singing team join them... well done Jo...!

We had loads of quiz questions, games for the kids, anagrams, find as many words in the word 'indescribable' (There's 1,500+...!!!), hunt the 'stickers' and more. Everyone got involved.

We had people travel in from a distance, who are actively involved in distributing our tracts in their areas, which was very encouraging, putting a face to the name.

Overall, it was a wonderful night, and we just keep thanking the Lord for the way it all went, and ran so smoothly.

Here are some photos... Thanks to all the Oaks team who helped on this night.

We've had some great feedback from those who attended The Oaks Church Carol Service. It was a fun packed evening but with a very serious punchy Gospel message.

Do you get fed up with certain Christians?

Every church has em...! Maybe you're one of em...? Are you inconsistent, moody, you promise things but don't deliver, you give up too easily, you aren't very committed, you are antagonistic, very opinionated, you make poor choices, and on and on it goes. How do you deal with people like this? My advice... 'back off' to start with, and let them go if they aren't listening. Give them over to the Lord to deal with and 'cut ties' if need be. Don't waste your time on 'time wasters', 'attention seekers' and the 'proud'.

If the Lord is guiding you through life, it will all work out, if you are trying to 'do it yourself', expect problems. Do you need to start the year by making some big changes, if so, make sure you have sought the Lord on it.

Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin. James 4v17

Too 'legalistic'? Too 'dogmatic'?

I've been 'dealing' with Christians for over 33 years now, from all walks of life, from different ends of the spectrum, and believe you me, SOME are DEFINITELY ON 'the spectrum'. Some Christians think spirituality is based on their 'legalistic' approach to everything. They are dogmatic, so much so, that they want nothing to do with Christmas, 'you can't buy anything on the Sabbath' (although they mean Sunday...!!!!), or, 'you can't have any kind of fun' and on and on their legalism goes. THEY have got it all right in their lives; their wives are 'beaten into submission' (or NOT... and I speak 'metaphorically' (is that the right word in context?))... you get where I'm coming from. Some Christians won't buy on a Sunday to show how spiritual they are, but then become the biggest hypocrites when they go on holiday...! Capiche? Some Christians won't listen to worldly music, only hymns, but then watch 'worldly' films (18+)... everyone has their 'compromises' (deceit and lies), pretending to be someone they're not. I've seen it so many times, played the game so many times. I've seen some of the most doctrinal Christians, who can rightly divide the Scriptures, become the most arrogant, insensitive JERKS you ever laid eyes on. They are some of the most uncaring, unthankful, selfish, intolerant bigots you have ever met, yet they proclaim to be King James Bible Believers. Some of them don't know how to apologise or how to forgive, they don't obey those parts of the Bible... but they know all about Daniel's 70th Week. Don't con me, I've dealt with these jackasses on a regular basis. One guy from Scotland, who thinks he's 'the man' because he's good on Bible numerics, is such an arrogant nut, he's already been 'shelved', he's just too DUMB to see it. He'll accomplish very little for the Lord because of his proud attitude. He thinks he's something (Gal 6v3), when in reality, he's a pleb. I've had KJV ONLY Christians attack me for selling Christmas cards, plus a whole host of other 'things' I do... or don't do...! I love to respond to these arrogant 'know-all's' with a few home truths, and watch their Christian countenance suddenly become like one of the possessed pigs of the Gergesenes, squealing and snorting like you wouldn't believe. (Mat 8). Stop trying to be someone you're not...! Pastors, elders, deacons, preachers and teachers, all love their 'titles' (Job 32v21+22) and are such actors at times. I respect honesty, genuineness, frankness, and humility. Some of the most legalistic Christians I know, are the 'deadest', most boring, 'fruitless', puerile, ineffective, proud people I've ever met. They don't, and won't change, but they want YOU to conform to what they think is right. When you reject their shallow ideas and advice, they hit the skids, and their schizophrenia will rue the day...! If you're going to try to push your legalistic claptrap ideals onto me fella, expect some 'dung' to 'hit the fan'. (Phil 3v8). I've said it numerous times, Time for Truth! NEWS helps keep the turkeys' heads down beneath the parapet... if not, I'll blow it clean off, and they'll read their own obituary in the next issue...!

Recent Changes and things I have learned... by Matt

I've been coming to the Oaks church for over four years now, and I've certainly seen a lot of changes. Changes in Christians, in the church, in the world and amongst the unsaved.

It's undeniable, that we are living in the closing days of the church age. We've seen deception like we've never known before, we're seeing a total lukewarmness and apathy amongst the churches of England, who for the most part have done absolutely nothing to stand against the evil of the corona-hoax and now, we're witnessing average people being pushed into desperation because of the unrestricted price rises across all areas. Heating, electricity, food bills, groceries, rents, mortgages and all of the rest of it.

The question is, when will this all end?

For those who are saved and read the Bible, we ought not to be living like the lost world. We are anticipating the Lord's return very soon indeed, and our priority ought to be on getting ready to meet Him, and not on long term planning to settle down in this world! Don't get sucked into the long-term view of the world. Thank the Lord if you make it through another day!

And as the world falls apart, we see the increasing urgency of the gospel. Christian voices are being silenced all over the world as the censorship ramps up. We've seen the latest batch of statistics come out for the UK, and the majority of people in this country are atheists or practicing heathens. We are seeing many drop dead suddenly (watch 'Died Suddenly' on Rumble) and we understand that the majority of people are headed to hell after death, without ever having had their sins forgiven by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Amongst the unsaved people that we've had dealings with recently, there seems to be two main camps of people that we deal with.

1. The people of the world who are totally sucked into the present brainwashing. Be it on the media's coverage of the Ukraine conflict, the Corona-hoax and the jabs, the pro-woke crowd who supports every oppressed LGBTQXYZ minority under the sun except the rights of "normal" people, the media's coverage of the so-called "climate crisis" and the media's coverage of British and American political affairs and so on. "If it's on the TV, it must be true" is the religious mantra of this group of people, and these people make up the majority of people that we deal with on a day-to-day basis.
2. The "awake" crowd, who have a measure of discernment to understand that we are in the middle of something very sinister indeed. This group of unsaved people understand that there is a very sinister plot behind the jabs, the tyrannical measures, the orchestrated destruction of the middle class and wealth and the introduction of serious financial pressures on all citizens. This group rightly questions the motives behind key public figures, including

Gates, Fauci, Schwab and all of the rest of them, and this group is rightfully critical of public organisations such as the World Economic Forum and the World Health Organisation, and their active role in current events. This group of people will have a general awareness of the secret societies including the various masonic orders, skull and bones, the Bilderbergs, the Rockefellers, Rothschilds, the Jesuits and the Illuminati. You will have seen this group at the various Freedom marches of 2020 and 2021 that took place, all around the world.

It's very frustrating, as the majority of professing Christians seem to belong to the first camp!

But there is a truth that unites both camps of people. And that truth is this; without the Lord Jesus Christ, all of these people are going to die in their sins and be faced with the record of every sinful word, thought and deed at the Great White Throne Judgment. Without the Lord, these people have no foundation, and they are "tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine". Without the Lord, the lake of fire will be their eternal destination.

As Christians, we find both our constant security and our sure foundation to be present in the Lord Jesus Christ. We ought not to be "tossed to and fro" with every new wave of media hysteria. We ought to remain firm, solid, and unmovable in our faith. People ought to be able to lean on us, as we seek to minister to the needs of those around us.

The question we ought to be asking ourselves in the last days, is this. How do we reach both camps of people? How do we get these people to "awake to righteousness"?

1Co 9:22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

At Time for Truth!, the main thrust of the ministry is the gospel message. In tract form, predominantly, but the Lord has opened several doors to us this year, whereby many unsaved people have been able to sit under the word of God and be convicted of their need to repent and be born again!

Catering to the first camp of people, we've had our biggest evangelistic meeting ever at our church, as we opened a carol service for the people of Kidderminster. Many people, wanting to just attend a local carol service, ignorant perhaps of the meaning of the words behind the songs of praise that they are singing, were hit hard, with the gospel message.

Their reactions were mixed. Many really enjoyed the service and I had a profitable chat with a Roman Catholic woman in the kitchen. I explained to her the errors of Catholicism, and I urged her to think deeply about the gospel message that she had just heard from John. A woman who said she was a pagan walked out. A man got up and began to swear and curse as the scriptures hit him between the eyes! Another woman tore up a gospel tract and threatened to set a tract on fire over a candle! There was certainly a lot of conviction as the gospel was preached. We hope and pray that there would be much fruit following this meeting, as it has taken months of preparation to put together. We thank the Lord for the open door, and we have been disappointed with churches all over the country that have a captive audience and DO NOT preach the gospel to the people. What sin!

1Co 9:16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

Catering to the second camp of people, the Lord opened a door for John to preach the gospel at a conspiracy conference in Stroud, Gloucestershire. Just under 70 people were in the crowd, who loved to talk about 9/11, the moon landings, 5G, UFO's and all the rest of it, and these people got the gospel message, and who knows how that seed of the word of God will be watered, in the days to come. Once again, the Lord was at work, convicting sinners of their condition, and their need for the Saviour. As John preached the word of God to this crowd, around 7 people got up and walked out. Many got up after the message to shout at John and argue with him. The sword of the Spirit cut them deeply!

Isa 55:11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

We Christians ought to be a balanced people. We don't want to be "ignorant of his devices" - that's the devil. We want to have an awareness of what is going on in the world, so we do not get sucked into deception. We also, don't want to get caught up in the fearmongering and the false promises of these charismatic leaders and voices, promising change for the good. We Christians, if we are in our Bibles, ought to be a pessimistic bunch, regarding the world. There is only one way to fix this world, and that is for the Lord Jesus Christ to show up and sort it out, personally.

In the meantime, we are to occupy until he comes, and we ought to ensure that our own lives are in order before His sudden appearing.

Here are some of the lessons from the year, that I've been learning with the Lord's help.

1. Getting the best out of people.

How do you treat others? Do you comfort them? Are you a blessing to be around? Or do you cause problems for others?

Mat 7:12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Do you treat others how you would like to be treated? Are you good at putting yourselves in another person's shoes?

2. Making necessary changes within yourself. Receiving correction. Dealing with criticism.

Psa 119:165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

The Christian life is not for wimps and sissies. The Bible will beat you up. Other Christians will beat you up.

The amount of people who I have seen leave the church because they got offended is shocking.

You've got to learn to take a rebuke, and change. Christians are so defensive, so touchy and so soft. And if the word of God offends you, perhaps that's the Holy Spirit laying a truth upon you and convicting you of your need to change?

3. Honesty and dealing with spiritual fakers.

Christians can be so embarrassing and cringe-worthy at times. Playing at being spiritual in church, and yet their lives are a total disaster because of sin. We're all hypocrites, if you followed the greatest men of God around for a day you'd probably find fault with a few things about them, but we ought to be genuine, sober and down-to-earth people. We're all on a journey with the Lord, and we should strive for purity and godliness. We don't want to offend the Lord by our deeds.

We've seen people who won't turn up to church because they've not been given the limelight that they wanted. Perhaps they wanted to speak, preach, play some music or sing, and it didn't work out that Sunday. What does that say about their motives? Don't be deceived by spiritual fakers.

And lastly, we should be a thankful people. The amount of thankless, cold Christians that I have now personally dealt with over my time in the ministry has again, been shocking. And yet they don't see this within themselves?

4. Christian Balance.

The Christian life is a balancing act. You want a good, balanced diet of scripture and sound preachers and authors who cover a variety of different topics. You want a balance of devotional, doctrinal and prophetic studies to feed on, if you want to grow. And not only that, but you need to be putting into practice what you are learning and picking up each day, as you read and study. You don't want to become an "arm chair" Christian, a spectator Christian, a watcher Christian, who always sits on the sidelines. A Christian who never goes out and does anything for the Lord. On the contrary, you don't want to be so busy for the Lord that you are neglecting the word of God and prayer. We should strive for balance. Perhaps you are too much into the prophetic and sensational things? Perhaps you are too much into the conspiratorial side of things? The mysterious things? Perhaps you need a more balanced diet. We all need to "watch what we eat" and we need to ensure that we are balanced believers. Evangelistic, ministering to each other, and studied up enough on our doctrines to refute the lies and discern between truth and error. And the Lord must be at the centre of everything.

5. The unsaved and their reactions.

Seeing many unsaved people receive the gospel message for the first time, this year has been a real eye-opener, and seeing how they respond to the gospel has been even more interesting. We have some people who have gotten irate, and stormed out of the room. We've received many attacks. People anonymously emailing and making threats to John about one of his gospel tracts. They leave anonymous voicemails threatening us, but they never leave their name or number! These people are gutless cowards. On the other hand, we've seen the word of God convict many, and a woman who recently started coming to our Sunday meetings confessed that "for the first time in her life, she knew that she was lost". This was incredible to hear, and we're thankful for results such as these. One of the most surprising reactions that I have seen is where people just seem to sit on the fence when they hear the gospel message. They are neither hot nor cold, they are lukewarm! Numb! Perhaps desensitised by the things of the world, to a point where not even a sermon on hell itself can move them! There is a coldness about people today, that didn't seem to be present in people in years gone by. It certainly shows the state of our world! John recently warned a group about the dangers of becoming "gospel hardened". Where you continue to reject the gospel, over and over and over again, and you harden your heart towards the Lord. We are all at the mercy of God. Listen to Jonathan Edward's sermon, "Sinners in the hands of an Angry God" for some more insight on this.

6. Liars and deceivers.

Be careful, always. And trust no one! If a man says "the Bible says..." check him out! Read it in your Bible for yourself, and make sure that verse or passage is being quoted in context! It has been said many times that you can make the Bible teach anything you want it to teach, if you pull a verse out of context. So be careful. The scriptures ought to be your final authority. And we've had to deal with many liars and deceivers this year. People will lie right to your face. I had a man recently do this to me this summer, when he bumped his car door into mine in a car park, and I caught him as he did it! He knew he'd been caught, but he just kept on lying and swearing, as if that was going to help his situation? This is another sign of the times. People, even Christians, will lie and not think anything of it? I've been lied to, by many a Christian at this point. People lie to us in business, many a time, and we've caught them out for doing it. The Lord has taken care of us at every turn. We've had liars try to deceive us with our web shop. People try it on, all the time! Asking us to dispatch items which they'll never pay for. And these are supposed to be "King James Only, Dispensational, Pre-Trib" Christians! Watch your step. Trust no one.

7. A general cooling off, of God's people.

Guard your heart. Stay sober and remain watchful. Many Christians are going back to sleep, now the persecution is letting up. I've noticed this, personally, ever since the lockdowns were lifted. Time to Regroup! for example, used to be much more regularly attended than it is today. And why is that? It's because the persecution seems to have eased off a bit, for now. We've been given our freedoms back (to a degree), and now many Christians, seeing that the world is "back open for business", have gone back to sleep. And those that were stirred up, by this massive outpouring of information on alternative sites such as Rumble and Bitchute, have been paralysed by "analysis paralysis", and without them even realising it, they've been made fruitless through their distraction. They've been taken off the pitch. They're not reading their Bibles enough, they're not doing enough to stop sin in their lives, they're not doing enough to reach the lost, they are not in prayer enough and they are wasting too much time, always looking for “some new thing”. Be careful. Don’t allow yourselves to drift and to be pulled off track.

8. Feeding on the wrong things.

I’ve seen people leave the church this year, because they’ve followed after the teachings of some wicked deceiver. People have been sucked into the “prepper” movement, and now they have turned “post-trib”, believing that a few tins of beans and rice will be enough to bring them through the time of Jacob’s Trouble. As such, they’ve left our church, because we are rightfully “pre-trib” in our eschatology. I’ve seen people take all of their cash out of the bank and store it in a washing basket, because they thought that the entire world banking system was just a few moments away from total collapse!

I’ve seen people down in the dumps, because all they’ve been doing is feeding on the doom and gloom of the world. YouTubers like Jeremiah Babe, Gerald Celente and Gregory Mannerino have been saying that the world financial system was going to collapse every day for the past two years, are still giving out the same message! Vernon Coleman is still sitting in his chair and telling you about how bad it all is, week after week.

These people are not wrong to be pessimistic but they could all have hope, if they’d all receive Christ as their Saviour. You don’t have to perish! This bunch of doomer gloomer YouTubers and Rumlbers, their messages don’t change, and without the Lord or the Bible, these people have got nothing new to say. They have got no hope to offer you.

Stick with The Book, and get your mind fixed on things above. We’ve not got much further to go now.

So, what next for you...?

You’ve read this newsletter, has it challenged you? If so, to do what? What changes are you going to make, and how will this affect your Christian life? Be very careful of following the wrong men, do all you can to check everything out by Scripture. If the person you are following is a Calvinist, a Hyper-Dispensationalist, a Post-Tribber... they will lead you into error, so be very aware of this. Make sure you are actively involved with some sort of ministry and getting the Gospel out where you are. Keep seeking the Lord daily, where He wants you. Don’t waste your time on world pursuits that will just be burnt up at The Judgment Seat of Christ. Make new friends with Bible Believing Christians. Don’t neglect church...! It will only be detrimental to your Christian welfare. Get to as many Bible studies as you can. Don’t quit, give up and lose interest. FIGHT, with all your heart, mind, soul and strength, FIGHT. We haven’t got long left before the Lord returns, make sure you are actively trying to do your part. Have you offered to help others or are you too consumed with yourself and your own problems. Go the extra mile for the Lord and help those around you, not for personal gain. Don’t chase money, but be content with what you have. If you’re not working, seek the Lord to help you find a job, but work, get involved, get active.

Thank you... but ‘I won’t be bought’, remember that...!!!

Personally, I’d like to thank all those who have sent in donations and gifts this last year, all of which have been put into getting the Gospel out. We’ve been able to do more this year because of what YOU have sent in, so thank you for that. We work hard to pay our bills, and do long hours, driving tens of thousands of miles, so anything over and above we earn always helps to pay for Christian literature etc. Thank you for all those who use PayPal to send in donations, and thank you to all those anonymous people who send in gifts via the post etc. We are very blessed to have your prayers and support, especially in this current climate. I must also state this again, ‘I won’t be bought’. Time for Truth! is set up just for that, to tell the truth and preach and teach the truth. I will not compromise our stand because someone is giving a certain amount of money. You give as the Lord leads, and I’ll preach and teach as the Lord leads. If you don’t like it, stop giving... as ‘I will not be bought’. God pays my bills. God brings in the money. If you stand with us, thank you. If you have ulterior motives and agendas regarding your giving... DON’T. Once again, thank you to everyone who stands with us.

Moronic emails from moronic Christians...

They obviously get a lot out of Time for Truth! and don’t unsubscribe. Every week (sometimes daily) I get emails from Christians who, shall we say, are at the shallow end of the gene pool. They always want ME to DO something that they believe. They have their ‘skew-whiff’ pet-doctrines, their little one-string fiddle that they like to play to everyone they meet. Sadly, I’m not very tolerant of these kinds of ‘invertebrates’ who are still yet to ‘evolve’ into a normal human being, although some of them never do. Mostly they are time-wasters, although entertaining, and lack Biblical knowledge, wisdom, discernment, and plenty of understanding. They stand out in a crowd for all the wrong reasons, if you catch my drift. They ‘look like Christians’... Capiche? Some of you do, some of you don’t. Anyway, they usually burst a blood vessel when they receive my response, and run away into the woods, until they have enough courage to come out and have another go, then it’s the same procedure, until finally, they get really offended and disappear into the ether never to be seen again. Having a ministry like we do, will attract many ‘undesirables’ who, even though the Lord loves them, I find very difficult to ‘like’. But, alas, there are plenty out there, and I’m like a magnet to em...! I regret not keeping a log of all the correspondence I’ve had with these nutty Christians from day one, as I could have released a full-blown series entitled... ‘A day in the life of a moron-slayer...!’ One guy I went to school with has written 210 books. I think I would have topped that if I’d have kept all the emails and letters since getting saved in 1989. Life is full of people with no sense or direction who just drift through each day without stopping to think, ‘What on earth am I doing?’ When they finally find Time for Truth! we set them straight.

Stepping out of your comfort zone...

When was the last time you did? How about reading or singing in church, could you do that? What about giving your testimony or even preach? It's good to be 'stretched' every so often, and maybe it will open some doors of opportunity for you. If you don't try, you'll never know, push yourself.

Setting up on your own in business...

It's been 11 years since we set up on our own in business, and it was the best decision we ever made regarding work. I never wanted to, and I always thought it was difficult, it isn't. If we can do it, anyone can. Being your own boss is great, and the flexibility is such a blessing. All you need is to register your company, give it a name, decide what you want to do, sell products, sell services, cleaning, building, gardening, painting and decorating etc. and then get some flyers and business cards made up, and hit the streets offering what you do to the relevant potential clients. I would encourage every Christian to do this IF YOU CAN, especially the way this world is going and how hard it is for Christians in secular employment regarding anti-Christian laws and policies etc. If you have a family and need a fixed income, then yes, it's a risk and maybe now is not the time to start a business. Pray about it before anything, before making any decision. If the Lord isn't in it, DON'T. Working for ourselves has also brought a lot more freedom into our lives regarding what we can do, what we can say and who we want to sell to. I am very thankful to the Lord as to where He has taken JDA and how He has helped us grow the business. We cannot do it without Him. When covid hit, we nearly went under, but thanks be to the Lord and those of you who were such a help, we recovered and were able to continue. 2023 will be a challenging one I believe due to many factors, but we are just trusting in the Lord each day to help us bring in the sales. Oh, and by the way, if you are thinking about setting up your own business, things don't usually happen instantly, it takes time and lots of effort, so be patient. I took on too much the first year, and it was one of the hardest years I ever worked, so don't make the same mistakes that I did. If you have any questions about starting a business, let me know and I'll help you as much as I can, with the little knowledge I have. We are not out to make millions; we don't have pensions, or any other 'money incentives' etc. we take each day as it comes, awaiting the Rapture, and doing what the Lord calls us to do. By doing what we do, we are also able to help others, especially by providing them with free tracts, books and Bibles etc. The business finances the ministry, and any gifts or donations that come in 'over and above' this, just get poured into buying more Christian material. We love what we do, as we can all work together. We are very thankful to the Lord for all His blessings, and we don't take anything for granted, it could all go tomorrow. So, my advice is this, IF, you can work for yourself, try to do it. If it's too risky, don't unless you really believe the Lord is taking you down that road. Don't do anything until you have heard from the Lord whatever happens.

Christians who don't learn...

For some Christians, they get it straight away, others take their time, while some, never seem to learn, even from their mistakes, why is that? Lesson after lesson, problem after problem, contention, and friction on every side, and 'still' they think they are right? You guessed it, 'pride'. It's their downfall each time. They think they are right all the time, it's never their fault, always someone else's. It's amazing to watch, and impossible to get through to them it seems. Then, they always try to push it back on you, when you point something out. They just can't take chastisement, correction or even advice. Their arrogance is astounding. They wonder why they have very few friends, and no one wants to spend time with them, they just can't see it. With some Christians it takes 'repetition'... again and again, until finally, they 'see the problem' and address it. Some, you can't even bring up the problem because they are so overly sensitive that if you did, they would crumble, leave the church and never recover. Man alive... 'people'. Dealing with people is so draining. Every church has 'needy' people, those who demand attention, those who want to air their views without even listening to what has been said. You also get Christians who deny that they even have a problem to deal with can you believe. They refuse to deal with the issue making out it isn't there. We're all different I guess, we all have our strengths and weaknesses, and recognising them, is real wisdom. If only we would all try harder, it would make life so much easier. Lastly, what are you learning about yourself? What are you working on regarding your character? If you're not, that just says it all doesn't it?!

Who tells you about the 'bad bits' of life?

Who warned you about the tough times in life, the big decisions you have to make and how you cope with all the trials? Did you have good parents and teachers warning you and guiding you through life, or did you have to work it all out on your own through the mistakes you made? This is why it is so important to get into the word of God at the earliest possible age, so that you let the Lord guide you through His word in this life. Are you teaching those who are coming up behind you? How are you inputting into other people's lives? Could you do more to help? Have you taken someone under your wing to look after? Are you a good mentor and example to those around you? We have all had different experiences, so we can pass on that knowledge and wisdom to others. We need friends in life. There is nothing sadder than walking through life lonely, yet for some, this is what they do. Oftentimes, it's because they are too proud to ask for help, and they are trying to prove to all those around them that they don't need anybody. These kinds of people always end up isolated, miserable, and bitter. They waste their life running and drifting, without actually doing what the Lord wants them to do. Try to help those around you with advice and support, and encourage them to read the Scriptures asking the Lord to guide them.

Hung up on healing... signs, wonders and tongues?

Mat 24v24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. If you think 'signs, wonders and the 'gifts' of healing' are for today, you don't know your Bible.

Mark 13v22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. Many Christians are deceived and seduced by those who profess to have the 'gift' of healing, tongues, signs and wonders. These people who profess these gifts are either LIARS, self-deluded, or charlatans. Do NOT believe them, do NOT follow them. They don't understand the difference between sign-gifts for Israel, and 'gifts' for the church. They are NOT the same.

John 4v48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. Note, pre-crucifixion and John never had a Bible bound in one cover like you have.

Acts 2v43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. Done by who? Apostolic signs. When the apostles died out, the sign-gifts died out (2 Tim 4v20 ...Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick. 1 Tim 5v23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. Paul couldn't heal them now, why? He was due to depart from this world and the SIGN-gifts were going... 2 Tim 4v6...the time of my departure is at hand.)

Acts 5v12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; signs and wonders were PRE-'Bible'. No one in the New Testament had a copy of the word of God bound in one volume from Gen-Rev, hence why SIGNS followed to 'confirm' the word preached... Mark 16v20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

Acts 14v3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. Signs and wonders were done throughout Scripture, but they were done in the apostolic era and are certainly NOT in operation today. We have the word of God, the Bible instead, a more sure word of prophecy 2 Pet 1v19.

Rom 15v19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Tongues were used in Acts 2, Acts 10 and Acts 19, because UNBELIEVING Jews were present – 1 Cor 1v22 For the Jews require a sign... 1 Cor 14v22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: If you meet anyone who claims to speak in 'tongues' or can do so-called 'healings' DUMP THEM. Don't get fooled by these liars. I wouldn't trust a tongue-speaking NUT for anything.

2 Cor 12v12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. Signs of WHAT?

Heb 2v4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will? They come back into operation during Daniel's 70th Week, and there will also be lying signs and wonders too (2 Thes 2v9). Don't get fooled by these charlatans. Oh, and by the way, you can't commit the 'unpardonable sin' / 'blasphemy of the Holy Ghost' today either...! Don't let these NUTS confuse you.

Acts 6v8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

Acts 14v3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

Acts 2v22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Now read Isa 35v1-10, Mark 16v20, John 3v2, John 12v11, Acts 10v38, John 6v14.

There is a reason you are not healed, and it has nothing to do with your 'lack of faith'. 2 Tim 2v15 Rightly DIVIDE the Scriptures, knowing what verse is aimed at the Jew, Gentile or Christian, otherwise you'll go through life clinging on to something that is not for you.

Matt has started a NEW project...

He is taking our booklet 'Which Bible is THE word of God?' and making it into a video. He has already produced part one and it is up on YouTube. It all takes time, but will be worth it in the end. This booklet clearly shows you that all Bibles are not the same, and gives you evidence that many of them say the complete opposite to each other. Every church in your village, town, and city ought to have one of these booklets posted through their doors. If you are not reading the King James Bible, you are not reading the word of God. The King James Bible is the perfectly preserved 'words' of God for us today. All other 'bibles' are inferior and contain many errors in them. If you have never looked at this subject, it will certainly shock you, once you have compared the verses. When I first found this out, I couldn't sleep properly until I had found the answer. 'It is written' occurs in 80 verses of Scripture.

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Mat 4v4.

What is your biggest worry or concern at present?

How are you dealing with it? Are you talking to the Lord about the situation? Have you talked it over with other Christians? Don't carry it alone, ask for help and prayer if needed. Let's support one another the best we can.

Are you struggling...?

Okay, here we go... I've had a lot of people email me over the last few days saying how they are struggling in their Christian lives, for whatever reason, so let's 'talk' and hopefully 'help' in some way.

- 1) It's all about 'choices' - we all make good and bad choices. Some Christians live very worldly lives, do not seek a close walk with the Lord, and couldn't care 'two hoots' about living a sanctified or holy life in serving Him. They are happy to continue in the sins they are doing, because it feels 'good', and they enjoy their lifestyle. These 'Christians' are a waste of time...! They fulfil nothing, they are unstable, really, deep down, they are 'unhappy', and you will find this type of Christian ALWAYS attacking those Christians who ARE trying to live for Jesus Christ in their daily lives. These 'Christians' are NEVER content, always moaning, and if you are 'on fire for the Lord', my advice would be to stay clear of these lukewarm, puerile, time wasters. As a Christian, knowing what the Lord has done for me, I want to do all I can in return because I love Him so much. I do not understand Christians who are apathetic, and do not seek a close walk with the Lord. These kind of Christians are the sort that would call us Bible Believers a 'cult'...! If YOU are like this, YOU have the problem NOT US...! YOU will stand before Jesus Christ (much sooner than you realise) and answer to Him for the way you have lived. Some of YOU should be shaking in your boots!
- 2) Some of you are having money troubles, you haven't got enough to do what you 'need' to do. I get that, I've 'sailed close to the wind' a few times shall we say. The first thing you need to do is find out, are you in the will of God? Are you living as you should? Do you need to make some radical changes to your life? Then, seek the Lord for the next answer to the problem. What, where, how etc. Is there something else you can do? Is there someone who can help? (Don't let PRIDE stop you... ask for help if you need it.) Do you need to change jobs? I would encourage as many Christians as I can to try to work for themselves. Start off as a 'sole trader' and set up your bank account, and you are half-way there. DON'T be lazy, work. Too many Christians sit back and beg 'hoping' suckers will send them money... this never works. Get up, get out there, and get at em...!!! Running a business, church and ministry, takes up so much time. We work hard to produce what we do looking to the Lord to supply all our needs. Those of you who support us are an added blessing, but we do not rely on anyone other than the Lord and doing His will to pay our bills. If you have family, look after each other. Most families are broken sadly, and many just don't get on. When I was out of work, looking for a job, I took agency work driving, sweeping up in a warehouse, delivering 'white goods', earning £40 a day to help pay our bills. Donna took a job at Littlewoods on the jewellery counter before being diagnosed with Arthritis making her unable to do the intricate detailed jobs. Every Christian should WORK and get dog-tired at the end of the day FOR THE LORD. If you have money issues... start by thinking 'what the next move should be'. Once I wrote a letter including my CV and dropped it into every business on an industrial estate. Through it, I got interviewed that day, got the job in 'telesales' and within two years I was the number one field sales representative in TNT UK... that was God blessing me because I wanted to please Him in everything I did, and I got up, got out there, and got at em...! Fight, don't quit, ask the Lord for help and guidance in everything. These are just a few thoughts.
- 3) Battling sin – who doesn't... we all do. We win some fights and battles, and we lose some, but the actual war has been won by the Lord of course at Calvary. David sinned because he was NOT where he should have been, are you where you SHOULD be? When you are out of the will of God it is a lot easier to sin. If you are not bothered about your sin, you have a REAL PROBLEM, and you're walking on dangerous ground (Read Heb 12). If you are in a situation that is NOT healthy, GET OUT NOW! You then need to start making some good choices to keep you from going back to this 'vomit' (Prov 26v11)... by the way, if you are struggling with sin and didn't look that verse up, you're NOT that bothered about your sin, think about that.
- 4) Problems with your family – tell me about it...! Most Bible Believers I know don't have the blessing of all their family members being Bible Believers. Some of their relatives are atheist, liberal Christians who couldn't give 'two hoots' about lost souls going to Hell... imagine that, you call yourself a Christian, and you KNOW that your relatives are NOT Christians, but you don't do anything about that, and have no desire to get the Gospel to them. Are YOU really a Christian? Do you KNOW what you have been saved from? If you are a Bible Believer, you will realise that people even in your own family, will not see things the same way as you do. YOU want to live for Jesus Christ your Saviour in EVERYTHING, and they don't, they just couldn't care less, because they are liberal, lame Christians, who are doing nothing with their lives. They are convicted by your life and even jealous of it, but pride keeps them from changing. If this is the case, you will always battle with your families, because they just don't understand, and God is not in all their thoughts (Ps 10v4).
- 5) Dealing with time wasters – Today 'pope' Gregory 'died', or should I say, 'flipped his lid', that's two popes dead in a week. Good riddance to both of them. Be careful who you spend time on. If I get a time waster, I deal harshly with them. They don't stay around for long. I 'killed' one 'pope' (Ps 55v21), I take full responsibility for it, and I'll slay every MORON that comes my way, remember, I'm The Moron Slayer...! Don't waste your time with people that will be detrimental to your Christian walk, DUMP THEM! The Lord should come first in everything.

- 6) Knowing when to say NO and stand your ground – If you keep saying yes, you'll cause yourself problems and those around you. There is a time to say NO...! (Ecc 3).
- 7) Dealing with people who just don't listen – Man alive...! What does it take to get through to some people. That's why many 'bad things' happen to so many, the Lord allows it, because He wants your attention as He knows what is best for you; He had to 'break my arm' to get my attention... don't be like me!!!
- 8) When is it right to 'cut someone off' and let go? – If that person is drawing you away from the Lord THEY MUST GO! Friend or family, if the Lord isn't first place, you are wasting your time, your life. I have had to make that choice numerous times in my life... 'they' had to go... the Lord comes first.

What else do you want to talk about, ask etc.? Let me know.

If you have any problems you want to talk about, ask me for an opinion, or just want another opinion, email me. If I can help in anyway great, if not, I'll just be a listening ear, whatever, don't go through things alone, talk.

These last days...

Most Christians who are actually living for the Lord, and there aren't that many to be honest, have had enough of this world and just want to go home. They are anticipating those words 'Come up hither...' anytime now, so am I. I can't wait. I'm excited, nervous at times (when you really think about it), and in total 'awe and wonder'. Going from this normal, mundane at times, life, to Heaven is just exhilarating. The way this world has changed is unbelievable, and I never thought it could become like it has. The joy of living even for the unsaved is not there anymore. They are being constantly bombarded from every angle, instilling fear into every heart and mind. People are living very edgy and unbalanced lives these days. 'Whoever' is controlling it all (John 8v44, 2 Cor 4v4, Rev 12v9, 2 John 1v7) has bought every government around the world, along with the entertainment, communication, healthcare, finance, media and news, corporations, and all those who will further his plan for world domination. I thank God that I am out of here very soon. I don't like the way this world has gone at all. It has become so anti-Christian and each day it seems to get worse... Come Lord Jesus...! The world holds nothing for me anymore, it deceived me into thinking it did once, but not now, I'm ready to go. I really do feel for those who will be left behind, because they haven't got a clue as to what is coming, what they will go through, covid was nothing compared to what they will see. It's horrendous, petrifying, what is to come, words can't describe what catastrophic scenes people shall see, like nothing in their imagination could 'conjure' up. If you want to escape this 'hell on earth' get saved, become a Christian and come with us at the Rapture.

Who are you leaning on?

It's good to have someone to lean on, have you got someone? If not, who is your best friend, why can't you lean on them? We all should run to the Lord no matter what, but the Lord often sends people into our lives to help us. He knows what and who we need in our lives, so be careful who you walk away from. If you haven't got some close friends, you really are losing out on so many blessings. Humble yourself, and build up friends around you, go the extra mile, step out of your comfort zone and try harder with people. Don't just expect things on YOUR terms, it's 'give and take'... it takes sacrifice to build up great friendships.

Who are you accountable to?

I'm accountable to God, and to all those who listen to me. Those at The Oaks Church, those on my mailing list, my friends, my wife, and every Christian I come into contact with. All of you have an effect on me, and all of you hold me to account. Mat 12v36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

Luke 16v2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. I shall give account to God for what He has given me and what I have done with it.

Rom 14v12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

1 Cor 4v1-4 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. Every one of you are to keep me in check and judge me. I have a duty to you.

Heb 13v17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. We are to help each other, encourage and rebuke each other when necessary. We serve one another... but do we? We are accountable to each other. James 3v1 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. As a Bible teacher I am responsible for WHAT I teach, that weighs heavy on me at times. I seek the Lord asking Him to help me and teach me what I should bring to the church, the Body of Christ, that is why I stand strong on the fundamentals and won't entertain those who teach heresy e.g. Calvinism, Hyper-Dispensationalism, Pentecostalism etc. My Bible teaching will be held to account, that is why I take it so seriously. I will answer to the Lord at the Judgment Seat of Christ for my life.

THREE Raptures... Firstfruits (Mat 27), Harvest (1 Thes 4), Gleanings (Rev 11)

1 Cor 15v23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

The Body of Christ, the Church of God does NOT go through any part of the Tribulation, Jacob's (Israel's) Trouble. Soon we shall experience the Rapture, are you ready to go?

When talking about the Lord Jesus Christ's coming... 'at his coming', occurs THREE times, that's interesting.

1 Cor 15v23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

1 Thes 2v19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

1 John 2v28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

Come up hither occurs THREE times in Scripture, pointing to ALL THREE Raptures...!

Prov 25v7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

Rev 4v1 After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

Rev 11v12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

I'm not looking for a sign I'm listening for a sound. We are not told to look for the Tribulation, a peace treaty, the Antichrist, the Temple rebuilt etc. we are told to look for Jesus Christ... Titus 2v13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Phil 3v20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Acts 1v11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

The Archbishop of Canterbury... just another pillock, who I doubt is really saved.

Not only does this pillock not understand the Bible, but I also really do doubt that he is even saved. Anyone who can write this 'tweet' is not showing signs that they are a Christian. The Lord Jesus Christ was 'only' a 'Bishop' (1 Pet 2v25), Justin Welby is an 'Archbishop' putting his title 'above' that of the Lord... how about that... Job 32v21+22 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man. For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away. The Church of England is spiritually DEAD, just like the Roman Catholic Church, which has really swallowed up the Church of England, you can't really differentiate between the two these days. We really are living in the last days aren't we...! I would suggest trying to reach every vicar you know with a Gospel tract. One guy has just posted anonymously of course, our 'Are you a Roman Catholic' booklet back saying it should be a hate crime sending this kind of material out...!

Pope 'Gregory' finally 'explodes' and calls it a day... he's now DEAD as a doornail... spiritually.

This loser just threw in the towel and gave up when I asked him just a few questions. They rocked him to the core, and he just felt inadequate, realising he knew very little about the Bible. You see, this arrogant moron went around pretending that he was an expert on the Scriptures, and conned people into thinking he was some sort of authority on Biblical numerics, while all the time he had ulterior motives behind every question he asked. He never used to come in through the 'front door' but would 'creep around the back' hoping no one would spot him, but us Bible Believers saw straight through this cowardly jellyfish and dealt with him accordingly, a silver bullet between the eyes. Now he is DEAD, may he 'rest' where he lands... NIMBY...!

Well, that concludes this issue, and it's a year late...!

I thank the Lord for bringing us all through this coronavirus-'covid19' HOAX and SCAM. May the Lord bring all those involved in this utter madness to justice and deal with them in His manner. May every Christian wake up to what is really happening, rather than following the world and the narrative of the day. So many Christians fell for this utter nonsense and queued up to get jabbed with a substance that, even to this day, they do not KNOW what was in it. We shall continue to warn people the best we can about this satanic agenda. Keep talking to the Lord about everything, and if and when you mess up, repent and ask the Lord for forgiveness, then get back up and start again. May the Lord Rapture us all out of here in 2023...!
